OUR LEGACY

We are a flagship company of the global conglomerate Welspun Group, one of India's fastest-growing multinationals with a leadership position in line pipes, home textiles, infrastructure, warehousing, retail, advanced textiles, and flooring solutions.

BEING A PREFERRED SUPPLIER OF LINE PIPES

Welspun Corp Limited (WCL) is among the top welded line pipe manufacturers globally, providing complete solutions and capabilities to manufacture a diverse variety of welded line pipes namely, HFW (High-Frequency Welded), ERW (Electric Resistance Welded), HSAW (Horizontal Submerged Arc Welded), and LSAW (Longitudinal Submerged Arc Welded), ranging from 1½ inch to 140 inches. Specialized coating, double jointing, and bending are some of our core competencies. We have a current capacity of over 2.5 million MTPA at Dahej, Anjar, Mandya, and Bhopal in India; Little Rock in the USA; and Dammam in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia. Our ever-expanding goals and targets have helped us reach out to several parts of the world - six continents and fifty countries - where we've successfully supplied pipes to massive projects, which have yielded promising results.

UNDERTAKING CHALLENGING PROJECTS

WCL is synonymous with outstanding quality and an impeccable execution track record. With our 360-degree abilities in pipe products, our operational excellence, and technological innovation, we deliver some of the most critical pipelines in executing complex and large onshore and offshore projects. We continue to undertake some of the most challenging projects around the world.

GROWTH STRATEGY

Our growth strategy entails creating a diversified product portfolio, repurposing our business to add new target segments, expanding our offerings to address both the B2B and B2C markets, and making well-considered strategic acquisitions.

The diversification into the B2C segment will help us significantly expand our base, enhance the brand, penetrate new markets, build a distribution network and provide opportunities to develop new products. In this pursuit, we will soon commence our TMT facility and foray into the polymer/plastic business segment, thereby transforming ourselves from being a large-scale B2B business to a B2C business in the next few months.

Additionally, we also manufacture BIS Certified Steel Billets, Direct Reduced Iron, Stainless and Alloy Steel Bars, and Stainless-Steel Tubes & Pipes. Our foray into the DI Pipes segment will cater to growing water infrastructure requirements.

CAPEX ON GREENFIELD EXPANSION FOR DI PIPES

We are setting up a Greenfield facility at Anjar, Gujarat to enter the Ductile Iron Pipes business that will facilitate potable water transportation to households around the country, in line with the Government's vision of 'Har Ghar Nal Se Jal'. The total capacity is proposed to be 400 KMTPA.

From the Chairman's Desk

“ Today, we have an enviable order book of 925 KMT valued at ₹ 12,250 crores, from global marquee clients. ”

My dear Stakeholders,

THE WORLD, AS WE KNOW

The COVID-19 pandemic has had an overwhelming impact on global businesses and has been the single biggest driver of transformation in the world.

Further, sanctions on Russia contributed to rising crude prices with significant market uncertainties, which led the global commodity markets to witness one of the largest supply shocks in decades, altering global patterns of trade, production, and consumption.

RAKING IN TRANSFORMATIONAL CHANGES

Despite external environmental challenges, Welspun Corp has continued to demonstrate resilience. We relentlessly focused on our 'Business Growth & Diversification' strategy, to consistently deliver a stronger future-ready conglomerate.

This positions us as a global leader in the niche line pipe industry, with geographical diversification, and a steady order inflow from world-renowned customers. From this vantage point, we foresee a bright future with sustainable progress as we advance on our strategic business transformation. In other words, we are changing the shape, color, and contours of Welspun Corp.

We are diversifying our product portfolio and expanding our businesses to enter the B2C segment. Our foray into Ductile Iron (DI) pipes, entry into long products, stainless steel, and the acquisition of Sintex BAPL's NCDs shall enable our B2C transformation.

FY2022: FINANCIAL AND OPERATIONAL HIGHLIGHTS

Today, we have an enviable order book of 925 KMT valued at ₹ 12,250 crores, from global marquee clients. We have been partnering with most of them for over 15 years, having delivered repeat orders worth more than 15 million MT of Pipes. Our US-based Little Rock plant, recently won an order of 325 KMT, valued at over ₹ 5,000+ crores in the United States. This is by far the single largest order and will transport natural gas from the Permian Basin to Houston, the energy capital of the world. Apart from this, the company also secured various prestigious marquee orders globally during the year.

These significant and prestigious orders exhibit an improvement in the overall business sentiments, our strong customer connections, their confidence in our technical expertise, and our project execution capabilities.

Our operational excellence, and our financial discipline, have resulted in a healthy balance sheet which allows us to maintain a sharp focus on emerging opportunities. I am happy to share that this year our Joint Venture Company in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia was successfully listed on the Saudi Exchange main market. The IPO witnessed a strong demand with an oversubscription of 71.8x from institutional investors and 16.1x from retail investors.

TOWARDS A STRONGER TOMORROW

As energy demands rapidly evolve, we are developing the world's first guideline for the transportation of hydrogen gas in existing and new offshore pipelines, becoming the first Indian company to join the H2Pipe hydrogen pipeline project. We are excited to drive this research supporting the world's energy transition. The project has placed us at the forefront of creating a smarter and more sustainable world.

Further, with an exciting transformation, our immediate priorities will be to create a diversified portfolio, add new target segments, expand our offerings, and stabilize our new businesses. Our foray into the B2C segment will help us strengthen our competitiveness, enhance our brand, penetrate new markets, build a distribution network and provide opportunities to develop new markets.

We are heading into a new horizon with optimism and ambition underpinned by our strong fundamentals. We expect to continue to grow profitably while creating sustainable value for all our stakeholders. Post-pandemic, with demand coming back on track in regions where we operate, we remain geared to support development in the oil, gas, and water industries.

We look forward to your continued support as we embark on this new phase of growth - one that will not only build a stronger future but also contribute to a cleaner, greener planet for generations to come.

I thank all stakeholders for their support, our customers for believing in us; and our employees for their relentless efforts.

Sincerely,

B. K. Goenka

Incubating New Growth Platforms

Having built a strong foundation, we are confident of executing our business growth and diversification plans. Our growth strategy entails diversifying our portfolio mix, improving competitiveness, adding new target segments, expanding the offerings, achieving greater economies of scale and evaluating new opportunities for organic and inorganic growth.

Our growth strategy involves creating a diversified product portfolio, repurposing our business to add new target segments, expanding our offerings to address B2B and B2C markets, and making well-considered strategic acquisitions. The diversification into the B2C segment will help the Company significantly extend its base, enhance the brand, penetrate new markets, build a distribution network and provide opportunities to develop new products. Our single-minded aim behind this is to create significant value for all our stakeholders – shareholders, employees, customers, suppliers and communities.

NEW VENTURES: ORGANIC AND INORGANIC

MANUFACTURING OF DUCTILE IRON PIPES

With a global leadership in large diameter pipes segment, our recent focus has been on expanding the customer base and overall presence in the segment. In addition, we are also setting up a state-of-the-art Greenfield facility at Anjar, in Gujarat, with capacity of 400 KMTPA to enter the Ductile Iron Pipe business, commissioned to operationalize by early FY 2022-23. Initiatives focused on creating drinking water supply infrastructure add to the optimism.

The Union Budget 2022-23 earmarked ₹ 60,000 crore to the Jal Jeevan Mission, with an aim to provide a functional tap connection to every rural household and supply potable water to 3.8 crore households in FY23. Further, the Jal Shakti Ministry allocated a higher amount of ₹ 86,189 crore, compared to ₹ 69,052 crore earlier. Our projection indicates robust demand for DI Pipes over the next 5-7 years.

TRANSITIONING TO B2C

As part of our growth and diversification strategies, we are setting up a solid platform for higher value-added products and B2C initiatives. Through these planned forays and acquisitions, we plan to leverage synergies in raw material sourcing, common infrastructure, and technical manpower.

To strengthen our Company, we acquired the steel business of Welspun Steel to gain a footprint in the B2C business. The acquisition enlarges our B2C presence and makes us an integrated producer from steel-making to finished products. Our upcoming foray into the TMT bars segment will further solidify our B2C product portfolio.

In addition, we plan to foray into polymer products by way of an acquisition of a national-level brand with an extensive distribution network. Our aim is to leverage the potential synergy of its distribution platform for TMT, and ERW pipes.

Supporting India's Clean Fuel Transition

As energy demands across the world evolve rapidly, we are confident in undertaking strategic interventions in new opportunities and segments. By laying the foundation for hydrogen gas transportation infrastructure, we not only charted the course for the development of futuristic hydrogen pipelines across markets, but we are also creating a smarter and a more sustainable world.

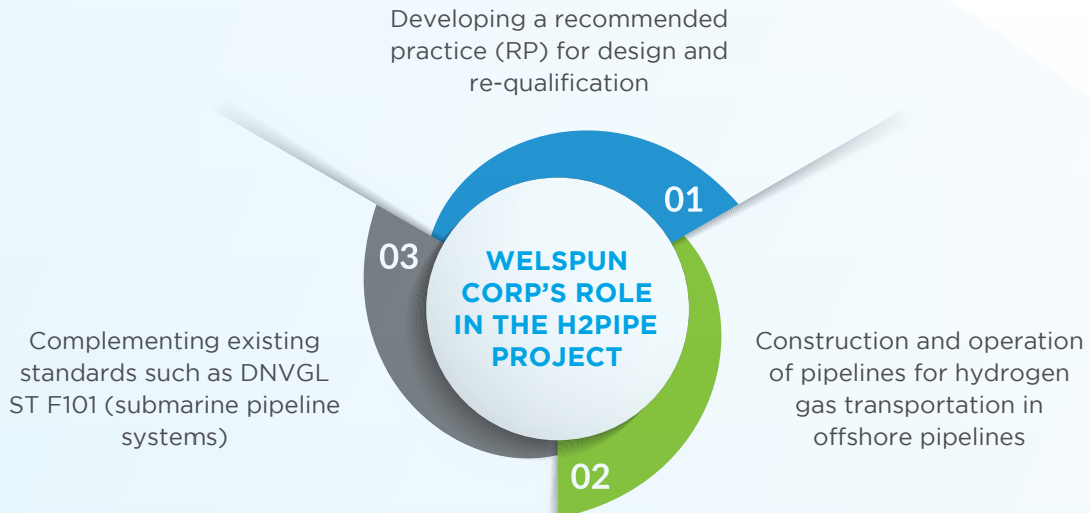

At Welspun Corp, we take pride in being the first Indian company to have joined the H2Pipe Joint Industry Project on hydrogen pipelines. As part of the project, we are developing the “world’s first guideline” for the transportation of hydrogen gas in existing and new offshore pipelines. In addition to enhancing global focus and leveraging our technical expertise, this is leading us towards playing an active role in adding sustainable gains for the industry and creating economic value for the nation.

JOINING THE H2PIPE PROJECT

As a steering member of the committee, Welspun Corp is collaborating with 24 of the world’s premier energy companies to provide technical expertise in the project and develop the world’s first guideline for the transport of hydrogen gas in existing and new offshore pipelines. With hydrogen emerging as an important pillar for energy transition, the industry-first project targets at providing guidance to the global energy sector as it gradually shifts towards clean energy.

Our technical expertise in the project is helping us lay the foundation for hydrogen infrastructure. The H2Pipe project has been launched by DNV AS Energy Systems Pipeline Technology, a leading industrial certification body.

GEARED FOR MULTIPLE PROJECT PHASES

The H2Pipe project will be executed in multiple phases. The first phase will focus on the assessment of existing standards, including the offshore standard DNVGL-ST-F101, to identify the scope and additional considerations for hydrogen transportation. This will be captured in an industry guideline and will include preliminary experimental activities. The subsequent phases will be experimental to define the requirements and acceptance criteria for offshore hydrogen pipelines.

Battling the COVID-19 crisis

During the pandemic, we conducted sanitization and fumigation exercises, and plotted Bus Marshals to keep social distancing and mask checks. We also took the challenge to ensure 100% employee vaccination. We established employee connect across locations not only for our employees, but also checked on family's well-being. As our employees appreciated this connect drive, it helped to establish a personal touch and care among the workforce. As a tribute to some of our employees who lost their lives during the second wave, we planted saplings at the VIP garden area during the Environment Week.

Building India's Social Infrastructure

We are proactive to the immediate global need for sustainable practices and share a cherished bond with the communities around us. Translating Sustainability Into Lasting Outcomes

We have incorporated sustainability as an integral part of our sustainable business model and of building a future-ready organization. Our ESG efforts are targeted at accelerating our aim of being recognized as the most trusted organization in the sector. With this, we remain dedicated to making a net positive contribution to the society and the environment.

At the recently concluded COP26, India took ambitious targets to reduce GHG emissions as well as increase the share of renewable energy in the overall mix, while also declaring 2070 as the target by which to achieve “Net-Zero” status. At Welspun Corp, we support this national agenda by including sustainability as an integral part of our sustainable business model and by building a future-ready organization.

The Company’s sustainable business model is such that it continues to strengthen its business drivers, fortify its position in the steel pipe market and deliver value to all the stakeholders. We are developing one-of-a-kind customer-centric solutions that can change people’s lives and help them meet tomorrow’s challenges. The Company’s efforts to improve people’s skills and process efficiencies, as well as to produce more sustainable and innovative goods, are making a real difference in the lives of our customers, while also preserving the environment and ensuring the prosperity of the communities around which we operate.

To achieve this objective, we have devised a strategic approach that involves the following interventions:

- World-class manufacturing facilities renowned for quality and resource efficiency
- Form a distinctive sustainable brand image by accelerating innovation, which also helps in achieving a prominent market share
- Develop a human capital, while also becoming a more diverse and inclusive organization
- Create shared value through the promotion of the well-being of communities around which we operate

At WCL, sustainability has always been at the core of our business practices. Last year, we initiated an organized approach to clearly articulate our sustainability vision and the means to achieving it through a comprehensive roadmap with defined goals, targets and initiatives. This roadmap covers Environment, Social and Governance parameters, including energy, water, waste, safety, employee welfare, diversity, CSR and governance.

MATERIALITY ASSESSMENT

To focus our efforts, we conducted a materiality assessment to identify key focus areas which we should prioritize. There were 20 ESG material issues identified as priority material topics through this assessment which are true to the core values of the company, while also adhering to national and international frameworks. We also conducted a maturity assessment to understand where we currently stand and determine the initiatives and programs required to achieve our sustainability goals.

Through these steps, we arrived at a framework with sustainability goals with baselines and KPIs across environmental, social and governance aspects. We have taken targets on energy, carbon, water, waste, safety, community development initiatives and public disclosures in alignment with the identified critical material issues.

To achieve these goals, we have a robust governance mechanism in place which drives and monitors the progress in the achievement of these goals. The governance of our ESG initiatives is spread across the organizational levels. The KPIs are reviewed regularly at the Board level to ensure accountability and enable effective decision-making, and to monitor and manage our ESG progress.

WCL has implemented the ESG compass, a tool that enable real-time tracking of all the parameters defined across Environment, Social and Governance aspects. The compass is integrated with various enterprise resource management tools that aids automated tracking of ESG KPIs, which ensures accuracy and accessibility of information at any given time.

We have illustrated below some of the initiatives taken this year across Environmental and Social aspects, aligning with our overall sustainability goals.

Welspun Corp's approach to Environment, Social & Governance aspects

At WCL, we are committed to minimizing our impact on the environment, while maximizing our resource efficiency. This commitment flows right from the top, as evidenced by the expansion of the scope of our CSR Committee to include ESG matters, resulting in its renaming as 'ESG & CSR Committee'. We also have an ESG & CSR Policy which serves as a guideline for our sustainability initiatives.

Showcasing our inclination towards adopting the best practices for our climate change efforts, we have implemented the guidelines from the TCFD framework. The report will be made available in the public domain shortly. Using this framework, we have explored climate change risks and opportunities across three timeframes: short-term (up to 2030), medium-term (up to 2040), and long-term (up to 2050).

All the identified climate change risks have been categorized as either physical or transition risks, and their potential financial impact as well as mitigation actions are listed in the report. Scenario analysis was conducted for transition risks utilizing IEA World Energy Outlook 2021 (WEO-2021) and Net-Zero Emissions (NZE) scenario, whereas various scenarios such as SSP 1-2.6, SSP 2-4.5, and SSP 5-8.5 were used for physical risks. Similarly, climate-related opportunities have been identified, along with their potential financial impact and strategies to harness the opportunities.

In order to effectively track and assess the climate-related risks and opportunities, the following metrics and targets were taken:

Sr. No.	KPI & Metric	Target
1	Total GHG Emissions (MT of CO ₂ e)	WCL has set a target to become carbon neutral by 2040 and to use 10% Renewable Energy by 2025, and 20% Renewable Energy by 2030
	Scope 1 emissions (MT of CO ₂ e)	3,365
	Scope 2 emissions (MT of CO ₂ e)	92,435
2	Water intensity (KL/MT)	WCL has set a target of 0.55 KL/MT and 0.40 KL/MT for FY25 & FY30, respectively. It has also set an overarching target to become water neutral by 2040.
3	Waste to landfill (MT)	WCL has set a zero waste to landfill (ZWL) target by 2030 and to limit waste to landfill by 1 MT by 2025.
4	Sustainable Supply Chain (% of suppliers assessed as per ESG compliant code of conduct)	100% of critical suppliers to be assessed on ESG parameters by 2025

ENERGY EFFICIENCY

To achieve these targets, we have adopted various measures such as retrofitting LED lights, using sludge as alternate fuel in boilers, improvements in the HVAC system, installing Variable Frequency Drives (VFDs), digital temperature controllers, switching to efficient pumps, and replacing the use of furnace oil and LPG with natural gas. Further, we have plans to set up a 300kW solar park at our Anjar facility.

Based on the measures taken, our total energy consumption for the reporting year is 3,09,421 GJ. We have also measured our Scope 1, 2, and 3 emissions, with figures of 3,365, 92,435, and 5,02,453 tCO₂e, respectively. This translates into 14.7 tCO₂e per ₹ Crore of turnover.

WATER EFFICIENCY

Sensitive to the value of water as a precious resource, we have also taken initiatives to recycle and reuse wastewater in the facility, through the installation of an STP of 30 MLD at the Anjar facility, located in a water-stressed area. This year, we consumed 2,28,324 kL of water while discharging 94,290 kL.

WASTE MANAGEMENT

We have also employed effective waste management practices at our establishments. The different types of waste are handled appropriately as per their characteristics. After collecting the waste in waste bins, they are stored at temporary storage yards at each plant. Designated Waste Storage Yards have been identified at the plants. The waste is then transported to authorized vendors for further processing. Further, co-processing disposal practices have been adopted for major classes of hazardous waste.

To reduce hazardous waste from paints, the hose length of mixed paint has been reduced from 1,500 mm to 1,250 mm, and flushing time has been optimized through automation using timers. This year, a total of 15,600 MT of waste was generated, out of 12,955 MT of waste was recycled, while 153 MT of waste was reused. Thus, almost 85% of the waste generated was either reused or recycled, serving as a testament to our sustainability efforts.

HEALTH AND SAFETY

We have a comprehensive health and safety management system in place to reduce the frequency and probability of harm at the workplace. A structured approach is taken for the identification and assessment of work-related hazards, which includes collection of existing information about workplace hazards, inspection of the workplace, identification of hazards, and investigation of incidents to ensure they do not happen again.

To further enhance safety at the workplace, we use labels and signs, ensure employees have the right tools at hand, and encourage stretch breaks. We also partner with occupational clinicians and reward employees for safe behavior. Frequent internal and external audits are also conducted. As a result of our efforts, we reported an LTIFR of 0.53 this year.

AN EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER

Keeping with our belief in inculcating an inclusive work culture, our premises are accessible to differently-abled employees and workers. We have also formalized an equal opportunity policy, which is available on our website.

Two of our plants are assessed and certified with SA8000. This certification, which assesses factors such as child labor, forced labor, sexual harassment, discrimination, and wages demonstrates our commitment to treating our workforce fairly.

We have a well-established mechanism for employees and workers to air their grievances. At Anjar, the Social Performance Team captures and resolves such grievances, while at Bhopal, we have a grievance register to record any grievances. We did not receive any complaints about the working conditions or health and safety.

EMPOWERING COMMUNITIES

As a responsible corporate citizen, we believe it is our duty to empower the lives of the communities around which we operate. To this end, we have initiated programs such as Wel-Shiksha, Wel-Netrutva and We-Volunteer. We aim to address social concerns such as the health and education of vulnerable groups through these initiatives, which have benefited nearly 1.5 lakh people. More details of our CSR initiatives are presented in Annexure 4 of the Directors' Report.

WCL strives to address this concern through its vision of creating a shared value for all its stakeholders. We believe in collaborating with our value chain partners and together create a positive environmental and social impact. With this approach, WCL endeavors to institutionalize sustainability considerations in all sourcing or procurement decisions. Through the implementation of sustainable procurement and responsible sourcing policy, we are working towards encouraging its supply chain partners to implement management systems that focus on environmental and social guiding principles outlined in this policy.

Furthermore, we have defined Suppliers Code of Conduct to address and mitigate the issues of legal and regulatory compliance and managing environmental and social aspects across its value chain operations. This Code of Conduct is aligned with local regulatory requirements, principles of United Nations Global Compact (UNGC), United Nations Guiding Principles on Human Rights and the relevant International Labour Organization (ILO) conventions. The Company encourages its partners to strictly adhere to and carry out their business activities in accordance with our Code of Conduct.

We also developed a supplier scoring methodology to quantitatively assess our suppliers based on the suppliers' Code of Conduct. The organization identified suppliers critical for WCL operations and imparted workshops with an aim to provide training and guidance to its suppliers on sustainable procurement practices and march towards the path for creating a shared value of sustainability. In FY22, 50% of the identified critical suppliers were assessed on the WCL Supplier Code of Conduct and ESG issues, thereby achieving the supply chain assessment target for the financial year.

Governance

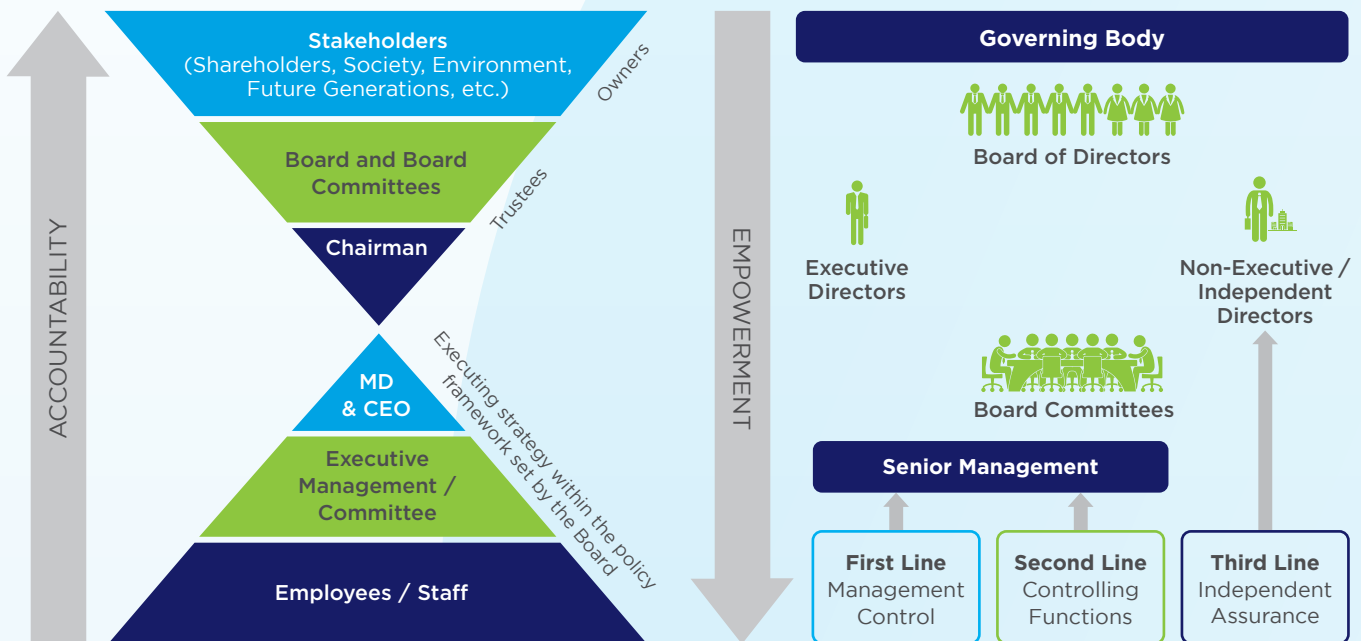

Corporate Governance Framework

The corporate governance framework is based on diverse Board & Board Committees and separation of the Board’s supervisory role from the executive management team. As a good governance practice, there is a separation in role of Board Chairman and Managing Director at Welspun. The role of the Board and Board Committees is defined in the Board and Committee charters.

THREE LINES OF DEFENSE MODEL

The Company has a well-established three lines of defense model that governs the effective functioning of the organization. Each of the three lines play a distinct role within the organization’s wider governance framework. At Welspun, all three lines of defense operate in a coordinated manner with the common objective to support the organization in achievement of its objectives and effective risk management. As part of periodic review, during the year, the Company reviewed maturity of entity level controls and three lines of defense model to embrace evolving leading practices and strengthen organizational resilience.

Management Discussion and Analysis

Vipul Mathur
MD & CEO

FY 2021-22 was a significant year for the Company as we took decisive steps in executing on our Business Growth & Diversification Strategy. The acquisition of the Steel business of Welspun Steel was completed and significant progress was made on our upcoming Ductile Iron plant. The beginning of the financial year was marked by the onset of the deadly second COVID-19 wave in India while during the last quarter, the war between Russia and Ukraine broke out. We demonstrated tremendous resilience in a weak operating environment with strong inflationary pressures. As we move towards a new journey of growth along with sustainability at the core, we are confident of generating value for all our stakeholders. Our foray into the B2C segment will help further strengthen our business model and provide a stronger base for future growth. Overall, we are well positioned to help the development of sustainable infrastructure and meaningfully impact lives across the world.

GLOBAL ECONOMIC OVERVIEW

The global economy recovered in 2021 following the disruption caused by COVID-19 in 2020. On the back of international collaboration in adapting functional health policies and efficient fiscal and monetary policies, the global economy is estimated to grow by 6.1% in 2021, compared to a contraction of 3.1% in 2020. The global recovery has largely been spearheaded by emerging markets and developing economies, growing their gross domestic product (GDP) at an average of 6.8% and the advanced economies growing at an average of 5.2%. The biggest contributors to the growth in advanced economies were France, Italy and UK growing at 7.0%, 6.6% and 7.4% respectively. Similarly, the biggest contributors to the growth of developing economies were China and India estimated to be growing at 8.1% and 8.9% respectively. The crude prices saw a sharp increase of 36.0% between August 2021 and February 2022 owing to a strong demand, short-lived effects of the Omicron variant of the COVID-19 pandemic followed by the Ukraine and Russia war.

REAL GDP GROWTH

Source: IMF World Economic Outlook April 2022

Post COVID-19, the global economy was on a recovery phase. However, the ongoing Russia and Ukraine war coupled with the possibilities of another wave of COVID is expected to impact global economic growth in 2022 and 2023. Russia is a key provider of oil, gas, and metals, as well as wheat and grain, which it shares with Ukraine. Due to diminishing availability, many goods' prices have seen a sharp rise. Although, following the announcements of the US and IEA oil stock releases, crude prices dropped by over USD 10/barrel, with ICE Brent trading at USD 104/barrel in April 2022. The war has resulted in a downward revision from the World Economic Outlook (WEO) January forecast, to a growth of 3.6% in 2022 and 2023, with both Russia and Ukraine expected to experience large GDP contractions in 2022. Medium-term outlooks for most Country Groups have been revised downwards by IMF, with the exception of commodity exporters, who have benefited from the rise in energy and food prices. Advanced economies' aggregate output may take longer to return to pre-pandemic levels. Further, the divergence between advanced economies and Emerging Markets and Developing Economies (EMDEs) that emerged in 2021 is projected to persist, implying some long-term scarring from the pandemic. The crisis may also benefit EMDEs, as they may be able to acquire vacant Russian and Ukrainian markets. As a result, their output is expected to grow 3.8% in 2022 and 4.4% in 2023.

The supply-chain disruptions across the globe have resulted in a higher-than-expected broad-based inflation. Further, with the ongoing Ukraine and Russia war, inflation is expected to remain elevated for a longer timespan than previously forecasted by IMF. The inflation is projected at 5.7% for advanced economies and 8.7% for emerging and developing economies in 2022. Further, to reduce the impact of rising energy prices, many governments will need to diversify their energy sources and boost efficiency wherever possible in the near future. Increased output in OECD nations, reduced protectionism, and multilateral logistics support will benefit the countries most harmed by a disruption in supplies from Russia and Ukraine.

GLOBAL ENERGY DEMAND

The global energy demand is set to increase from 275.4 mboe/d (million barrels of oil equivalent per day) in 2020 to 352 mboe/d by 2045. China, India, and other developing countries will continue to drive increase in global energy demand. Global demand for oil-based products is expected to reach 94.5 (mboe/d) in 2025 and 99 (mboe/d) in 2045. Oil demand in non-OECD nations is expected to rise, and despite a slowing in demand growth in the second half of the projection period, oil will continue to hold the largest proportion of the global energy mix throughout the forecast period. Consumer demand in OECD countries will have a brief period of significant growth as they recover from the COVID-19 pandemic, followed by a long period of stagnation.

The demand for natural gas is expected to rise from 64.2 mboe/d in 2020 to 85.7 mboe/d in 2045. However, growth is likely to slow over the forecast period due to rising renewables penetration and ongoing efforts to enhance energy efficiency. Almost 95% of the increase in gas demand will come from developing countries, mostly in Asia and the Middle East, and is driven by the power generating and industrial sectors. Gas is predicted to overtake coal as the second-most important fuel in the energy mix by 2030.

To summarize, global primary energy demand is expected to increase by 28% in the period between 2020 and 2045, with all energies required, driven by an expected doubling in size of the global economy and the addition of around 1.7 billion people worldwide by 2045. All energies will witness growth, with the exception of coal. Renewables see the largest growth, followed by gas, but oil is still expected to retain its number one position in the energy mix.

To meet this demand requires huge investments. It is clear that underinvestment remains one of the great challenges for the oil industry and this was exacerbated by the COVID-19 pandemic. Without the necessary investments, there is the potential for further volatility and a future energy shortfall, which is not in the interests of either producers or consumers.

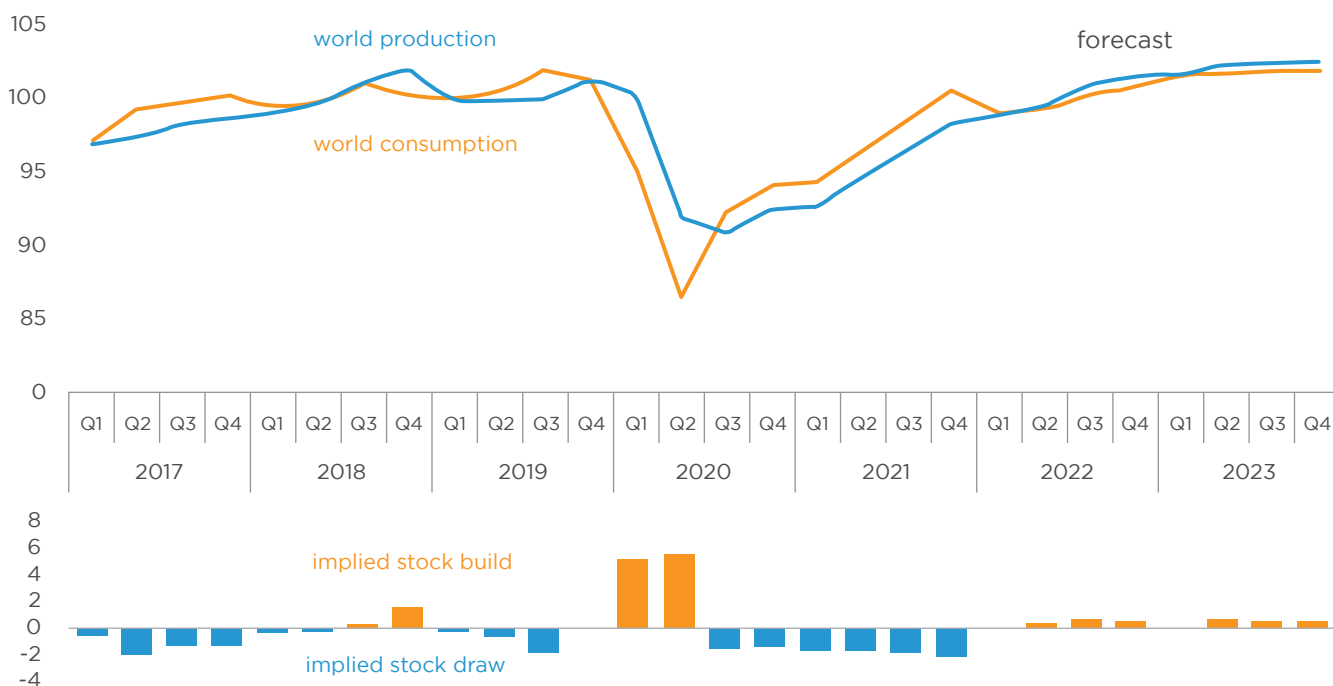

OIL

Stringent lockdown measures owing to rising COVID-19 cases in China and the weaker-than-expected demand in OECD countries at the beginning of the year 2021 led to the moderation in global oil demand. The world oil demand is projected to average 99.4 mb/d (million barrels/day) in 2022, up 1.9 mb/d from 2021. EIA (U.S. Energy Information Administration) estimated Global oil supply to have been increased by 450 kb/d to 99.1 mb/d, majorly led by demand in non-OPEC countries. Despite Russian oil supply disruptions, the major shortfall would be matched owing to reduced demand forecasts, continuous output increases from OPEC members as well as the US and other non-OPEC countries, and significant stock releases from IEA member countries. Global oil inventory have fallen for 14 months in a row, with February stocks 714 mb below the end-of-2020 level and OECD countries accounting for 70% of the drop. From April to August 2022, global refinery throughputs are expected to rise by 4.4 mb/d due to additional capacity and usual seasonal gains. This would allow product inventories to see their first rise in two years, providing some relief to the market's tightness. Overall, 2022 runs (quantity of crude oil processed in the refinery) are expected to increase by 3 mb/d year-on-year, but will remain below 2017 levels.

World liquid fuels production and consumption balance (million barrels per day)

Source: EIA, U.S. Energy Information Administration (EIA) Short-Term Energy Outlook (STEO) April 2022 report

Crude oil prices have risen as a result of Russia's ongoing invasion of Ukraine. The Brent crude oil spot price averaged USD 117 per barrel in March, a USD 20/b increase from February. Sanctions against Russia and other activities contributed to a drop in oil production in Russia, raising market concerns about the possibility of more supply disruptions. In March 2022, STEO report predicted that 98.3 mb/d of petroleum and liquid fuels were consumed globally, up 2.4 mb/d from March 2021. The degree to which existing sanctions on Russia, any prospective future sanctions, and independent business actions affect Russia's oil production or sale in the global market will determine actual future oil prices.

Lower demand expectations and sustained output increases from OPEC+ members in the Middle East, as well as the US and other non-OPEC+ countries, should bring the market back into balance. In addition, how other oil producers react to current oil prices, as well as the impact macroeconomic events may have on global oil demand, will be key factors in determining oil prices in the future months.

NATURAL GAS

Global natural gas consumption showed a strong recovery in 2021, with an estimated 4.5% y-o-y increase. This is more than twice the equivalent of the decline experienced in 2020 and the third strongest year since 2000, after 2010 and 2018 (which grew by 7.8% and 5.2% respectively). This strong growth resulted from the combination of a rebound in economic activity after the lockdowns of 2020, boosting consumption in the industrial and power generation sectors, and a succession of extreme weather events that led to higher than expected heating and power generation needs. Growth slowed significantly in the second half of 2021 at about 3.0% in Q3 2021 and down to 1.0% in Q4 2021 due to a challenging price environment, gas supply constraints, soaring fuel prices and softening of the economic recovery.

The invasion of Ukraine by Russia has sparked a huge energy supply and security crisis, sending commodities prices to new highs and threatening the world economy. The conflict has increased the pressure on natural gas prices and heightened uncertainty in an already tight market. Lower Russian supplies have been largely compensated for by LNG, transforming Europe into a premium market and diverting cargoes away from Asia Pacific and other regions. As a result of the constrained supply, high prices, and increased market uncertainty, worldwide gas consumption growth has been revised downward, and is now predicted to be negative in 2022.

As per the IEA-Gas market report Q2 2022, global natural gas consumption growth for 2022 is lowered from 1.0% to just below zero, implying a demand reduction of 50 bcm (billion cubic meters) as compared to the previous quarterly report’s prediction. Almost all areas have been revised downwards, with the Asia Pacific region bearing a substantial portion of the impact. This is due to a combination of a reduced economic outlook caused by high commodity prices and the potential of physical limits on access to LNG – particularly for price sensitive clients with a higher exposure to short-term LNG procurement.

LIQUEFIED NATURAL GAS (LNG)

Spot or short-term LNG volumes amounted for 37.0% of worldwide LNG trade in 2021, the largest share on record. China remained the largest importer of spot and short-term LNG volumes, while the United States remained the largest exporter. The United States dominated global LNG export growth, accounting for all of the net increase in LNG supply in 2021. Australia, Qatar, the United States, and Russia remained the top four LNG exporters, accounting for more than two-thirds of worldwide LNG supply.

Global LNG trade increased by 6.0% in 2021, slightly less than the 7.0% average pace seen from 2015 to 2020, but significantly faster than the 1.0% increase seen in 2020. The Asia Pacific area increased LNG imports by 8.0% and accounted for more than 95.0% of global net growth in LNG trade. China was the world’s largest LNG importer in 2021. LNG imports in Emerging Asia increased by 14.0% while Japan’s imports were unchanged. India’s LNG imports declined by 11.0% in 2021 which was the first annual decline since 2013.

Global LNG trade growth in 2021 was fueled by Asian demand and North American supply

Source: IEA, Gas Market Report, Q2-2022

Brent crude oil prices rose by almost 70.0% from their 2020 levels to reach an average of USD 70 per barrel in 2021. Considering that over 50.0% of traded LNG is indexed to oil and oil products, higher oil prices lifted LNG prices in contracts with oil-based formulae. In the United States, Henry Hub prices almost doubled in 2021 to an average of USD 3.9 / MBtu (Million British Thermal Unit) – its highest level since 2014. Moreover, this was worsened by Russia’s decision to reduce gas delivery to Europe despite the availability of excess supply and transport capacity. Asian spot LNG prices increased fourfold to over USD 18/MBtu, their highest level. In Europe, LNG import prices increased more significantly than in other regions. In the United Kingdom, average LNG import prices more than quadrupled to over USD 10/MBtu, with monthly prices soaring to an all-time high of USD 27/MBtu in December 2021.

There is a strong drive to reduce the EU’s exposure to Russian energy imports, as established in the European Commission’s REPowerEU outline plan issued on March 8, 2022. This echoes the IEA’s publication of a 10-Point Plan on March 3, outlining a suite of measures to reduce the volume of Russian gas imports into Europe by over a third within a year. The observed drop in Russian pipeline deliveries to Europe (and absence of spot traded volumes since the beginning of the heating season), combined with the European Union’s objective of reducing its supply dependency on Russia, has led to a downward revision of Russian pipeline deliveries to Europe for 2022. This in turn necessitates higher LNG imports in order to balance consumption needs and ensure the filling of European underground storage sites, with a minimum 80% filling target by November 1, 2022 (and 90% from 2023) as part of a European Commission legislative proposal issued in late March. Higher LNG import needs in Europe are putting pressure on an already tight global LNG market balance in 2022. The prospect of additional supply appears limited as incremental export capacity relies on a limited number of projects, while several exporters are still hampered by 2021’s extended capacity outages.

SHALE GAS

Shale gas and associated natural gas from tight oil plays are the primary contributors to the long term growth of U.S. natural gas production through 2050. Natural gas and crude oil reserves in the United States fell steadily from the late 1970’s to 1996. In 1997, producers adopted improvements in directional drilling and hydraulic fracturing techniques that successfully expanded proven reserves and production of natural gas from shale formations, reversing the decreasing trend for natural gas. When advancements in directional drilling and hydraulic fracturing were applied to tight oil-bearing strata in 2008, the downward trend in crude oil production was reversed. The shale gas and oil revolution in North America unleashed previously unreachable unconventional gas and oil sources. It helped the United States become the world’s biggest oil and gas producer.

As per EIA Annual Energy Outlook 2022 (AEO 2022) Shale gas and associated natural gas from tight oil plays are the primary contributors to the long term growth of U.S. natural gas production through 2050. More than half of projected U.S. natural gas production growth is expected to come from associated natural gas produced from tight oil plays.

OIL AND GAS IN INDIA

The oil and gas sector is one of India’s eight key industries, and it has a significant impact on decision-making in all other critical sectors of the economy. The Indian economy is directly affected by changes in crude oil prices and global demand-supply dynamics. As India's economic growth is linked to its energy demand, the demand for oil and gas is expected to increase, making the industry attractive for investment. As of 2021, India was the world's third-largest oil consumer. India's energy consumption has increased since 2000, with coal, oil, and solid biomass meeting 80.0% of its needs. India is the world's third-largest crude oil importer as it has limited crude oil reserves. During FY22, National Oil Companies (NOCs) operated fields contributed about 75.6% of total domestic crude oil production, while private businesses produced the remaining 24.4%.

Crude Oil

Total crude oil and condensate output decreased by 2.6% in FY22 to 29.7 MMT (million metric tons) compared to 30.5 MMT recorded in the same period in the previous year. India imported 212.2 MMT of crude oil in FY22, up from 196.5 MMT in FY21, an increase of 8.0% due to a decline in domestic output. From 221.8 MMT in FY21 to 241.7 MMT in FY22, overall crude oil processing grew by 9.0%. Crude oil imports from OPEC countries dropped to 71.5% of overall imports in the period April-March 2022, as compared to 71.9% in the period April-March 2021. Crude oil was imported mainly from Middle East (63.9%), Africa (13.6%), North America (13.3%), South America (4.6%) and Eurasia (3.4%) during the period April to March 2022.

Natural Gas

The overall gross natural gas production of 34,024 mmscm for FY22 was 18.7% greater than the previous year. Domestic output increased as a result of the start of two major deep-water projects, the first in December 2020 and the second in April 2021.

The total natural gas consumption of 65,307 mmscm in FY22 was 6.9% more than the previous year. For FY22, the approximate sector usage of natural gas was fertilizer (30.0%), power (15.0%), City Gas Distribution (CGD) (20.0%), refinery (9.0%), petrochemicals (5.0%), and others (21.0%). Natural gas is utilized as a feedstock in a variety of sectors, including fertilizers, polymers, and other commercially important organic chemicals, as well as a fuel for electricity production and heating in industrial and commercial units. Natural gas is also used in home residences for cooking and as a vehicle transportation fuel.

Cumulative LNG imports fell 5.9% in FY22 to 31,096 million metric standard cubic meters (mmscm). LNG imports fell sharply as high spot LNG prices and rising domestic supply dampened India's demand for LNG imports. According to Fitch Ratings, higher domestic production and LNG spot prices are projected to weigh on imports through the first half of FY23. However, imports are expected to climb steadily in the medium term as consumption increases. As per a CRISIL report, demand for LNG will increase despite rising gas prices because the city gas and fertilizer industries are less sensitive to price increases. Although the government controls consumer prices, fertilizer manufacturers can pass on increasing gas costs to customers. However, the government provides subsidies to urea producers to compensate for any losses. Natural gas is being used as a feedstock in new fertilizer plants. India's demand for LNG is driven by city gas and fertilizers. Domestic supplies are allocated to municipal gas firms at a lower cost than imported LNG, which accounts for only a part of their volumes. According to CRISIL, domestic demand for natural gas is predicted to increase 12-14% in FY23 as infrastructure strengthens and domestic production expands (which is less expensive than imported LNG). High and volatile LNG prices, on the other hand, constitute a significant risk to this forecast.

India had 10,419 km of crude pipeline with a capacity of 147.9 million metric tons per year (mmtpa) as of April 1, 2022. In terms of length, Indian Oil Corporation Limited (IOCL) controls 50.8%, or 5,301 km, of India's crude pipeline network.

The gas pipeline system determines the structure and development of the gas market. Consequently, an interconnected National Gas Grid is being planned to provide adequate availability and equitable distribution of natural gas throughout the country. Natural gas pipelines with a total length of 19,398 km are now functioning in the country. Additional pipelines are being built to complete the National Gas Grid and make natural gas available throughout India. This will enable easy access to natural gas in all locations and may aid in establishing uniform economic and social improvement. The Petroleum and Natural Gas Regulatory Board (PNGRB) reduced the country's gas pipeline price system in November 2020 to make fuel more affordable for distant customers and to attract investment.

The overall authorized length of natural gas pipelines as of December 2021 is 33,816 km, of which 14,417 km is under construction. In recent years, the establishment of the National Infrastructure Pipeline and the Gati Shakti plan has necessitated investments from both the government and the private sector. The initiative will offer infrastructure development and logistics in India a much-needed boost. The National Infrastructure Pipeline covering 6,835 projects was expanded to over 9,000 projects covering 34 infrastructure sub-sectors. As per the Economic Survey report, the sectors: energy (24.0%), highways (19.0%), urban (16.0%), and railroads (13.0%) account for over 70.0% of India's estimated infrastructure capital spending between fiscal years 2020 and 2025.

Petroleum & Natural Gas Regulatory Board (PNGRB) up to the 10th CGD bidding round had authorized 228 Geographical Areas (GAs), comprising 407 districts in 27 States/UTs covering 53% of the geographical area and 70% of the population, for the development of CGD networks. PNGRB had launched the 11th CGD Bidding Round in September 2021 and received 439 bids from 26 entities against 61 GAs. The Government plans to raise the share of natural gas in the country's energy basket to 15% from the current 6.3% by 2030 and city gas expansion is part of the roadmap.

GLOBAL OIL & GAS MARKET

Americas

Natural gas consumption in the U.S. is expected to average 84.1 Bcf/d in 2022, a 1.0% increase from 2021. The rise in natural gas consumption in the U.S. is due to colder anticipated temperatures in 2022 compared to 2021, resulting in increased demand in the residential and commercial sectors. Furthermore, the industrial sector will demand more natural gas in 2022 in response to increased economic activity. Natural gas consumption in the U.S. is expected to average to 84.7 Bcf/d in 2023.

U.S. crude oil production reached record highs and production of natural gas and petroleum and other liquids is rising amid growing demand for exports and industrial uses. As per Short term EIA – energy outlook April 2022 report, Crude oil output in the U.S. is expected to average 12.0 mb/d in 2022, up by 0.8 mb/d from 2021. EIA expects another 0.9 mb/d increase in 2023, to about 13.0 mb/d, breaking the previous annual average record of 12.3 mb/d set in 2019.

In the United States, 14 petroleum liquids pipeline projects were completed in 2021. Of the fourteen completed projects: There were six new pipeline projects, five of the projects were system expansions, two projects reversed the direction of the pipeline’s commodity flow and one project involved a change in the product transported by the pipeline as per the EIA report. This total includes seven crude oil pipeline construction projects and seven hydrocarbon gas liquid pipeline construction projects.

The United States presently ranks second in the world in terms of natural gas exports, after only Russia.

Since December 2021, U.S. LNG exports have been at an all-time high, with another record broken in March 2022. LNG exports averaged 11.9 Bcf/d in March 2022, up 0.5 Bcf/d from the previous peak in January (11.4 Bcf/d) and 0.7 Bcf/d higher than February shipments. The incremental rise in exports compared to previous months was due to the start-up of LNG production at Calcasieu Pass LNG, a new U.S. LNG export facility. The first LNG shipment from Calcasieu Pass was exported on March 1. Calcasieu Pass exported five LNG cargoes totaling 0.6 Bcf/d in March 2022. By the third quarter of this year, Calcasieu Pass should have reached its full LNG production capability of 1.3 Bcf/d baseload (1.6 Bcf/d peak). It is anticipated that strong levels of U.S. LNG exports will continue in 2022, with a year-to-year average of 12.2 Bcf/d, a 25.0% increase over 2021. EIA report anticipated that natural gas pipeline exports to Mexico and Canada will increase modestly, by 0.3 Bcf/d in 2022 and 0.4 Bcf/d in 2023, owing to increased exports to Mexico.

The pipeline flows to Mexico increased by 9.0%. More natural gas was able to flow to the Mérida markets in the Yucatán Peninsula and to power plants in the Mexico City and Guadalajara regions in central and west-central Mexico as a result of increased flows via the Sur de Texas-Tuxpan Pipeline and the Trans-Pecos Pipeline (part of the Wahalajara system).

Because natural gas output from the Appalachia region will likely continue to displace imports from Canada in the Midwestern states, the report projects U.S. natural gas imports to decline by 0.5 Bcf/d in 2022 and 0.2 Bcf/d in 2023. In the next two years, it has been predicted that LNG imports, especially into New England during the winter months, to stay fairly unchanged.

On March 8, 2022, the U.S. (United States of America) government announced a restriction on Russian petroleum imports, adding to the temporary price rises associated with trade displacement. Weather-related outages at Kazakhstan’s Caspian Pipeline Consortium (CPC) terminal along Russia’s Black Sea Coast, as well as a fire connected to a Houthi missile attack at a Saudi Aramco oil storage and distribution complex in Jeddah, added to the volatility and risk of supply disruptions. On March 31, the White House announced the release of 1 mb/d from the U.S. Strategic Petroleum Reserve (SPR) for a six-month term to increase supply and relieve pricing pressure. These strategic reserve releases have contributed to lower oil prices by countering market perceptions of the risk of supply disruption.

Concerns over security of supply following Russia’s invasion of Ukraine have prompted an uptick in interest in US LNG among European buyers. Expectations are building that the European gas crisis will accelerate the next supercycle of US LNG export projects. LNG companies have highlighted a flood of commercial deals for US LNG in recent months as supporting the buildout of new production capacity, especially as demand in Europe surges following Russia’s invasion of Ukraine. Natural gas pipeline developers described new infrastructure growth opportunities, while upstream gas producers touted their exposure to the international LNG market.

Rig Count is an indicator to oil production in the US oil and gas production industry. In May 2022, the rig count rose for a record 22nd month in a row in the U.S. Since Russia invaded Ukraine on February 24, the U.S. government has urged drillers to produce more oil and gas to reduce domestic prices and help allies break their dependence on Russian energy.

According to data published by Baker Hughes, the oil and gas rig count in the US, was at 727 in the week to June 3, 2022, up 271, or 59%, over this time last year. U.S. oil rigs were at 574 this week, while gas rigs held at their highest since September 2019 at 151.

Middle East

As per the IEA Gas Market Q2-2022 report, natural gas production in the Middle East increased by 3.0% (or 20 bcm) year over year in 2021. Domestic gas demand climbed by 2.5% y-o-y as a result of the recovery in economic activity, which was aided by greater electricity demand and decreased hydropower output. In comparison to 2020, extra-regional pipeline exports and LNG supply to the worldwide market increased by 6.0% in 2021. According to World Pipelines report, the Middle East is likely to witness 598 projects to commence operations during the period 2022-26. Out of them, upstream projects would be 79, midstream would be 140, refinery at 89 and petrochemicals would be the largest with 290 projects respectively.

The Middle East Oil & Gas landscape has changed dramatically in recent years, resulting in investment in LNG and technological offshore projects. Rystad Energy predicts offshore exploration spending to five-fold by 2025. The rise in offshore exploration and production projects is likely to generate significant opportunities for market players in the years to come, as these projects are paving the way for the pipeline sector to grow more. Saudi Arabia is projected to lead the Middle East oil and gas pipe market.

Natural gas production in Iran climbed by more than 5.0% year-on-year in 2021, given the rising domestic consumption and the restart of extra-regional pipeline exports. Domestic consumption in the country increased by 3.0% in 2021, with the electricity industry playing an important contribution. Droughts afflicted the country, reducing hydropower generation and, as a result, increasing gas consumption in the power industry by more than 10% year over year. Iran's extra-regional pipeline deliveries to Turkey increased by 77% (or 4 bcm) to 9.4 bcm, the biggest level on record.

Qatar's natural gas production stood steady in 2021. Domestic demand was substantially driven by an increase in power generation (up 5.0% y-o-y), the majority of which is gas-based. Pipeline shipments to Oman and the United Arab Emirates via the Dolphin pipeline remained broadly flat. LNG shipments increased by less than 1.0% compared to 2021, but with a significant shift in destination; whereas supplies to Europe declined by 24%, supplies to the Asia Pacific area increased by more than 6.0%. Qatar and Germany are negotiating a long-term energy relationship as Europe's biggest economy wants to become less dependent on Russian energy suppliers. Germany recently announced intentions to develop two LNG terminals to receive direct LNG from Qatar.

Saudi Arabia boosted domestic use and production of gas by roughly 5.0% in 2021, despite the absence of cross-border gas commerce. The majority of the increase in consumption occurred in the power sector, where a nearly 7.0% increase in electricity demand boosted gas-fired output in particular (although oil burning in power plants climbed just moderately, by less than 1.0%). Incremental supplies came from the 26 bcm Fadhili gas processing facility (which finished its last phase in mid-2020 and began full-scale operation in 2021), as well as increased related gas output as the OPEC+ oil production curbs were gradually relaxed in the second half of 2021. Saudi Arabia has the fifth-largest shale gas reservoir. The country could duplicate North America's unconventional reserves expansion. Unconventional reserves will stimulate demand for pipelines in collection and treatment facilities. With gas production reaching 119 bcm in 2020, demand for pipelines is expanding.

Israel's gas demand grew by 8.0% in 2021, primarily to increased gas use for power generation. Due to the continuous ramp-up of the massive Leviathan gas field, gas output increased by over 30.0%. LNG imports fell to 0.2 billion cubic meters in 2021 (from 0.8 billion cubic meters in 2020), but pipeline gas exports surged by more than 70.0%, with significant increases in deliveries to Jordan and Egypt. Due to the situation in Ukraine, Europe wants to reduce sourcing 40% of its natural gas from Russia. Gas from Israel, the US, and Qatar would help Europe diversify. A floating LNG facility would allow Israel to ship gas to Europe. Other possibilities include the projected Eastmed pipeline, a complex project that would connect the gas resources to mainland Europe, or a shorter pipeline to Turkey.

In 2021, gas consumption in the UAE dropped by 4.0%. This was driven by the electricity sector, where the continued ramp up of renewable, nuclear and coal-fired generating resulted in a 10.0% decline in gas demand. Production was projected to be reduced by 3.0%. Imports via the Dolphin pipeline from Qatar remained constant, but net LNG exports climbed by 12.0% in 2021.

The demand for OPEC crude is predicted to reach 30.8 mb/d by 2026, 5.3 mb/d more than the cartel produced at the start of 2021. As demand recovers and upstream investments lag in other parts of the world, Saudi Arabia, Iraq, the UAE, and Kuwait may need to speed up output to ensure the world is sufficiently supplied. If Iran continues under sanctions, the Gulf heavyweights may have to produce at full capacity by the end of the year to keep up with demand.

Due to mandated lockdown limitations, pipeline projects were delayed during the COVID-19 outbreak in Q1 of 2020. It also resulted in a drop in gas demand as a result of lower power consumption, while travel limitations had a negative impact on oil consumption. Factors such as expanding gas infrastructure development, growing investments, and increasing desalination plant capacity are expected to boost the market. The increase in offshore exploration and production projects is likely to generate an excellent opportunity for market players in the coming years, as these projects pave the way for the line pipe sector to expand further.

In the Middle East, more than 50 trunk/transmission pipeline projects are expected to start operations during the 2021 to 2025 outlook period. The gas pipeline segment constitutes over 50% of all pipeline projects that are expected to start operations from 2021 to 2025, followed by the oil pipeline and product pipeline. More than 40% of the upcoming pipeline projects are likely to be in the construction stage and are expected to start operations from 2021 to 2025. Among countries, Iran leads with the highest planned and announced pipeline length from 2021 to 2025. Israel stands second, followed by Saudi Arabia, Iraq, and Oman. In the Middle East, 10 countries are expected to collectively spend more than USD 35 billion on the development of new-build pipeline projects that are expected to start operations from 2021 to 2025. Israel is expected to lead among the countries in terms of project cost.

Africa Region

As per the IEA gas market Q2-2022 report, driven by both local and export markets, Africa's gas production climbed by about 10% year over year in 2021. Natural gas consumption in the region grew by 5% year-on-year in 2021, driven mostly by expansion in Egypt and Nigeria, while demand in Algeria remains relatively steady. North African pipeline shipments to Europe surged by 60%, while LNG exports increased by 5%.

Egypt's natural gas consumption increased by about 6.0%, owing to increased power generation needs. The electricity sector, which accounts for nearly 60.0% of the country's gas demand, experienced record demand over the summer months and increased output by 9.0% in 2021. Domestic gas output increased as well, reaching a new high of about 7 Bcf/d (or more than 70 bcm for the year) mainly to increased offshore production at the massive Zohr field and the commissioning of the Raven field. Egypt's LNG shipments grew fourfold to 9 billion cubic meters in 2021, with a surge in the last months of the year due to high international spot prices.

Algeria's natural gas exports surged by about 45.0% year-on-year in 2021, following two years of being at their lowest levels since the mid-1990s. Despite a fall in capacity following the closing of the Maghreb-

Europe pipeline at the end of October, the uptick was driven by a jump in pipeline exports to Spain and Italy. Tunisia's gas consumption is said to have climbed by 5.0%, while Morocco's demand from the power industry, the country's main driver of gas demand, is said to have increased by 3%. Despite the high pricing environment, Libyan pipeline exports fell 28.0% year-on-year in 2021.

African nations that have historically been gas suppliers to Europe are well placed to scale up their exports. Africa's advantage is that it has existing pipelines connected with the wider European gas grid. Current pipeline exports from Africa to Europe run through Algeria into Spain and from Libya into Italy. Talks of long-distance pipelines connecting gas fields in Southern Nigeria to Algeria via the onshore Trans Saharan Gas Pipeline (TSGP) and the offshore Nigeria Morocco Gas Pipeline (NMGP) have picked up in recent months. While the TSGP aims to utilize existing pipelines from Algeria to tap into European markets, NMGP aims to extend the existing West Africa Gas Pipeline all the way to Europe via West African coastal nations and Morocco. Further afield, African LNG exports have predominantly come from Nigeria and Algeria, with smaller volumes from Egypt, Angola and a fraction from Equatorial Guinea. In addition, large-scale discoveries offshore in Mozambique, Tanzania, Senegal, Mauritania and South Africa have the potential to yield additional natural gas exports once developed.

Australia

Australia is the world's largest exporter of liquefied natural gas, with a vast pipeline network that runs the length and breadth of the country. In comparison to the oil pipelines, its gas pipeline capacity dominates the terrain. The pipeline and gas industry in Australia will have several prospects in 2022. With numerous significant pipeline projects in Western Australia, a variety of projects in the eastern states, and a strong focus on hydrogen everywhere, the industry is more active than ever.

In November 2021, the government outlined a plan to spur investment in new gas pipelines to beef up gas supply. In its National Gas Infrastructure Plan, the government said its modeling showed that at least one new gas basin will need to be unlocked by 2030 to meet domestic demand and export demand for gas from Australia's east coast. Gas would be needed from Santos Ltd's proposed Narrabri project in New South Wales from 2026, from the undeveloped Beetaloo shale basin in the Northern Territory from 2025 and from one or two basins in Queensland from 2028. Those developments will require five new pipelines and expansions of existing pipelines.

The government has been promoting the gas industry to drive a recovery from the pandemic-induced economic slump, viewing cheap gas as essential for food production, manufacturing and steady power supplies.

Hydrogen Pipelines

Climate change is the biggest challenge of the 21st century. If the world is to succeed in limiting global warming, all solutions must be leveraged and accelerated. Electricity and gas will continue to fulfill complementary roles in the future integrated energy system. Electrification of all industrial and residential energy demand is not feasible, and certain industries cannot be readily electrified. In terms of low-carbon energy supply, hydrogen is a logical means to address these issues, as it is easy to transport and store using a significant proportion of repurposed infrastructure. In the medium-term, it appears inevitable that blue hydrogen – whereby hydrogen is extracted from natural gas, and the carbon dioxide is stored to prevent emissions will play a large role. Longer-term, green hydrogen predominantly generated via electrolysis using renewable energy sources is an effective solution for the storage and transportation of intermittent and excess power, providing flexibility and resilience in energy supply.

Regardless of the color of hydrogen, pipelines will be required to transport it. This has been recognized globally with initiatives such as the European Hydrogen Backbone, a growing group of now 29 European gas infrastructure companies targeting a hydrogen transmission network of 39,700 kms by 2040, with further growth expected after 2040.

Carbon Capture

Carbon capture, utilisation and storage (CCUS) refers to a suite of technologies that can play an important and diverse role in meeting global energy and climate goals. CCUS involves the capture of CO₂ from large point sources, including power generation or industrial facilities that use either fossil fuels or biomass for fuel. The CO₂ can also be captured directly from the atmosphere. If not being used on-site, the captured CO₂ is compressed and transported by pipeline, ship, rail or truck to be used in a range of applications, or injected into deep geological formations (including depleted oil and gas reservoirs or saline formations) which trap the CO₂ for permanent storage.

Pipelines are the cheapest way of transporting CO₂ in large quantities onshore and, depending on the distance and volumes, offshore. Transport by pipeline has been practised for many years and is already deployed at large scale. There is an extensive onshore CO₂ pipeline network in North America, with a combined length of more than 8,000 km.

WATER SECTOR

Global Water Sector

As per the UN-World Water Development Report 2021, water and sanitation infrastructure investment will need to be around USD 0.9-1.5 trillion per year by 2030, accounting for roughly 20.0% of total infrastructure investment requirements. Around 70% of total infrastructure investment will be made in the global South, with a major portion of it concentrated in fast rising urban areas. Renovation and improvement will necessitate huge investments in industrialized countries. The number of huge water infrastructure projects in global locations with natural resources is likely to rise.

Agriculture presently accounts for 69.0% of worldwide water withdrawals, which include water needed for livestock and aquaculture as well as irrigation. In certain undeveloped countries, this percentage can exceed 95%. Industry (including energy and electricity generating) accounts for 19.0% of worldwide water withdrawals, with municipalities accounting for the remaining 12.0% of the worldwide water withdrawals.

According to the G20 Global Infrastructure Outlook, water infrastructure will cost a total of USD 6.4 trillion to meet rising water demand. Significant expenditures in water pipes will also be made as a result of this. Hydraulic infrastructure, which serves to store or move water, supports the value of water to society. However, the value of the infrastructure extends beyond the cost of the system and includes the different benefits it delivers. Renovation and upgrading will necessitate huge investments in developed countries.

Water Sector in India

According to the UN-Water Index, India continues to trail behind other countries in terms of safe water access, with over 120 million Indian homes still lacking access. With India's population expected to reach 1.6 billion by 2050, and the pandemic adding to already-strained water resources, the situation is likely to worsen. As a result of population growth, fast urbanization, and changing lifestyles, water consumption is increasing at an exponential rate. By 2030, India's water demand is predicted to exceed available supply, resulting in severe water scarcity for hundreds of millions of people.

The Ministry of Jal Shakti has been allocated a budget of ₹ 86,189 crore for FY23. The additional funding will go toward drinking water, which aligns with the government's objective of delivering functional tap water connections to all families by 2024. The Drinking Water and Sanitation Department received ₹ 67,221 crore from the Union Budget, while the Water Resources, River Development, and Ganga Rejuvenation Department received ₹ 18,968 crore.

Irrigation

The Union Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman, announced a budget of ₹ 45,000 crore for the interlinking of river Ken and Betwa in the FY 2022-23 Union Budget. The project was approved under the National Perspective Plan for interlinking of rivers. The Ken-Betwa interlinking hopes to transfer water from the Ken river to the Betwa river. The project is likely to boost irrigation in the region largely prone to water-crisis. The total cost of the project has been assessed at ₹ 44,605 crore and is to be taken up to provide irrigation to 9.05 lakh hectares, 65 lakh people drinking water, hydro and solar power. To provide greater access to irrigation and drinking water draft project reports of five river links, namely Damanganga-Pinjal, Par-Tapi-Narmada, Godavari-Krishna, Krishna-Pennar and Pennar-Cauvery have been finalized. Once a consensus is reached among the beneficiary states, the Centre will provide support for implementation.

Annual phasing of investments of Irrigation NIP (in ₹ Billion)

The Final Report on National Infrastructure Pipeline for FY 2020-25 unveiled the annual phasing of investments for irrigation in India. States would implement 78.0% of the NIP (National Infrastructure Pipeline), while the Centre would implement 22.0% of the irrigation NIP plan. By 2025, irrigated land would cover 61.0% of total land area, or 85 million hectares. Farmers' incomes and consumption will rise as their reliance on rains decreases. Furthermore, the significance of effective irrigation methods is stressed. Water usage would be reduced if traditional tank and canal irrigation were replaced with more effective alternatives such as micro-irrigation. Furthermore, under the NIP Plan 2025, drip and sprinkler irrigation, intelligent water usage, and water quantity-based fees would be employed as a pricing mechanism to sustain the overall water ecosystem.

Water Segment in Saudi Arabia

Saudi Arabian recent reforms have resulted in a large decrease in agricultural water consumption, the development of more energy-efficient reverse osmosis (RO), solar-powered water systems, and the elimination of long-standing water subsidies that kept the consumer cost of water between 5.0% and 10.0% of the real production cost. In 2018, the Kingdom unveiled a new National Water Strategy to address these issues in greater depth and ensure cost-effective and long-term solutions to the Kingdom's water needs over the next decade.

Despite the fact that the Saudi government has assured that more than 97.0% of its population has reliable access to clean water, the challenge of growing demand and declining supply has remained a top priority of the Kingdom's development objectives. As per the Refinitiv (Zawya report), the Kingdom has announced more than 60 water projects worth USD 9.33 billion that will cement the Kingdom's position as the world's largest water desalination market. In 2021, the country approved eight IWPPs (Independent Water and Power Plant), fourteen Independent Strategic Water Reservoir (ISWR) projects, and seven Small Sewerage Treatment Plant (SSTP) project clusters; more than USD 5.5 billion in water projects are presently under construction. Saudi Arabia has adopted Public-Private-Partnerships as a procurement approach, with Public-Private-Partnerships accounting for 70.0% of its water processing infrastructure projects. ACWA Power's Rabigh 3 Independent Water Plant (IWP) in Saudi Arabia, which can produce 600,000 m³/day of desalinated water has become the world's largest reverse osmosis (RO) desalination plant.

Saudi Arabia is planning to partner with the private sector to deliver 3,500 kilometers of new water transmission lines that will distribute more than 4 million cubic meters a day of desalinated water, requiring a total investment of USD 16 billion. The projects are the first water transmission PPP projects in the Middle East, and will be the first water transmission schemes globally to be tendered as separate concession contracts without being bundled along with a water supply project such as a reservoir or production plant.

STEEL PRICES TREND AND OUTLOOK

Steel plays a pivotal role in manufacturing of pipelines, and is one of the key materials. Any impact of the steel prices would impact pipeline project costs and profitability. When the world was recovering from the 3 consecutive waves of COVID, it was hit by the Russia-Ukraine war. The war impacted the steel sector like many other sectors. Pig iron is one of the key raw materials for steel production. Russia and Ukraine are among the top 10 pig iron producers in the world. With the war in place, these exports were impacted, and the pig iron prices have seen a sharp rise. This is expected to increase the average steel prices of 2022 over 2021. Prior to the Russia-Ukraine war, the average hot-rolled coil (HRC) steel prices were expected to reduce to USD 750 per ton in 2022 by Fitch Ratings.

Further, China has also consciously cut its steel output owing to its focus on decarbonizing the economy. China, being the largest steel producer in the world, opted for a production cut which impacted world output of steel, thereby, increasing steel prices. The crude steel output of China in 2021 stood at 1.033 billion tons compared to 1.053 billion tons in the previous year, registering a y-o-y decline of 2%. The China factor has been impacting the economy for the past few years now, which coupled with the Ukraine-Russia war and continuously rising fuel prices, has driven steel prices higher. The March 2022, HRC contract traded on CME at USD 994 per ton.

In the domestic market, steel prices were trading at an all-time high, with HRC ranging between ₹ 76,000 and ₹ 77,000 per ton, and cold-rolled coil (CRC) ranging between ₹ 85,000 and ₹ 86,000 per ton in March 2022. Further, rebar prices ranged between ₹ 72,000 and ₹ 73,000 per ton for the same period.

However, in the month of May 2022, Steel prices witnessed a correction globally and in India, amidst fears of a global recession and a continued imposition of lockdown in China in view of rising COVID cases there.

NON-FERROUS METALS

In FY22, the world was headed for a recovery spearheaded by large and developing economies growing exponentially post the COVID-19 pandemic, marked by pent-up demand from the infrastructure sector. On the other hand, the Ukraine-Russia war, mine disruptions, logistical constraints due to 2nd and 3rd waves, and slow scaling of smelter operations gave rise to a supply crunch. This demand-supply mismatch coupled with the decarbonization focus of China impacted the price of non-ferrous metals at a global level.

The global base metal prices have been on the rise in 2021 owing to low inventories, demand-supply gap, and the impact of the second and third wave of the pandemic. The average price for February 2022 of aluminum stood at USD 3,261 per ton compared to USD 2,080 per ton in February 2021, registering a y-o-y growth of 56.8%. The average LME price of aluminum during FY21 stood at USD 1,802 per ton.

DOMESTIC STEEL INDUSTRY

During the first 10 months of FY22 (April-January), the production of finished steel increased by 21% to 93 MT compared to the same period previous year (April-January 2021). The growth in production is backed by a healthy 15% increase in consumption and around 26.1% rise in exports during April-January 2022. The production rebounded as domestic demand gathered pace with investment in infrastructure, focus on vaccination and policy support by the government. As per the National Steel Policy 2017, the Government is targeting crude steel production of 300 MT by 2030-31 from current levels of around 110 MT in 2020-21.

The steel consumption surpassed the pre COVID-19 level of 86 MT during April-January 2020 and stood at 87 MT during April-January 2022. This is on account of an estimated increase in demand from sectors like construction, automobiles etc.

The exports of finished steel from India was at a high of 11.1 MT for the period April-January 2022, an increase of 26.1%. The exports during the period have already crossed the finished steel exports of 10.8 MT made by India during FY21 and India continues to remain net exporter of steel for third year in a row. During the period April-November 2021, surge in exports to Italy with 1.1 MT (112%), Belgium with 1 MT (231%), as compared to same period in previous year contributed towards overall growth in shipments. The overall exports of finished steel were at all-time high at 10.9 MT during the period April-November 2021.

India's finished steel imports was 3.9 MT during the period April-January 2022, an increase of 3%. The overall imports had declined by a sharp 36.7% during April-January 2021. During April-November 2019, Korea was one of the major countries that contributed to imports of around 2 MT. This declined to 1.4 MT resulting in decrease in imports during the period April-November 2021. The government in May 2020 has issued "Steel and Steel Products (Quality Control) Order, 2020 to resist any manufacturing or import of non-standardized steel. The order states that products mentioned under the order should have standard mark under license from Bureau of Indian Standards. Though steel prices have been rising, steel companies are feeling the pinch of historically high raw material prices, especially on carbon materials. Prime coking coal which used to historically prevail around USD 150 (FOB Australia), went down to below USD 100 in beginning of CY 2021 and went up over six-fold to around USD 670 in March 22 before slightly tempering to current levels of around USD 450. The initial disruption had been caused due to a China-Australia trade dispute, but eventually the prices have sustained at historically high levels. Coke prices have also been volatile and prices in India increasing from around USD 350 to around USD 730 by end of FY22, and subsequently easing to USD 600 in end May 2022. The global power shortage along with the Russia Ukraine war have also pushed up thermal coal prices. For example, Indonesian 4200 GAR coal prices have gone up from USD 60 (CIF Kandla) to USD 150 currently.

Domestic Iron Ore prices have seen volatility in Q1 of FY22 with an increase of around 40% in first 3 months subsequently softening back to the original level. The recent announcement of export duty is expected to put pressure on Iron ore prices as well as prices of Pig Iron and Finished steel.

The government has levied an export duty of 15% on almost all the major steel products to drive volumes to the domestic market and to make steel prices affordable for domestic consumers like Autos, MSMEs, infrastructure etc. Procurement of steel had become challenging and this measure would boost availability in the domestic market.

The disruption in global steel supply is expected to benefit the Indian steel industry. Russia being the major exporter of steel to European Union (EU), the restrictions on the export from Russia to EU will create opportunity for India. In addition, the demand for Indian steel industry will be supported by increased government spending on infrastructure and a gradual economic recovery. The Union Budget 2022-23 has seen an increase of 36% Y-o-Y in allocation of capex at ₹ 7.5 lakh crore. The budget has infrastructure push towards seven engines (roads, railways, airports, ports, mass transport, waterways and logistic infra). The allocation for various schemes like Pradhan Mantri Awas Yojana (PMAY) scheme, Jal Jeevan Mission will have a positive impact on specialty steel and long steel players.

TMT BARS

The overall Indian TMT bar market grew at 8% CAGR from ~ 35-36 million mt in FY18 to 42 million MT in FY20. However, in FY21, market witnessed a decline in TMT bar demand because of COVID-19 to reach 2018 levels but is now starting to show a recovery.

Rapid urbanization and industrialization have led to continued government spending on construction sector which have driven regional demand for TMT bars. Key scheme initiatives such as Smart Cities Mission, Atal Mission for Rejuvenation and Urban Transformation (AMRUT), Housing for All by 2022, Indira Awaas Yojana (IAY), etc. by GoI contributed to increased TMT bar consumption.

It is estimated that manufacturing of durables and household utensils in India is the largest end use of stainless steel with a 44% share. Apart from this, the usage of stainless steel is 30% in capital goods, 13% in automobiles, railways and transport (ART), 12% in construction and infrastructure and 1% in others.

Stainless steel pipes and tubes are important products in the stainless steel industry. They are mainly used in oil and gas, petrochemical, refineries, thermal power and nuclear power, aerospace and defence and in instrumentation across a wide range of industries. Therefore, demand for steel pipes & tubes is linked to the prospects of the end-user industries.

India is one of the largest consumers of stainless steel in the world. However, its per capita stainless steel consumption is much lower at around 2.5 kg compared to the world average of 6 kg per capita. The per capita consumption of stainless steel in India will reach 8-9 kg by 2040 and 11-12 kg by 2047 as per the "Stainless Steel Vision Document 2047" released by the Ministry of Steel.

(b) Outlook:

The Financial Year under Report was a pivotal year for your Company as it made significant progress on its Business Growth & Diversification Strategy. Your Company demonstrated resilience despite a sharp increase in steel prices and a weak operating environment. As the Company embarks upon a new journey of growth along with sustainability at the core, the management is confident of creating incremental value for all its stakeholders. Your Company's foray into the B2C segment would help improve its competitiveness and provide a stronger base for future growth.

The Government has set a target to raise the share of natural gas in the energy mix to 15% by 2030 from about 6.7% now. Various steps taken by the Government in this direction include expansion of National Gas Grid Pipeline, expansion of City Gas Distribution network, setting up of Liquefied Natural Gas etc.

There is a big focus on creating drinking water supply in the country through Government programs. There is also a coordinated focus by both the Central and State Governments on increasing the area under irrigation through various schemes.

Overall, the government's programs reflect the continued focus on improving the lives of people through several schemes to build water infrastructure, to increase the use of natural gas, to build refining capacity etc. Your Company is confident that it will see a steady improvement in demand for line pipes and DI pipes as these programs are implemented.

As the members may be aware that Russia's invasion of Ukraine is driving up the prices in the Global Energy market. Sanctions on Russia have contributed to rising crude prices with significant market uncertainties about the potential for further supply disruptions. Gas prices all over the world have also gone up in tandem. Your Company is in active discussions for several orders in the export markets which have seen an improvement in prospects for pipelines due to high oil prices, increased energy demand and Europe looking to diversify its energy supply away from Russia.

The clean energy transition in the US has been interrupted due to soaring prices and the disruptions caused by geo political events in Europe. There is a revival in demand for fossil fuels due to which there has been an increase in Oil & Gas exploration. The US is now focused on boosting supply within the country but also trying to provide the much-needed back up to Europe for critical gas supplies thereby creating a need to evacuate both Oil & Gas through some potential long distance large diameter pipelines. This augurs well for your Company as it has a manufacturing facility in Little Rock, US.

(c) Pig Iron and Ductile Iron Pipe facilities in Anjar

As mentioned in the previous Annual Report, the steel making facility of – 400 KMPTA and DI Pipe Plant of – 400 KMPTA under two separate wholly owned subsidiaries are under construction and are expected to be commenced in early FY 2022-23.

Due to improvements to the project plan and inflation, the project cost has been revised from ₹ 15,500 Mn (plus soft costs) to ₹ 19,000 Mn (plus soft costs). Some of the major reasons for the variance are: 1) Design changes for productivity improvements and increased safety 2) Augmentation and increase in capacities of BF, Sinter, Coke Oven and DI Pipes 3) Own Oxygen plant instead of a BOOT model 4) Transfer of BF gas directly to the power plant to reduce emissions 5) Cost escalation for key input commodities like Steel, TMT bars, Cement, Ocean Freight etc. and 6) Creating expanded residential infrastructure for our Staff and Associates.

The project viability continues to be healthy with the increased investment, being offset through productivity gains and increased realizations for DI pipes.

The project is being funded through internal accruals and external debts.

(d) Sale of the Plate & Coil Mill Division (“PCMD”):

As mentioned in the previous Annual Report, the transaction contemplated in the Business Transfer Agreement dated March 30, 2019 (the “BTA”) has been concluded on March 31, 2021. Further, as the Demerged Company also held 50.03% equity shares in Welspun Specialty Solutions Ltd. (“WSSL”), upon the Scheme becoming effective, the shares of WSSL held by the Demerged Company stands transferred to the Resulting Company. Business Responsibility and Sustainability Report (BRSR)

The SEBI circular SEBI/HO/CFD/CMD-2/P/CIR/2021/562 has stated that with effect from the financial year 2022-2023, filing of BRSR shall be mandatory for the top 1,000 listed companies (by market capitalization) and shall replace the existing BRR. Filing of BRSR is voluntary for the financial year 2021-22. As a proactive measure to adapt to changing regulatory requirements, we have attempted to map our existing ESG information with the requirements of BRSR. In addition to BRSR, we are also reporting Business Responsibility Report (BRR) as per mandates.

WELSPUN'S APPROACH TO BUSINESS RESPONSIBILITY AND SUSTAINABILITY

As the method's to assessing business performance evolves rapidly, their commitment and action with respect to environmental, social, and governance (ESG) principles have come into prominence. Welspun Corp Limited (WCL) believes in conducting its operations sustainably and aligning business with ESG objectives to enable value creation for all our stakeholders and to preserve the natural ecosystem for future generations.

At WCL, we build stakeholder value by taking responsibility for our operations and ensuring positive impacts in the ecosystem in which we operate, while ensuring the highest standards in product quality and fulfilling customer needs. The key pillars of business responsibility at WCL are: Governance, Protecting the Planet, Customer Centricity, Creating Healthy Communities, Empowering Our People and Collaborating with Stakeholders.

We believe that a sustainability centric approach is foundational to business responsibility and is instrumental in the coming together of economic, environmental and social dimensions that are essential to building a future ready organization and making a lasting positive impact on our stakeholders, operations and the natural ecosystem. Thus, we have integrated ESG goals into our overall business strategy to reinforce our market position, deliver financial performance, secure long-term value for our stakeholders and promote environmental preservation.

WCL is strongly committed to maintaining the highest standards of corporate governance, transparency and fairness in all matters related to the business and stakeholder engagement. A performance-driven successful business is governed by a defined structure of authorities guided by fundamental policies to operate ethically and create value. These policies are brought together as an assurance for WCL to enhance its integrity through a professional and mature work environment. We intend to build on these policies along our journey, and as we mature.

In light of our commitment to being a responsible business and growing sustainably, we have established an ESG committee at the Board level and have formulated plans for initiatives to be implemented across Environment, Social and Governance dimensions. Further, we have redefined the governance of Environment and Social aspects across organizational levels and this is helping to propel us towards meeting our commitments on carbon, water, waste, supply chain and CSR.

Operational excellence, high standards of compliance and a performance driven culture are prioritized at WCL. Our manufacturing facilities are certified for quality management system, environmental management system, occupational health, and safety management system. The certifications include: APIQR, SPECQ1, ISO-9001, ISO/TS-29001, AD 2000-Markblatt, HPOIEN / ISO 3834-3, ISO-14001 and ISO-45001. Our processes aim for maximum asset utilization and most of our products are made from externally procured plates and coils and make limited use of natural resources as raw materials. We continue to work towards greater resource efficiency by leveraging innovation, technology, R&D expertise and recovery and recycling methods.

Aligning with our commitment to minimizing the environmental impact of our operations, we have adopted a detailed risk assessment process that forms a part of our Enterprise Risk Management (ERM) framework. The process includes a detailed evaluation of all our processes, raw materials, products and services and helps to identify and measure the significance of Environmental Aspects and Associated Impacts. Our environmental performance is continuously monitored to ensure that it complies with regulatory requirements and we regularly submit compliance reports to relevant authorities to communicate our performance.

We are working to minimize the use of energy in our production and processing operations. We have put into action measures for energy efficiency and aim for carbon neutral status by employing renewable energy and negating emissions with carbon offset programs. To this end, we have also taken steps in logistics that allow for greater efficiency in transporting materials and thereby reduce GHG emissions.

Our processes are not water intensive and we do not have a significant impact on water bodies through water withdrawal. The major industrial usage of water is for coating applications on line pipes while our offices use municipal supply water for domestic purposes such as drinking, cleaning, flushing, etc. We measure and monitor the quantity of water consumed across all our business locations and operations. WCL aims to ensure water stewardship by identifying operations where water conservation techniques can be implemented and by using recycled water to limit water consumption.

In order to reduce the impact of waste generated by our operations on the environment, we have adopted the 3R approach (i.e., Reduce, Reuse, Recycle) to monitor the waste generated and identify areas for waste reduction, recycling and reuse. All waste is segregated, treated, and disposed appropriately, in line with guidelines from Pollution Control Boards

For us to be truly sustainable, it is imperative that our value chain is equally a part of this journey. We recognize the need to take on board our supply chain and support necessary capacity building to enhance their ESG performance. Therefore, training in Environment and Social aspects and supplier assessments are among some of the steps we have articulated to develop a sustainable supply chain. We regularly evaluate our vendors on required quality standards to ensure the highest standards in material procurement. As our products depend on customer-specific requirements, we engage with a limited supplier base to procure high-quality materials. However, we encourage and promote local procurement for other components used in our processes. This not only lends to reducing the environmental impact of our procurement practices, but also supports employment and continued livelihoods in the communities surrounding our operations.

WCL's employees are our greatest asset, and we believe our diverse workforce contributes significantly to the innovation and creativity that fuels our growth strategy. We make equal opportunities available for all our employees, regardless of race, religion, gender, age, nationality, or disability. Our approach to learning and development aims to inculcate new competencies and enhance existing skills that address our people's development needs as well as our business goals.

Ensuring a healthy and safe work environment is accorded high priority and a culture of safety is driven by the top management and executed at every level through the EHS Management System. WCL is accredited for ISO 45001 that enables risk assessment of all activities for achieving organizational HSE goals. We have a well-established Occupational Health, Safety and Environment (OHSE) policy, and Safety Committees at the facilities ensure compliance with regulations and deliver safety trainings to our employees and contract staff.

Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) is ingrained into our business strategy. Our CSR contributions are aimed towards creating a positive impact on the lives of the less privileged through well-planned initiatives and key focus areas. Our social mission is enshrined within the 3Es, namely, Education, Empowerment and Environment & Health. WCL's CSR activities are carried out through the Welspun Foundation for Health and Knowledge (WFHK) in areas such as strengthening educational foundation, improving access to healthcare services, empowering people, and preserving the environment.

In the coming years, our strategic focus would be to undertake action and allocate adequate resources to achieve our ESG goals in alignment with associated business goals:

- Energy-efficiency measures, prioritizing renewable energy strategies
- Effects on the wellbeing and prosperity of employees and stakeholders
- Monitoring targets and communicate to stakeholders on a timely basis while prioritizing our Environment and Social goals
- Sustainable supply chain program
- Strengthening organization's reputation through strategic stakeholder engagement and facilitating collaborations

Each phase of our ESG action is a holistic long-term vision aligned with our business, social and environmental objectives aimed at establishing a healthy ecosystem of economic growth and societal value creation. As we move into the future, ESG will be the cornerstone of our financial success, competitive advantage, and future accomplishments.

OTHER INFORMATION

7. The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in Management Discussion and Analysis, Directors' Report, Corporate Governance Report and Business Responsibility Report and Other Information in Annual Report including Annexure thereto but does not include the standalone financial statements and our auditors' report thereon.

Our opinion on the standalone financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the standalone financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the standalone financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact.

We have nothing to report in this regard.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF MANAGEMENT AND THOSE CHARGED WITH GOVERNANCE FOR THE STANDALONE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

8. The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the matters stated in section 134(5) of the Act with respect to the preparation of these standalone financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance, changes in equity and cash flows of the Company in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the Accounting Standards specified under section 133 of the Act. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding of the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the standalone financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

9. In preparing the standalone financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so. Those Board of Directors are also responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

AUDITORS' RESPONSIBILITIES FOR THE AUDIT OF THE STANDALONE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

10. Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the standalone financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these standalone financial statements.
11. As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the standalone financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under Section 143(3)(i) of the Act, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the company has adequate internal financial controls with reference to financial statements in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
 - Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
 - Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditors' report to the related disclosures in the standalone financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditors' report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
 - Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the standalone financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the standalone financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
12. We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.
 13. We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.
 14. From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the standalone financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditors' report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

REPORT ON THE INTERNAL FINANCIAL CONTROLS WITH REFERENCE TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS UNDER CLAUSE (I) OF SUB-SECTION 3 OF SECTION 143 OF THE ACT

1. We have audited the internal financial controls with reference to financial statements of Welspun Corp Limited (the "Company") as of March 31, 2022 in conjunction with our audit of the standalone financial statements of the Company for the year ended on that date.

MANAGEMENT'S RESPONSIBILITY FOR INTERNAL FINANCIAL CONTROLS

The Company's management is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI). These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Act.

AUDITORS' RESPONSIBILITY

3. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's internal financial controls with reference to financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting (the "Guidance Note") and the Standards on Auditing deemed to be prescribed under section 143(10) of the Act to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls, both applicable to an audit of internal financial controls and both issued by the ICAI. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls with reference to financial statements was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

4. Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system with reference to financial statements and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls with reference to financial statements included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls with reference to financial statements, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditors' judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the standalone financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.
5. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company's internal financial controls system with reference to financial statements.

MEANING OF INTERNAL FINANCIAL CONTROLS WITH REFERENCE TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

6. A company's internal financial controls with reference to financial statements is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of standalone financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial controls with reference to financial statements includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of standalone financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorisations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorised acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the standalone financial statements.

INHERENT LIMITATIONS OF INTERNAL FINANCIAL CONTROLS WITH REFERENCE TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

7. Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls with reference to financial statements, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls with reference to financial statements to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control controls with reference to financial statements may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

OPINION

8. In our opinion, the Company has, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system with reference to financial statements and such internal financial controls with reference to financial statements were operating effectively as at March 31, 2022, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.

- i. (a) (A) The Company is maintaining proper records showing full particulars, including quantitative details and situation, of property, plant and equipment (including right-of-use assets and investment properties).
- (B) The Company is maintaining proper records showing full particulars of intangible assets.
- (b) The property, plant and equipment (including right-of-use assets and investment properties) are physically verified by the Management according to a phased programme designed to cover all the items over a period of 3 years which, in our opinion, is reasonable having regard to the size of the Company and the nature of its assets. Pursuant to the programme, a portion of the property, plant and equipment (including right-of-use assets and investment properties) has been physically verified by the Management during the year and no material discrepancies have been noticed on such verification.
- (c) The title deeds of all the immovable properties (other than properties where the Company is the lessee and the lease agreements are duly executed in favour of the lessee), as disclosed in Note 3(a) on property, plant and equipment, 3(b) on right-of-use assets and Note 4 on investment property to the standalone financial statements, are held in the name of the Company, except for the following:

Description of property	Gross carrying value (in INR million)	Held in the name of	Whether promoter, director or their relative or employee	Period held - indicate range, where appropriate

Right of use assets	4.13	Welspun Steel Limited	No	1 - 2 years
Investment properties	76.22	Welspun Steel Limited	No	17 years

- (d) The Company has chosen cost model for its property, plant and equipment (including right-of-use assets) and intangible assets. Consequently, the question of our commenting on whether the revaluation is based on the valuation by a Registered Valuer, or specifying the amount of change, if the change is 10% or more in the aggregate of the net carrying value of each class of property, plant and equipment (including right-of-use assets) or intangible assets does not arise.
- (e) Based on the information and explanations furnished to us, no proceedings have been initiated on or are pending against the Company for holding benami property under the Prohibition of Benami Property Transactions Act, 1988 (as amended in 2016) (formerly the Benami Transactions (Prohibition) Act, 1988 (45 of 1988)) and Rules made thereunder, and therefore the question of our commenting on whether the Company has appropriately disclosed the details in its standalone financial statements does not arise.
- ii. (a) The physical verification of inventory excluding stocks with third parties has been conducted at reasonable intervals by the Management during the year and, in our opinion, the coverage and procedure of such verification by Management is appropriate. In respect of inventory lying with third parties, these have substantially been confirmed by them. The discrepancies noticed on physical verification of inventory as compared to book records were not 10% or more in aggregate for each class of inventory.

a) Compliance with Ind AS

The standalone financial statements comply in all material aspects with Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) notified under Section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013 (the Act) [Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015 as amended] and other relevant provisions of the Act.

b) Historical cost convention

Items	Measurement basis
Certain financial assets and liabilities (including derivatives instruments)	Fair value
Assets or disposal groups held for sale	Fair value less cost to sell
Share based payments	Fair value
Net defined benefit (asset)/ liability	Fair value of plan assets less present value of defined benefit obligations

c) Current and non-current classification

All assets and liabilities have been classified as current or non-current as per the Company's normal operating cycle (i.e 12 months) and other criteria set out in Schedule III (Division II) to the Act.

d) Recent Accounting Pronouncements

i. New and amended standards adopted by the Company

The Company has applied the following amendments to Ind AS for the first time for their annual reporting period commencing 1 April 2021:

- Extension of COVID-19 related concessions - amendments to Ind AS 116
- Interest rate benchmark reform - amendments to Ind AS 109, Financial Instruments, Ind AS 107, Financial Instruments: Disclosures, Ind AS 104, Insurance Contracts and Ind AS 116, Leases.

The amendments listed above did not have any impact on the amounts recognised in prior periods and are not expected to significantly affect the current or future periods.

ii. New amendments issued but not effective

The Ministry of Corporate Affairs has vide notification dated 23 March 2022 notified Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Amendment Rules, 2022 which amends certain accounting standards, and are effective 1 April 2022. These amendments are not expected to have a material impact on the group in the current or future reporting periods and on foreseeable future transactions.

Below is a summary of such amendments:

Title	Key requirements
Ind AS 16, Property, Plant and Equipment	Proceeds before intended use of property, plant and equipment The amendment clarifies that an entity shall deduct from the cost of an item of property, plant and equipment any proceeds received from selling items produced while the entity is preparing the asset for its intended use (for example, the proceeds from selling samples produced when testing a machine to see if it is functioning properly)

Notes

Notes annexed to and forming part of the standalone balance sheet as at March 31, 2022 and the standalone statement of profit and loss for the year ended March 31, 2022

(All amounts in Rupees (Rs.) million, unless otherwise stated)

Title	Key requirements
Ind AS 37, Provisions, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets	Onerous Contracts - Cost of fulfilling a contract The amendment explains that the cost of fulfilling a contract comprises: the incremental costs of fulfilling that contract and an allocation of other costs that relate directly to fulfilling contracts
Ind AS 103, Business combinations	References to the conceptual framework The amendment adds a new exception in Ind AS 103 for liabilities and contingent liabilities.
Ind AS 109, Financial Instruments	Fees included in the 10% test for derecognition of financial liabilities The amendment clarifies which fees an entity includes when it applies the '10%' test in assessing whether to derecognise a financial liability. An entity includes only fees paid or received between the entity (the borrower) and the lender, including fees paid or received by either the entity or the lender on the other's behalf.
Ind AS 101, First time adoption	Subsidiary as a first-time adopter Simplifies the application of Ind AS 101 by a subsidiary that becomes a first-time adopter after its parent in relation to the measurement of cumulative translation differences.

iii. Reclassification consequent to amendment to Schedule III

The Ministry of Corporate Affairs amended the Schedule III to the Companies Act, 2013 on 24 March 2021 to increase the transparency and provide additional disclosures to users of financial statements. These amendments are effective from 1 April 2021. Consequent to above, the group has changed the classification/presentation of (i) current maturities of long-term borrowings (ii) security deposits, in the current year. The current maturities of long-term borrowings (including interest accrued) has now been included in the "Current borrowings"

line item. Previously, current maturities of long-term borrowings and interest accrued were included in 'other financial liabilities' line item. Further, security deposits (which meet the definition of a financial asset as per Ind AS 32) have been included in 'other financial assets' line item. Previously, these deposits were included in 'loans' line item. The group has reclassified comparative amounts to conform with current year presentation as per the requirements of Ind AS 1. Refer note no 51 of standalone financial statements.

1.2 FOREIGN CURRENCY TRANSLATION

a) Functional and presentation currency

Items included in the standalone financial statements of the Company are measured using the currency of the primary economic environment in which the Company operates ('the functional currency'). The standalone financial statements are presented in Indian rupee (INR), which is Company's functional and presentation currency.

b) Transactions and balances

Foreign currency transactions are translated into the functional currency using the exchange rates at the dates of the transactions. Foreign exchange gains and losses resulting from the settlement of such transactions and from the translation of monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies at year end exchange rates are generally recognised in profit or loss.

Foreign exchange differences regarded as an adjustment to borrowing costs are presented in the statement of profit and loss, within finance costs. All other foreign exchange gains and losses are presented in the statement of profit and loss on a net basis within other expenses or other income, as applicable.

Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rates at the date of initial transaction.

Non-monetary items that are measured at fair value in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rates at the date when the fair value was determined. Translation differences on assets and liabilities carried at fair value are reported as part of the fair value gain or loss.

Notes

Notes annexed to and forming part of the standalone balance sheet as at March 31, 2022 and the standalone statement of profit and loss for the year ended March 31, 2022

(All amounts in Rupees (Rs.) million, unless otherwise stated)

The Company has elected to apply the exemption from the transition date i.e. April 01, 2015 in respect of accounting policy followed for long term foreign currency monetary items. Accordingly, long term foreign currency monetary items in the standalone financial statement have been accounted in accordance with adopted under previous GAAP as given below:

- Foreign exchange differences on account of depreciable assets are adjusted in the cost of depreciable assets and depreciated over the balance life of the assets.
- In other cases, foreign exchange differences are accumulated in "Foreign Currency Monetary Item Translation Difference Account" and amortised over the balance period of such long term assets / liabilities.

1.3 REVENUE RECOGNITION

a) Sale of goods

The Company derives revenue principally from sale of pipes.

The Company recognises revenue when it satisfies a performance obligation in accordance with the provisions of contract with the customer. This is achieved when control of the product has been transferred to the customer, which is generally determined when title, ownership, risk of obsolescence and loss pass to the customer and the Company has the present right to payment, all of which occurs at a point in time upon shipment or delivery of the product. The Company considers freight activities as costs to fulfil the promise to transfer the related products and the customer payments for freight costs are recorded as a component of revenue.

A receivable is recognised when the goods are delivered as this is the point in time that the consideration is unconditional because only the passage of time is required before the payment is due.

In certain customer contracts, freight services are treated as a distinct separate performance obligation and the Company recognises revenue for such services when the performance obligation is completed.

The Company considers the terms of the contract in determining the transaction price. The transaction price is based upon the amount the Company expects to be entitled to in exchange for transferring of promised goods and services to the customer after deducting incentive programs, included but not limited to discounts, volume rebates, etc.

Revenue is recognized at a determined transaction price when identified performance obligations are satisfied. The bill and hold contracts are entered at the request of the customer. Revenue from bill and hold contracts is recognised at the agreed transaction price (determined price). The price for bill and hold contracts is determined at the time of entering into the transaction and the performance obligation is satisfied when goods have been appropriated towards the sale transaction (the control of asset is transferred to the customer).

Revenue excludes any taxes and duties collected on behalf of the government.

b) Sale of services

The Company provides freight services to its customers. Revenue from providing freight services is recognised in the accounting period in which the services are rendered. The related freight costs incurred are included in freight expenses when the Company is acting as principal in the freight arrangement.

Freight services may be considered a separate performance obligation if control of the goods transfers to the customer before goods reach to the agreed place of shipment, but the entity has promised to ship the goods (or arrange for the goods to be shipped). In contrast, if control of a good does not transfer to the customer before goods reach to the agreed place of shipment, freight service is not a promised service to the customer. This is because freight service is a fulfillment activity as the costs are incurred as part of transferring the goods to the customer.

1.4 CONTRACT ASSETS AND CONTRACT LIABILITIES

When the Company performs a service or transfers a good in advance of receiving consideration, it recognises a contract asset or receivable.

Notes

Notes annexed to and forming part of the standalone balance sheet as at March 31, 2022 and the standalone statement of profit and loss for the year ended March 31, 2022

(All amounts in Rupees (Rs.) million, unless otherwise stated)

A contract asset is a Company's right to consideration in exchange for goods or services that the Company has transferred to a customer. If the Company transfers control of goods or services to a customer before the customer pays consideration, the Company records a contract asset when the nature of the Company's right to consideration for its performance is other than passage of time. A contract asset will be classified as a receivable when the Company's right to consideration is unconditional (that is, when payment is due only on the passage of time). The Company shall assess a contract asset for impairment in accordance with Ind AS 109. Impairment of a contract asset is measured, presented and disclosed on similar basis as other financial asset in nature of trade receivable within the scope of Ind AS 109. The Company discloses contract assets under "Other Assets".

The Company recognises a contract liability if the customer's payment of consideration precedes the Company's performance. A contract liability is recognised if the Company receives consideration (or if it has the unconditional right to receive consideration) in advance of performance. The Company discloses contract liabilities under "Other Liabilities".

1.5 SEGMENT REPORTING

The board of directors of the Company assess the financial performance and position of the Company, and makes strategic decisions. The chief operating decision makers are board of directors of the Company. Operating segments are reported in a manner consistent with the internal reporting provided to the chief operating decision maker.

1.6 GOVERNMENT GRANTS

Grants from the government are recognised at their fair value where there is a reasonable assurance that the grant will be received, and the Company will comply with all attached conditions.

Export incentives and subsidies are recognized when there is reasonable assurance that the Company will comply with the conditions and the incentive will be received.

Grants related to assets are government grants whose primary condition is that an entity qualifying for them should purchase, construct or otherwise acquire long-term assets. Grants related to income are government grants other than those related to assets.

Government grants relating to income are deferred and recognised in the profit or loss over the period necessary to match them with the costs that they are intended to compensate and presented either under "other operating income" or are deducted in reporting the related expense.

Government grants relating to the purchase of property, plant and equipment are included in liabilities as "Government grants" and are credited to profit or loss on a straight-line basis over the expected lives of the related assets and presented within "Other operating income". In case of disposal of such property, plant and equipment, related Government Grants included in the liabilities are written back and charged to the statement of profit and loss.

1.7 INCOME TAX, DEFERRED TAX AND DIVIDEND DISTRIBUTION TAX

The Income tax expense or credit for the year is the tax payable on the current year's taxable income based on the applicable income tax rate adjusted by changes in deferred tax assets and liabilities attributable to temporary differences and to unused tax losses.

Current and deferred tax is recognised in the profit and loss except to the extent it relates to items recognised directly in equity or other comprehensive income, in which case it is recognised in equity or other comprehensive income respectively.

a) Current income tax

Current tax charge is based on taxable profit for the year. The tax rates and tax laws used to compute the amount are those that are enacted or substantively enacted, at the reporting date where the Company operates and generates taxable income. Management periodically evaluates positions taken in tax returns with respect to situations in which applicable tax regulation is subject to interpretation. It establishes provisions where appropriate on the basis of amounts expected to be paid to the tax authorities.

Current tax assets and tax liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to set off current tax assets against current tax liabilities and Company intends either to settle on a net basis, or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

Notes

Notes annexed to and forming part of the standalone balance sheet as at March 31, 2022 and the standalone statement of profit and loss for the year ended March 31, 2022

(All amounts in Rupees (Rs.) million, unless otherwise stated)

b) Deferred tax

Deferred tax is provided in full using the liability method, on temporary differences arising between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts in the standalone financial statements. However, deferred tax liabilities are not recognized if they arise from the initial recognition of goodwill.

Deferred tax is determined using tax rates that have been enacted or substantially enacted by the end of the reporting period and are expected to apply when the related deferred tax assets is realized or deferred tax liability is settled.

Deferred tax are recognised for all deductible temporary difference and unused tax losses only if it is probable that future taxable amounts will be available to utilise those temporary differences and losses.

Deferred income tax is not accounted for if it arises from initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction other than a business combination that at the time of the transaction affects neither accounting profit nor taxable profit (tax loss).

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at each reporting date and adjusted to reflect changes in probability that sufficient taxable profits will be available to allow all or part of the asset to be recovered.

Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are off-set against each other and the resultant net amount is presented in the Balance Sheet, if and only when, (a) the Company has a legally enforceable right to set-off the current income tax assets and liabilities, and (b) the deferred income tax assets and liabilities relate to income tax levied by the same taxation authority.

Current and deferred tax is recognised in profit or loss, except to the extent that it relates to items recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity. In this case, the tax is also recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, respectively

c) Dividend distribution tax

Dividend distribution tax paid on the dividends is recognised consistently with the presentation of the transaction that creates the income tax consequence. Dividend distribution tax is charged to statement of profit and loss if the dividend itself is charged to statement of profit and loss. If the dividend is recognised in equity, the presentation of dividend distribution tax is recognised in equity.

1.8 LEASES

a) As a lessee

The Company leases various leasehold lands, buildings, vehicles, and office and other equipments. Rental contracts are typically made for fixed periods of one to ninety-nine years but may have extension options as described in note 3(b). Lease terms are negotiated on an individual basis and contain a wide range of different terms and conditions. The lease agreements do not impose any covenants, but leased assets may not be used as security for borrowing purposes.

Based on the notification released by MCA, Ind AS 116 has been made applicable w.e.f April 01, 2019. From April 01, 2019, leases are recognized as a right-of-use assets and a corresponding lease liability at the date at which the leased assets is available for the use by the Company.

Assets and liabilities arising from a lease are initially measured on a present value basis. Lease liabilities include the net present value of the following lease payments, as applicable:

- fixed payments (including in-substance fixed payments), less any lease incentives receivable
- variable lease payment that are based on an index or a rate, initially measured using the index or rate as at the commencement date
- amounts expected to be payable by the Company under residual value guarantees
- the exercise price of a purchase option if the lessee is reasonably certain to exercise that option, and
- payments of penalties for terminating the lease, if the lease term reflects the lessee exercising that option.

Notes

Notes annexed to and forming part of the standalone balance sheet as at March 31, 2022 and the standalone statement of profit and loss for the year ended March 31, 2022

(All amounts in Rupees (Rs.) million, unless otherwise stated)

Lease payment to be made under reasonably certain extension options are also included in the measurement of the liability. The lease payments are discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease. If that rate cannot be readily determined, the lessee's incremental borrowing rate is used, being the rate that the lessee would have to pay to borrow the funds necessary to obtain an asset of similar value to the right-of-use asset in a similar economic environment with similar terms, security and conditions.

Lease payments are allocated between principal and finance cost. The finance cost is charged to profit or loss over the lease period so as to produce a constant periodic rate of interest on the remaining balance of the liability for each period.

Right-of-use assets are measured at cost comprising the following, wherever applicable:

- the amount of the initial measurement of lease liability
- any lease payments made at or before the commencement date less any lease incentives received
- any initial direct costs, and
- restoration costs.

Right-of-use assets are generally depreciated over the shorter of the asset's useful life and the lease term (including extension considering reasonable certainty), on a straight-line basis. If the Company is reasonably certain to exercise a purchase option, the right-of-use asset is depreciated over the underlying asset's useful life.

Payments associated with short-term leases of equipment and all leases of low-value assets are recognised on a straight-line basis as an expense in profit or loss. Short-term leases are leases with a lease term of 12 months or less. Low-value assets and short term lease assets comprises of dumpsite land, laptops and other office equipments.

b) As a lessor

Lease income from operating leases where the Company is a lessor is recognised in income on a straight-line basis over the lease term. Initial direct cost incurred in obtaining an operating lease are added to the carrying amount of the underlying asset and recognised as expense over the lease term on the same basis as lease income.

The respective leased assets are included in the balance sheet based on their nature. The Company did not need to make any adjustments to the accounting for assets held as lessor as a result of adopting the new leasing standard.

1.9 PROPERTY, PLANT AND EQUIPMENT

Freehold land is carried at historical cost. All other items of property, plant and equipment are stated at historical cost less depreciation. Historical cost includes expenditure that is directly attributable to the acquisition of the items.

Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognised as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the company and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. The carrying amount of any component accounted for as a separate asset is derecognised when replaced. All other repairs and maintenance are charged to profit or loss during the reporting period in which they are incurred.

Cost of Capital Work in Progress ('CWIP') comprises amount paid towards acquisition of property, plant and equipment outstanding as of each balance sheet date and construction expenditures, other expenditures necessary for the purpose of preparing the CWIP for its intended use and borrowing cost incurred before the qualifying asset is ready for intended use. CWIP is not depreciated until such time as the relevant asset is completed and ready for its intended use.

Depreciation methods, estimated useful lives and residual value

Freehold land is not depreciated. Leasehold improvements and Lease hold land are amortised over the shorter of estimated useful life or the related lease term. Depreciation is calculated using the straight-line method to allocate their cost, net of their residual values, over their estimated useful lives as follows:

Assets	Estimated Useful Lives (in years)
Buildings
Building	30
Residential and other buildings	60
Road, fencing, etc.	Ranging between 3 to 15 years

Notes

Notes annexed to and forming part of the standalone balance sheet as at March 31, 2022 and the standalone statement of profit and loss for the year ended March 31, 2022

(All amounts in Rupees (Rs.) million, unless otherwise stated)

Assets	Estimated Useful Lives (in years)
Office and other equipments
Office equipment	Ranging between 3 to 10 years
Computer	3 years except Networking equipment's which are depreciated over useful life of 5 years
Vehicles	8
Furniture and fixtures	10

These estimated useful lives are in accordance with those prescribed under Schedule II to the Companies Act, 2013 except in respect of plant and machinery wherein the estimated useful lives are different than those under Schedule II to the Companies Act, 2013 based on a technical evaluation done by the Management.

Plant and machinery is depreciated on straight line method over the useful life ranging between 2 years to 40 years in order to reflect the actual usage of the assets. The estimated useful lives of plant and machinery has been determined based on internal technical advice which considers the nature of the asset, the usage of the asset, expected physical wear and tear, the operating conditions of the asset, anticipated technological changes, etc.

The residual values are not more than 5% of the original cost of the asset.

An asset's carrying amount is written down immediately to its recoverable amount if the asset's carrying amount is greater than its estimated recoverable amount.

Estimated useful lives, residual values and depreciation methods are reviewed annually, taking into account commercial and technological obsolescence as well as normal wear and tear and adjusted prospectively, if appropriate.

Gains and losses on disposals are determined by comparing proceeds with carrying amount. These are included in profit or loss within other expenses or other income or other expenses, as applicable.

1.10 INVESTMENT PROPERTIES

Property that is held for long-term rental yields or for capital appreciation or both, and that is not occupied by the Company, is classified as Investment property. Investment property is measured initially at its cost, including related transaction costs and where applicable borrowing costs. Subsequent expenditure is capitalised to the asset's carrying amount only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the expenditure will flow to the Company and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. All other repairs and maintenance costs are expensed when incurred. When part of an investment property is replaced, the carrying amount of the replaced part is derecognised.

Investment properties (except freehold land) are depreciated using the straight-line method over their estimated useful lives over a period of thirty years. These estimated useful lives are in accordance with those prescribed under Schedule II to the Companies Act, 2013.

1.11 INTANGIBLE ASSETS

Intangible assets with finite useful lives acquired by the Company are measured at cost less accumulated amortization and accumulated impairment losses. Amortization is charged on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful lives. The estimated useful life and amortization method are reviewed at the end of each annual reporting period, with the effect of any changes in the estimate being accounted for on a prospective basis.

Amortisation methods and periods

Intangible assets comprise of computer software which is amortised on a straight-line basis over its expected useful life over a period of five years which is based on a technical evaluation done by the Management.

1.12 NON-CURRENT ASSETS (OR DISPOSAL GROUPS) HELD FOR SALE AND DISCONTINUED OPERATIONS

Non-current assets (or disposal groups) are classified as held for sale if their carrying amount will be recovered principally through a sale transaction rather than through continuing use and a sale is considered highly probable. They are measured at the lower of their carrying amount and fair value less costs to sell, except for assets

Notes annexed to and forming part of the standalone balance sheet as at March 31, 2022 and the standalone statement of profit and loss for the year ended March 31, 2022

(All amounts in Rupees (Rs.) million, unless otherwise stated)

such as deferred tax assets, assets arising from employee benefits, financial assets, which are specifically exempt from this requirement.

An impairment loss is recognised for any initial or subsequent write-down of the asset (or disposal groups) to fair value less costs to sell. A gain is recognised for any subsequent increases in fair value less costs to sell of an asset (or disposal groups), but not in excess of any cumulative impairment loss previously recognised. A gain or loss not previously recognised by the date of the sale of the non-current asset (or disposal groups) is recognised at the date of de-recognition.

Non-current assets (including those that are part of disposal groups) are not depreciated or amortised while they are classified as held for sale. Interest and other expenses attributable to liabilities of disposal groups classified as held for sale continue to be recognized.

Non-current assets classified as held for sale and the assets of disposal groups classified as held for sale are presented separately from the other assets in the balance sheet under the head "Assets or disposal groups classified as held for sale". The liabilities of disposal groups classified as held for sale are presented separately from other liabilities in the balance sheet under the head "Liabilities directly associated with disposal groups classified as held for sale".

A discontinued operation is a component of the entity that has been disposed of or is classified as held for sale and that represents a separate major line of business or geographical area of operations, is part of a single co-ordinated plan to dispose of such a line of business or are of operations, or is a subsidiary acquired exclusively with a view to resale. The results of discontinued operations are presented separately in the statement of profit and loss.

1.13 IMPAIRMENT OF ASSETS

Intangible assets that have an indefinite useful life are not subject to amortization and are tested annually for impairment or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate that they might be impaired. Other assets are tested for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. An impairment loss is recognised for the amount by which the asset's carrying amount exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's fair value less costs of disposal and value in use. For the purposes of assessing impairment, assets are grouped at the lowest levels for which there are separately identifiable cash inflows which are largely independent of the cash inflows from other assets or groups of assets (cash-generating units). Non-financial assets that suffered impairment are reviewed for possible reversal of the impairment at the end of each reporting period.

1.14 INVENTORIES

Raw materials, stores and spares, work in progress, traded goods and finished goods

Raw materials, stores, work in progress, traded and finished goods are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Cost of raw materials and traded goods comprises cost of purchases on moving weighted average basis. Cost of work-in progress and finished goods comprises direct materials, direct labour and an appropriate proportion of variable and fixed overhead expenditure, the latter being allocated on the basis of normal operating capacity. Cost of inventories also includes all other costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition. Costs are assigned to individual items of inventory on moving weighted average basis. Costs of purchased inventory are determined after deducting rebates and discounts. Net realisable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business less the estimated costs of completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

1.15 INVESTMENT IN SUBSIDIARIES, JOINT VENTURES AND ASSOCIATE

The investments in subsidiaries, joint ventures and associate are carried in the standalone financial statements at historical cost except when the investment, or a portion thereof, is classified as held for sale, in which case it is accounted for as Non-current assets held for sale and discontinued operations.

When the Company is committed to a sale plan involving disposal of an investment, or a portion of an investment, in any subsidiary or joint venture, the investment or the portion of the investment that will be disposed of is classified as held for sale when the criteria described above are met. Any retained portion of an investment in a subsidiary or a joint venture that has not been classified as held for sale continues to be accounted for at historical cost.

Notes annexed to and forming part of the standalone balance sheet as at March 31, 2022 and the standalone statement of profit and loss for the year ended March 31, 2022

(All amounts in Rupees (Rs.) million, unless otherwise stated)

Company considers issuance of non-market rate redeemable preference shares by subsidiary as compound instrument comprising a loan with market terms and a capital injection and hence treat the difference between the cash paid and fair value on initial recognition as an addition to the investment in the subsidiary and presented separately as 'Investment in equity component of preference shares' under 'Equity investments in subsidiaries and joint ventures'. Equity Component is not subsequent remeasured.

1.16 FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

A financial instrument is any contract that gives rise to a financial asset of one entity and a financial liability or equity instrument of another entity.

a) Financial assets

(I) Classification

The Company classifies its financial assets in the following measurement categories:

- those to be measured subsequently at fair value (either through other comprehensive income, or through profit or loss); and
- those measured at amortised cost.

The classification depends on the entity's business model for managing the financial assets and the contractual terms of the cash flows.

For assets measured at fair value, gains and losses will either be recorded in profit or loss or other comprehensive income. For investments in debt instruments, this will depend on the business model in which the investment is held.

For investments in equity instruments, this will depend on whether the Company has made an irrevocable election at the time of initial recognition to account for the equity investment at fair value through other comprehensive income.

The Company reclassifies debt investments when and only when its business model for managing those assets changes.

(II) Measurement

At initial recognition, the Company measures a financial asset at its fair value plus, in the case of a financial asset not at fair value through profit or loss, transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition of the financial asset. After initial recognition, financial assets not measured at fair value through profit & Loss are measured using effective interest method. The effective interest rate is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash flow through the expected life of the financial asset, or, where appropriate, a shorter period, to the net carrying amount on initial recognition. Transaction costs of financial assets carried at fair value through profit or loss are expensed in profit or loss.

(i) Debt instruments

Subsequent measurement of debt instruments depends on the Company's business model for managing the asset and the cash flow characteristics of the asset. There are three measurement categories into which the Company classifies its debt instruments:

- Amortised cost: Assets that are held for collection of contractual cash flows where those cash flows represent solely payments of principal and interest are measured at amortised cost. A gain or loss on a debt investment that is subsequently measured at amortised cost and is not part of a hedging relationship is recognised in profit or loss when the asset is derecognised or impaired. Interest income from these financial assets is included in other income using the effective interest rate method.
- Fair value through other comprehensive income (FVOCI): Assets that are held for collection of contractual cash flows and for selling the financial assets, where the assets' cash flows represent solely payments of principal and interest, are measured at fair value through other comprehensive income (FVOCI). Movements in the carrying amount are taken through OCI, except for the recognition of impairment gains or losses, interest income and foreign exchange gains and losses which are recognised in profit and loss. When the financial asset is derecognised, the cumulative gain or loss previously recognised in OCI is reclassified from equity to profit or loss and recognised in other income or other expenses (as applicable). Interest income from these financial assets is included in other income using the effective interest rate method.

- Fair value through profit or loss (FVTPL): Assets that do not meet the criteria for amortised cost or FVOCI are measured at fair value through profit or loss. A gain or loss on a debt investment that is subsequently measured at fair value through profit or loss and is not part of a hedging relationship is recognised in profit or loss and presented net in the statement of profit and loss within other income or other expenses (as applicable) in the period in which it arises. Interest income from these financial assets is included in other income or other expenses, as applicable.

(ii) Equity instruments

The Company subsequently measures all equity investments at fair value. Where the Company's management has elected to present fair value gains and losses on equity investments in other comprehensive income and there is no subsequent reclassification of fair value gains and losses to profit or loss. Dividends from such investments and gain/loss on restatement of equity shares held in foreign currency are recognised in profit or loss as other income when the Company's right to receive payments is established.

Changes in the fair value of financial assets at fair value through profit or loss are recognised in other income or other expenses, as applicable in the statement of profit and loss. Impairment losses (and reversal of impairment losses) on equity investments measured at FVOCI are not reported separately from other changes in fair value.

(III) Impairment of financial assets

The Company assesses on a forward looking basis the expected credit losses associated with its assets carried at amortised cost and FVOCI debt instruments. The impairment methodology applied depends on whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk.

For trade receivables and contract assets, the Company applies the simplified approach permitted by Ind AS 109 Financial Instruments, which requires expected lifetime losses to be recognised from initial recognition of the receivables.

(IV) Derecognition of financial assets

A financial asset is derecognised only when

- The Company has transferred the rights to receive cash flows from the financial asset or
- Retains the contractual rights to receive the cash flows of the financial asset, but assumes a contractual obligation to pay the cash flows to one or more recipients.

Where the entity has transferred an asset, the Company evaluates whether it has transferred substantially all risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset. In such cases, the financial asset is derecognised. Where the entity has not transferred substantially all risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset, the financial asset is not derecognised.

Where the entity has neither transferred a financial asset nor retains substantially all risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset, the financial asset is derecognised if the Company has not retained control of the financial asset. Where the Company retains control of the financial asset, the asset is continued to be recognised to the extent of continuing involvement in the financial asset.

(All amounts in Rupees (Rs.) million, unless otherwise stated)

(V) Income recognition

(i) Interest income

Interest income from a financial assets is recognized when it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Group and the amount of income can be measured reliably. Interest income is accrued on time basis by reference to principal outstanding and the effective interest rate applicable which is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash receipts through the expected life of the financial asset to the gross carrying amount of a financial asset. When calculating the effective interest rate, the Group estimates the expected cash flows by considering all the contractual terms of the financial instrument (for example, prepayment, extension, call and similar options) but does not consider the expected credit losses.

Interest on income tax and indirect tax are recognised in the year in which it is received.

(ii) Dividend income

Dividend income are recognised in profit or loss only when the right to receive payment is established, it is probable that the economic benefits associated with the dividend will flow to the Company and the amount of the dividend can be measured reliably.

(iii) Export Benefits

In case of sale made by the Company as Support Manufacturer, export benefits arising from Duty Entitlement Pass Book (DEPB), Duty Drawback scheme and Merchandise Export Incentive Scheme (MEIS) are recognised on export of such goods in accordance with the agreed terms and conditions with customers. In case of direct exports made by the Company, export benefits arising from DEPB, Duty Drawback scheme and Merchandise Export Incentive Scheme are recognised on shipment of direct exports.

(VI) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents comprise cash at bank and in hand, short-term deposits with an original maturity of three months or less and short term highly liquid investments that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

For the purposes of the statement of cash flow, cash and cash equivalents is as defined above, net of outstanding bank overdrafts. In the balance sheet, bank overdrafts are shown within borrowings in current liabilities.

(VII) Trade receivable

Trade Receivables are amounts due from customers for goods sold or services performed in the ordinary course of business. Trade receivables are recognised initially at the amount of consideration that is unconditional unless they contain significant financing components, when they are recognised at fair value. The Company holds the trade receivables with the objective to collect the contractual cash flows and therefore measures them subsequently at amortised cost less loss allowance.

b) Financial liabilities

(I) Measurement

Financial liabilities are initially recognised at fair value, reduced by transaction costs (in case of financial liability not at fair value through profit or loss), that are directly attributable to the issue of financial liability. After initial recognition, financial liabilities are measured at amortised cost using effective interest method. The effective interest rate is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash outflow (including all fees paid, transaction cost, and other premiums or discounts) through the expected life of the financial liability, or, where appropriate, a shorter period, to the net carrying amount on initial recognition. At the time of initial recognition, there is no financial liability irrevocably designated as measured at fair value through profit or loss.

(II) Derecognition

A financial liability is derecognised when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled or expires. When an existing

Notes

Notes annexed to and forming part of the standalone balance sheet as at March 31, 2022 and the standalone statement of profit and loss for the year ended March 31, 2022

(All amounts in Rupees (Rs.) million, unless otherwise stated)

financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms, or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as the de-recognition of the original liability and the recognition of a new liability. The difference in the respective carrying amounts is recognised in the statement of profit or loss.

(III) Borrowings

Borrowings are initially recognised at fair value, net of transaction costs incurred. Borrowings are subsequently measured at amortised cost. Any difference between the proceeds (net of transaction costs) and the redemption amount is recognised in profit or loss over the period of the borrowings using the effective interest method.

Fees paid on the establishment of loan facilities are recognised as transaction costs of the loan to the extent that it is probable that some or all of the facility will be drawn down. In this case, the fee is deferred until the draw down occurs. To the extent there is no evidence that it is probable that some or all of the facility will be drawn down, the fee is capitalised as a prepayment for liquidity services and amortised over the period of the facility to which it relates.

Borrowings are removed from the balance sheet when the obligation specified in the contract is discharged, cancelled or expired. The difference between the carrying amount of a financial liability that has been extinguished or transferred to another party and the consideration paid, including any non-cash assets transferred or liabilities assumed, is recognised in profit and loss as other income or other expenses, as applicable.

Where the terms of a financial liability are renegotiated and the entity issues equity instruments to a creditor to extinguish all or part of the liability (debt for equity swap), a gain or loss is recognised in profit or loss, which is measured as the difference between the carrying amount of the financial liability and the fair value of the equity instruments issued.

Borrowings are classified as current liabilities unless the Company has an unconditional right to defer settlement of the liability for at least 12 months after the reporting period. Where there is a breach of a material provision of a long-term loan arrangement on or before the end of the reporting period with the effect that the liability becomes payable on demand on the reporting date, the entity does not classify the liability as current, if the lender agreed, after the reporting period and before the approval of the standalone financial statements for issue, not to demand payment as a consequence of the breach.

(IV) Trade and other payables

These amounts represent liabilities for goods and services provided to the Company prior to the end of financial year which are unpaid. Trade and other payables are presented as current liabilities unless payment is not due within 12 months after the reporting period. Trade and other payables are recognised, initially at fair value, and subsequently measured at amortised cost using effective interest rate method.

Trade payables includes acceptances arrangements where operational suppliers of goods are paid by banks while Company continues to recognise the liability till settlement with the banks.

c) Financial guarantee contracts

Financial guarantee contracts are recognized as a financial liability at the time the guarantee is issued. The liability is initially measured at fair value and subsequently at the higher of the amount determined in accordance with Ind AS 37 and amount initially recognized less cumulative amortization, where appropriate. The fair value of guarantee is determined as at the present value of difference in net cash flows between the contractual payments under the debt instrument and the payment that would be required without the guarantee, or the estimated amount that would be payable to a third party for assuming the obligation. Where guarantee in relation to loan or other payables of group companies are provided for no consideration, the fair values are accounted for as contributions and recognized as part of the cost of investment.

Notes

Notes annexed to and forming part of the standalone balance sheet as at March 31, 2022 and the standalone statement of profit and loss for the year ended March 31, 2022

(All amounts in Rupees (Rs.) million, unless otherwise stated)

d) Derivatives and hedging activities

In order to hedge its exposure to foreign exchange and interest rate, the Company enters into forward and interest rate swap contracts and other derivative financial instruments. The Company does not hold derivative financial instruments for speculative purposes.

Derivatives are initially recognised at fair value on the date a derivative contract is entered into and are subsequently marked to market to their fair value at the end of each reporting period.

The accounting for subsequent changes in fair value depends on whether the derivative is designated as a hedging instrument, and if so, the nature of the item being hedged and the type of hedge relationship designated.

The Company designates their derivatives as hedges of foreign exchange risk associated with the cash flows of highly probable forecast transactions and variable interest rate risk associated with borrowings (cash flow hedges).

The Company documents at the inception of the hedging transaction the economic relationship between hedging instruments and hedged items including whether the hedging instrument is expected to offset changes in cash flows of hedged items. The Company documents its risk management objective and strategy for undertaking various hedge transactions at the inception of each hedge relationship.

The full fair value of a hedging derivative is classified as a non-current asset or liability when the remaining maturity of the hedged item is more than 12 months; it is classified as a current asset or liability when the remaining maturity of the hedged item is less than 12 months.

(l) Cash flow hedges that qualify for hedge accounting

The effective portion of changes in the fair value of derivatives that are designated and qualify as cash flow hedges is recognised in the other comprehensive income in cash flow hedging reserve within equity, limited to the cumulative change in fair value of the hedged item on a present value basis from the inception of the hedge. The gain or loss relating to the ineffective portion is recognised immediately in profit or loss, within other income or other expenses (as applicable).

When forward contracts are used to hedge forecast transactions, the Company generally designates the full change in fair value of the forward contract (including forward points) as the hedging instrument. In such cases, the gains and losses relating to the effective portion of the change in fair value of the entire forward contract are recognised in the cash flow hedging reserve within equity.

Where the hedged item subsequently results in the recognition of a non-financial asset (such as inventory), both the deferred hedging gains and losses and the deferred time value of the deferred forward contracts, if any are included within the initial cost of the asset.

When a hedging instrument expires, or is sold or terminated, or when a hedge no longer meets the criteria for hedge accounting, any cumulative deferred gain or loss in equity at that time remains in equity until the forecast transaction occurs. When the forecast transaction is no longer expected to occur, the cumulative gain or loss that was reported in equity is immediately reclassified to profit or loss within other income or other expense (as applicable). If the hedge ratio for risk management purposes is no longer optimal but the risk management objective remains unchanged and the hedge continues to qualify for hedge accounting, the hedge relationship will be rebalanced by adjusting either the volume of the hedging instrument or the volume of the hedged item so that the hedge ratio aligns with the ratio used for risk management purposes. Any hedge ineffectiveness is calculated and accounted for in statement of profit or loss at the time of the hedge relationship rebalancing.

Notes annexed to and forming part of the standalone balance sheet as at March 31, 2022 and the standalone statement of profit and loss for the year ended March 31, 2022

(All amounts in Rupees (Rs.) million, unless otherwise stated)

(II) Derivatives that are not designated as hedges

The Company enters into derivative contracts to hedge risks which are not designated as hedges. Such contracts are accounted for at fair value through profit or loss and are included in other income or other expenses (as applicable).

e) Embedded Derivatives

Derivatives embedded in a host contract that is an asset within the scope of Ind AS 109 are not separated. Financial assets with embedded derivatives are considered in their entirety when determining whether their cash flows are solely payment of principal and interest.

f) Embedded foreign currency derivatives

Embedded foreign currency derivatives are not separated from the host contract if they are closely related. Such embedded derivatives are closely related to the host contract, if the host contract is not leveraged, does not contain any option feature and requires payments in one of the following currencies:

- the functional currency of any substantial party to that contract,
- the currency in which the price of the related good or service that is acquired or delivered is routinely denominated in commercial transactions around the world, and
- the currency that is commonly used in contracts to purchase or sell non-financial items in the economic environment in which the transaction takes place (i.e. relatively liquid and stable currency).

Foreign currency embedded derivatives which do not meet the above criteria are separated and the derivative is accounted for at fair value through profit and loss. The Company currently does not have any such derivatives which are not closely related.

g) Offsetting financial instruments

Financial assets and liabilities are offset and the net amount is reported in the balance sheet where there is a legally enforceable right to offset the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis or realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously. The legally enforceable right must not be contingent on future events and must be enforceable in the normal course of business and in the event of default, insolvency or bankruptcy of the Company or the counterparty.

1.17 BORROWING COSTS

General and specific borrowing costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of a qualifying asset are capitalised during the period of time that is required to complete and prepare the asset for its intended use or sale. Qualifying assets are assets that necessarily take a substantial period of time to get ready for their intended use or sale. Investment income earned on the temporary investment of specific borrowings pending their expenditure on qualifying assets is deducted from the borrowing costs eligible for capitalisation. Other borrowing costs are expensed in the period in which they are incurred.

1.18 EMPLOYEE BENEFITS

a) Short-term obligations

Liabilities for wages and salaries, including non-monetary benefits that are expected to be settled wholly within 12 months after the end of the period in which the employees render the related service are recognised in respect of employees' services up to the end of the reporting period and are measured at the amounts expected to be paid when the liabilities are settled. The liabilities are presented as current employee benefit obligations in the balance sheet.

b) Other long-term employee benefit obligations

The liabilities for earned leave are not expected to be settled wholly within 12 months after the end of the period in which the employees render the related service. They are therefore measured as the present value of expected future payments to be made in respect of services provided by employees up to the end of the reporting period using the projected unit credit method. The benefits are discounted using the market yields at the end of the reporting period that have terms approximating to the terms of the related obligation. Remeasurements as a result of experience adjustments and changes in actuarial assumptions are recognised in profit or loss.

Notes

Notes annexed to and forming part of the standalone balance sheet as at March 31, 2022 and the standalone statement of profit and loss for the year ended March 31, 2022

(All amounts in Rupees (Rs.) million, unless otherwise stated)

The obligations are presented as current liabilities in the balance sheet if the entity does not have an unconditional right to defer settlement for at least twelve months after the reporting period, regardless of when the actual settlement is expected to occur.

c) Post-employment obligations

The Company operates the following post-employment schemes:

- defined benefit plans such as gratuity; and
- defined contribution plans such as provident fund and superannuation fund.

(I) Defined Benefit Plans

(i) Gratuity obligations

The liability or asset recognised in the balance sheet in respect of defined benefit gratuity plans is the present value of the defined benefit obligation at the end of the reporting period less the fair value of plan assets. The defined benefit obligation is calculated annually by actuaries using the projected unit credit method.

The present value of the defined benefit obligation denominated in INR is determined by discounting the estimated future cash outflows by reference to market yields at the end of the reporting period on government bonds that have terms approximating to the terms of the related obligation.

The net interest cost is calculated by applying the discount rate to the net balance of the defined benefit obligation and the fair value of plan assets. This cost is included in employee benefit expense in the statement of profit and loss.

Remeasurement gains and losses arising from experience adjustments and changes in actuarial assumptions are recognised in the period in which they occur, directly in other comprehensive income. They are included in retained earnings in the statement of changes in equity and in the balance sheet. Remeasurements are not reclassified to profit and loss in the subsequent periods.

Changes in the present value of the defined benefit obligation resulting from plan amendments or curtailments are recognised immediately in profit or loss as past service cost.

(II) Defined contribution plans

(i) Provident Fund, Employee State Insurance Corporation (ESIC) and Pension Fund

The Contribution towards provident fund, ESIC and pension fund for certain employees is made to the regulatory authorities where the Company has no further obligations. Such benefits are classified as Defined Contribution Schemes as the Company does not carry any further obligations apart from the contributions made on a monthly basis.

(ii) Superannuation Fund

Contribution towards superannuation fund for certain employees is made to SBI Life Insurance Company where the Company has no further obligations. Such benefits are classified as Defined Contribution Schemes as the Company does not carry any further obligations, apart from contribution made on monthly basis.

d) Bonus Plan

The Company recognises a liability and an expense for bonus. The Company recognises a provision where contractually obliged or where there is a past practice that has created a constructive obligation.

e) Equity-settled share-based payments (ESOP)

Equity-settled share-based payments to employees are measured at the fair value of the options at the grant date.

The fair value of option at the grant date is expensed over the vesting period with a corresponding increase in equity as "Equity settled share based payments". In case of forfeiture of unvested option, portion of amount already expensed is reversed. In a situation where the vested option forfeited or expires unexercised, the related balance standing to the credit of the "Equity settled share based payments" are transferred to the "Retained Earnings".

Notes

Notes annexed to and forming part of the standalone balance sheet as at March 31, 2022 and the standalone statement of profit and loss for the year ended March 31, 2022

(All amounts in Rupees (Rs.) million, unless otherwise stated)

When the options are exercised, the Company issues new equity shares of the Company of ₹ 5 each fully paid-up. The proceeds received and the related balance standing to credit of the Equity settled share based payments, are credited to share capital (nominal value) and Securities Premium.

1.19 PROVISIONS, CONTINGENT LIABILITIES AND CONTINGENT ASSETS

a) Provisions

Provisions for legal claims are recognised when the Company has a present legal or constructive obligation as a result of past events, it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation and the amount can be reliably estimated. Provisions are not recognised for future operating losses.

Where there are a number of similar obligations, the likelihood that an outflow will be required in settlement is determined by considering the class of obligations as a whole. A provision is recognised even if the likelihood of an outflow with respect to any one item included in the same class of obligations may be small. Provisions are measured at the present value of management's best estimate of the expenditure required to settle the present obligation at the end of the reporting period. The discount rate used to determine the present value is a pre-tax rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the liability. The increase in the provision due to the passage of time is recognised as interest expense.

The measurement of provision for restructuring includes only direct expenditures arising from the restructuring, which are both necessarily entailed by the restructuring and not associated with the ongoing activities of the Company.

b) Contingent liabilities

Contingent liabilities are disclosed when there is a possible obligation arising from past events the existence of which will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the company or a present obligation that arises from past events where it is either not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle or a reliable estimate of the amount cannot be made.

c) Contingent Assets

1.20 CONTRIBUTED EQUITY

Equity shares are classified as equity. Incremental costs directly attributable to the issue of new shares or options are shown in equity as a deduction, net of tax, from the proceeds.

1.21 DIVIDENDS

Provision is made for the amount of any dividend declared, being appropriately authorised and no longer at the discretion of the entity, on or before the end of the reporting period but not distributed at the end of the reporting period.

1.22 EARNINGS PER SHARE

a) Basic earnings per share

Basic earnings per share is calculated by dividing:

- the profit attributable to owners of the Company; and
- by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the financial year, adjusted for bonus elements in equity shares issued during the year and excluding treasury shares.

b) Diluted earnings per share

Diluted earnings per share adjust the figures used in the determination of basic earnings per share to take into account:

- the after income tax effect of interest and other financing costs associated with dilutive potential equity shares; and
- the weighted average number of additional equity shares that would have been outstanding assuming the conversion of all dilutive potential equity shares.

1.23 ROUNDING OF AMOUNTS

All amounts disclosed in the standalone financial statements and notes have been rounded off to the nearest Rupees millions (upto two decimals), unless otherwise stated as per the requirement of Schedule III (Division II).

1.24 BUSINESS COMBINATIONS

The acquisition method of accounting is used to account for all business combinations, regardless of whether equity instruments or other assets are acquired. The consideration transferred for the acquisition of a subsidiary comprises the

Notes

Notes annexed to and forming part of the standalone balance sheet as at March 31, 2022 and the standalone statement of profit and loss for the year ended March 31, 2022

(All amounts in Rupees (Rs.) million, unless otherwise stated)

- fair values of the assets transferred
- liabilities incurred to the former owners of the acquired business
- equity interests issued by the group
- fair value of any asset or liability resulting from a contingent consideration arrangement.

Identifiable assets acquired and liabilities and contingent liabilities assumed in a business combination are, with limited exceptions, measured initially at their fair values at the acquisition date. The group recognises any non-controlling interest in the acquired entity on an acquisition-by-acquisition basis either at fair value or at the non-controlling interest's proportionate share of the acquired entity's net identifiable assets.

The excess of the:

- consideration transferred
- amount of any non-controlling interest in the acquired entity
- acquisition-date fair value of any previous equity interest in the acquired entity

over the fair value of the net identifiable assets acquired is recorded as goodwill. If those amounts are less than the fair value of the net identifiable assets of the business acquired, the difference is recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated in equity as capital reserve provided there is clear evidence of the underlying reasons for classifying the business combination as a bargain purchase. In other cases, the bargain purchase gain is recognised directly in equity as capital reserve.

Where settlement of any part of cash consideration is deferred, the amounts payable in the future are discounted to their present value as at the date of exchange. The discount rate used is the entity's incremental borrowing rate, being the rate at which a similar borrowing could be obtained from an independent financier under comparable terms and conditions.

Contingent consideration is classified either as equity or a financial liability. Amounts classified as a financial liability are subsequently remeasured to fair value with changes in fair value recognised in profit or loss.

If the business combination is achieved in stages, the acquisition date carrying value of the acquirer's previously held equity interest in the acquiree is remeasured to fair value at the acquisition date. Any gains or losses arising from such remeasurement are recognised in profit or loss or other comprehensive income, as appropriate.

NOTE 2: CRITICAL ESTIMATES AND JUDGMENTS

The preparation of standalone financial statements requires the use of accounting estimates which, by definition, will seldom equal the actual results. Management also needs to exercise judgment in applying the Company's accounting policies. This note provides an overview of the areas that involved a higher degree of judgment or complexity, and of items which are more likely to be materially adjusted due to estimates and assumptions turning out to be different than those originally assessed. Detailed information about each of these estimates and judgments is included in relevant notes together with information about the basis of calculation for each affected line item in the standalone financial statements.

Critical estimates and judgments

i) Estimation of Provisions and Contingent Liabilities

The Company exercises judgment in measuring and recognising provisions and the exposures to contingent liabilities which is related to pending litigation or other outstanding claims. Judgement is necessary in assessing the likelihood that a pending claim will succeed, or a liability will arise, and to quantify the possible range of the financial settlement. Because of the inherent uncertainty in this evaluation process, actual liability may be different from the originally estimated as provision (Refer note 37 and 45).

ii) Estimation of useful life of Property, Plant and Equipment

Property, Plant and Equipment represent a significant proportion of the asset base of the Company. The charge in respect of periodic depreciation is derived after determining an estimate of an asset's expected useful life and the expected residual value at the end of its life. The useful lives and residual values of Company's assets are determined by management at the time the asset is acquired and reviewed periodically, including at each financial year end. The lives are based on historical experience with similar assets as well as anticipation of future events, which may impact their life, such as changes in technology (Refer note 1.9).

Notes

Notes annexed to and forming part of the standalone balance sheet as at March 31, 2022 and the standalone statement of profit and loss for the year ended March 31, 2022

(All amounts in Rupees (Rs.) million, unless otherwise stated)

iii) Estimation of Provision for Inventory

The Company writes down inventories to net realisable value based on an estimate of the realisability of inventories. Write downs on inventories are recorded where events or changes in circumstances indicate that the balances may not be realised. The identification of write-downs requires the use of estimates of net selling prices of the down-graded inventories. Where the expectation is different from the original estimate, such difference will impact the carrying value of inventories and write-downs of inventories in the periods in which such estimate has been changed.

iv) Estimation of Defined Benefit Obligation

The present value of the defined benefit obligations depends on a number of factors that are determined on an actuarial basis using a number of assumptions. The assumptions used in determining the net cost (income) for post employment plans include the discount rate. Any changes in these assumptions will impact the carrying amount of such obligations.

The Company determines the appropriate discount rate at the end of each year. This is the interest rate that should be used to determine the present value of estimated future cash outflows expected to be required to settle the defined benefit obligations. In determining the appropriate discount rate, the Company considers the interest rates of government bonds of maturity approximating the terms of the related plan liability (Refer note 36).

v) Estimated fair value of Financial Instruments

The fair value of financial instruments that are not traded in an active market is determined using valuation techniques. The Management uses its judgment to select a variety of methods and make assumptions that are mainly based on market conditions existing at the end of each reporting period (Refer note 40).

vi) Impairment of carrying value of investments and recoverability of loans to a subsidiary:

Determining whether the impairment of carrying value of investments in a subsidiary and recoverability of loans to a subsidiary requires an estimate of the value in use of investments and loans.

In considering the value in use, the board of directors of Investee Company have selected the appropriate method for the determination of value-in-use example market approach model, discounted cash flow model etc. Accordingly, Company anticipates the market rates from independent website, assesses the work of the external valuation expert for valuation of the Investee Company in case of market approach model.

(i) Fair value hierarchy

This section explains the judgements and estimates made in determining the fair values of the financial instruments that are (a) recognised and measured at fair value and (b) measured at amortised cost and for which fair values are disclosed in the financial statements. To provide an indication about the reliability of the inputs used in determining fair value, the Company has classified its financial instruments into the three levels prescribed under the accounting standard. An explanation of each level follows underneath the table.

The following table provides an analysis of financial instruments that are measured subsequent to initial recognition at fair value, grouped into Level 1 to Level 3, as described below.

Level 1: This hierarchy includes financial instruments measured using quoted prices. There is no item under this category as at March 31, 2022 and as at March 31, 2021.

Level 2: The fair value of financial instruments that are not traded in an active market is determined using valuation techniques which maximise the use of observable market data and rely as little as possible on entity-specific estimates. The Company has derivatives which are not designated as hedges, bonds, government securities and mutual funds for which all significant inputs required to fair value an instrument falls under level 2.

Level 3: If one or more of the significant inputs is not based on observable market data, the instrument is included in level 3. This is the case for unlisted securities.

(ii) Valuation technique used to determine fair value

Specific valuation techniques used to value financial instruments include:

- the fair value of forward contracts is determined using forward exchange rates prevailing with Authorised Dealers dealing in foreign exchange.
- the use of Net Assets Value ('NAV') for valuation of mutual fund investment. NAV represents the price at which the issuer will issue further units and will redeem such units of mutual fund to and from the investors.
- the fair value of bonds and government securities are derived based on the indicative quotes of price and yields prevailing in the market or latest available prices.

41. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT

The Company's activities expose it to market risk, liquidity risk and credit risk. In order to minimise any adverse effects on the financial performance of the Company, derivative financial instruments, such as foreign exchange forward contracts are entered to hedge certain foreign currency risk exposures. Derivatives are used exclusively for hedging purposes and not as trading or speculative instruments.

This note explains the sources of risk which the Company is exposed to and how the Company manages the risk and the impact of hedge accounting in the financial statements.

Risk	Exposure arising from	Measurement	Management
Credit risk	Trade receivables and other financial assets	Ageing analysis"	Diversification of bank deposits, credit limits and letters of credit
Liquidity risk	Borrowings and other financial liabilities	Borrowings maturity and cash flow forecasts	Availability of committed credit lines and borrowing facilities
Market risk – foreign currency risk	Recognised financial assets and liabilities not denominated in Rupees	Sensitivity analysis	Forward foreign exchange contracts and derivative contracts
Market risk – security prices risk	Investments in bonds and mutual funds	Sensitivity analysis	Portfolio diversification

The Company's risk management is carried out by treasury department under policies approved by the board of directors. Treasury department identifies, evaluates and hedges financial risks. The board provides written principles for overall risk management, as well as policies covering specific areas, such as foreign exchange risk, interest rate risk, credit risk, use of derivative financial instruments and non-derivative financial instruments and investment of excess liquidity. There is no change in objectives, policies and process for managing the risk and methods used to measure the risk as compared to previous year.

(I) Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk that counterparty will not meet its obligation under a financial instrument or customer contract, leading to a financial loss. The Company is exposed to credit risk from its operating activities (primarily trade receivables) and from its financing activities, including deposits with bank, foreign exchange transactions and other financial instruments.

The Company considers the probability of default upon initial recognition of asset and whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk on an ongoing basis throughout each reporting period. To assess whether there is a significant increase in credit risk the Company compares the risk of a default occurring on the asset as at the reporting date with the risk of default as at the date of initial recognition.

a) Trade receivables

Trade receivables are typically unsecured and are derived from revenue earned from customers. Credit risk has been managed by the Company through credit approvals, establishing credit limits and continuously monitoring the creditworthiness of customers to which the Company grants credit terms in the normal course of business. On account of adoption of Ind AS 109, the Company uses expected credit loss model to assess the impairment loss or gain.

Changes in allowance for doubtful debts	(100.26)	217.38
Closing balance	234.32	334.58

b) Other financial assets

The Company maintains exposure in cash and cash equivalents, term deposits with banks, derivative financial instruments, investments in government securities, bonds and investments in mutual funds. The Company has diversified portfolio of investment with various number of counterparties which have good credit ratings, good reputation and hence the risk is reduced. Individual risk limits are set for each counterparty based on financial position, credit rating and past experience. Credit limits and concentration of exposures are actively monitored by the Company.

(II) Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company will not be able to meet its financial obligations as they become due. The Company manages liquidity risk by maintaining adequate reserves, banking facilities and reserve borrowing facilities (comprising the undrawn borrowing facilities below), by continuously monitoring forecast and actual cash flows and matching the maturity profiles of financial assets and liabilities.

a) Financing arrangements

The Company had access to the following undrawn borrowing facilities for working capital at the end of the reporting period:

Floating rate
Expiring within one year	4,886.80	4,278.26
Total	4,886.80	4,278.26

b) Maturities of financial liabilities

The tables below analyse the Company's financial liabilities into relevant maturity groupings based on their contractual maturities for:

All non-derivative financial liabilities, and

Derivative financial instruments for which the contractual maturities are essential for an understanding of the timing of the cash flows.

The amounts disclosed in the table are the contractual undiscounted cash flows. Balances due within 12 months equal their carrying balances as the impact of discounting is not material.

The Company undertakes transactions denominated in foreign currencies; consequently, exposures to exchange rate fluctuations arise. Exchange rate exposures are managed within approved policy parameters utilising forward foreign exchange contracts.

The Company uses foreign currency forward contracts to hedge its risks associated with foreign currency fluctuations relating to certain firm commitments, highly probable forecast transactions and foreign currency required at the settlement date of certain receivables/payables. The use of foreign currency forward contracts is governed by the Company's strategy approved by the board of directors, which provide principles on the use of such forward contracts consistent with the Company's risk management policy and procedures.

The Company had borrowed funds at fixed interest rates.

The Company's fixed rate borrowings are carried at amortised cost. They are therefore not subject to interest rate risk as defined in Ind AS 107, since neither the carrying amount nor the future cash flows will fluctuate because of a change in market interest rates.

(V) Market risk - security prices

In order to manage its price risk arising from investments in mutual funds, the Company diversifies its portfolio in accordance with the limits set by the risk management policies.

The Company uses forward contracts to hedge its risks associated with foreign currency fluctuations relating to certain firm commitments, highly probable forecast transactions and foreign currency required at the settlement date of certain receivables/payables. The use of forward contracts is governed by the Company's strategy approved by the board of directors, which provide principles on the use of such forward contracts consistent with the Company's risk management policy.

The Company's hedging policy only allows for effective hedge relationships to be established. Hedge effectiveness is determined at the inception of the hedge relationship, and through periodic prospective effectiveness assessments to ensure that an economic relationship exists between the hedged item and hedging instrument. The Company enters into hedge relationships where the critical terms of the hedging instrument match exactly with the terms of the hedged item, and so a qualitative assessment of effectiveness is performed. If changes in circumstances affect the terms of the hedged item such that the critical terms no longer match exactly with the critical terms of the hedging instrument, the Company uses the hypothetical derivative method to assess effectiveness. Ineffectiveness is recognised on a cash flow hedge and net investment hedge where the cumulative change in the designated component value of the hedging instrument exceeds on an absolute basis the change in value of the hedged item attributable to the hedged risk. In hedges of foreign currency forecast sale and purchase transactions, hedges of interest rate risk and hedges of net investment, as applicable, this may arise if:

- (i) The critical terms of the hedging instrument and the hedged item differ (i.e. nominal amounts, timing of the forecast transaction, interest resets changes from what was originally estimated), or
- (ii) Differences arise between the credit risk inherent within the hedged item and the hedging instrument. There were no ineffectiveness recognised in the statement of profit and loss during March 31, 2022 and March 31, 2021.

At 31 March 2022, the Company had property, plant and equipment with a carrying value of Saudi Riyals 262.3 million including 'Plant and machinery' with a carrying value of Saudi Riyals 227.8 million. Key Audit Matter	How our audit addressed the key audit matter
Based on the review carried out for the year ended 31 March 2022, management revised the range of estimated useful lives of the 'Plant and machinery' category from 2 - 20 years to 2 - 36 years. This change resulted in the depreciation expense for the year ended 31 March 2022 to be lower by Saudi Riyals 15.6 million as compared to what it would have been using the previous useful lives. The change in useful lives was applied prospectively from 1 April 2021. We considered this as a key audit matter as the assessment of the review of the useful lives requires significant judgements around multiple factors including technical conditions of the 'Plant and machinery' and changes in its future anticipated usage from its historical usage. Refer to Note 51 to the consolidated financial statements for the disclosure of significant accounting estimates and the disclosure of matters related to change in useful lives.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Considering our knowledge of the business and practice in wider manufacturing industry evaluated whether the revised useful lives are consistent with those commonly used in the industry and that the anticipated usage of plant and machinery justify the revised useful lives; • Tested changes of the revised useful lives of such assets in the fixed asset register and recomputed the related depreciation; and • Assessed the adequacy and appropriateness of the related disclosures in the financial statements.

Annexure A to Independent auditors' report

Referred to in paragraph 21(f) of the Independent auditors' report of even date to the members of Welspun Corp Limited on the consolidated financial statements for the year ended March 31, 2022

REPORT ON THE INTERNAL FINANCIAL CONTROLS WITH REFERENCE TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS UNDER CLAUSE (I) OF SUB-SECTION 3 OF SECTION 143 OF THE ACT

1. In conjunction with our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the Holding Company as of and for the year ended March 31, 2022, we have audited the internal financial controls with reference to financial statements of Welspun Corp Limited (hereinafter referred to as the "Holding Company") and its subsidiary companies, its joint venture and associate, which are companies incorporated in India, as of that date.

MANAGEMENT'S RESPONSIBILITY FOR INTERNAL FINANCIAL CONTROLS

2. The respective Board of Directors of the Holding Company, its subsidiary companies, its joint venture and associate, which are companies incorporated in India, to whom reporting under clause (i) of sub section 3 of Section 143 of the Act in respect of the adequacy of the internal financial controls with reference to financial statements is applicable, are responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Holding Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI)". These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to the respective company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Act.

AUDITORS' RESPONSIBILITY

3. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Holding Company's internal financial controls with reference to financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting (the "Guidance Note") issued by the ICAI and the Standards on Auditing deemed to be prescribed under section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls, both applicable to an audit of internal financial controls and both issued by the ICAI. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls with reference to financial statements was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

4. Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system with reference to financial statements and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls with reference to financial statements included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls with reference to financial statements, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditors' judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.
5. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained and the audit evidence obtained by the other auditors in terms of their reports referred to in the Other Matters paragraph below is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Holding Company's internal financial controls system with reference to consolidated financial statements.

MEANING OF INTERNAL FINANCIAL CONTROLS WITH REFERENCE TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

6. A company's internal financial control with reference to financial statements is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial control with reference to financial statements includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of consolidated financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorisations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorised acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the consolidated financial statements.

INHERENT LIMITATIONS OF INTERNAL FINANCIAL CONTROLS WITH REFERENCE TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

7. Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls with reference to financial statements, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls with reference to financial statements to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control with reference to financial statements may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

OPINION

8. In our opinion, the Holding Company, its subsidiary companies, its joint venture and associate, which are companies incorporated in India, have, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system with reference to financial statements and such internal financial controls with reference to financial statements were operating effectively as at March 31, 2022, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Holding Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.

OTHER MATTER

9. Our aforesaid reports under Section 143(3) (i) of the Act on the adequacy and operating effectiveness of the internal financial controls with reference to financial statements insofar as it relates to one subsidiary company and one associate, which are companies incorporated in India, is based on the corresponding reports of the auditors of such companies incorporated in India. Our opinion is not modified in respect of this matter.

NOTE 1: SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

This note provides a list of the significant accounting policies adopted in the preparation of these consolidated financial statements. These policies have been consistently applied to all the years presented, unless otherwise stated. The Consolidated Financial Statements (“consolidated financial statements” of the “financial statements”) relate to the Group and its interest in joint ventures.

1.1 BASIS OF PREPARATION OF FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

a) Compliance with Ind AS

The consolidated financial statements comply in all material aspects with Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) notified under Section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013 (the Act) [Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015], as amended, and other relevant provisions of the Act.

b) Historical cost convention

The financial statements have been prepared on the accrual and going concern basis. The financial statements have been prepared on a historical cost basis, except for the following items:

Items	Measurement basis
Certain financial assets and liabilities (including derivatives instruments)	Fair Value
Assets or disposal groups classified as held for sale	Fair value less cost to sell
Share based payments	Fair Value
Net defined benefit (asset)/ liability	Fair Value of plan assets less present value of defined benefit obligations

c) Current and non-current classification

All assets and liabilities have been classified as current or non-current as per the Group’s normal operating cycle (i.e. 12 months) and other criteria set out in Schedule III (Division II) to the Act.

d) Recent Accounting Pronouncements

i. New and amended standards adopted by the Group

The Group, its joint ventures and associates has applied the following amendments to Ind AS for the first time for their annual reporting period commencing 1 April 2021:

- Extension of COVID-19 related concessions – amendments to Ind AS 116
- Interest rate benchmark reform – amendments to Ind AS 109, Financial Instruments, Ind AS 107, Financial Instruments: Disclosures, Ind AS 104, Insurance Contracts and Ind AS 116, Leases.

The amendments listed above did not have any impact on the amounts recognised in prior periods and are not expected to significantly affect the current or future periods.

ii. New amendments issued but not effective

The Ministry of Corporate Affairs has vide notification dated 23 March 2022 notified Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Amendment Rules, 2022 which amends certain accounting standards, and are effective 1 April 2022. These amendments are not expected to have a material impact on the group in the current or future reporting periods and on foreseeable future transactions.

Below is a summary of such amendments:

Title	Key requirements
Ind AS 16, Property, Plant and Equipment	Proceeds before intended use of property, plant and equipment The amendment clarifies that an entity shall deduct from the cost of an item of property, plant and equipment any proceeds received from selling items produced while the entity is preparing the asset for its intended use (for example, the proceeds from selling samples produced when testing a machine to see if it is functioning properly)

Notes

Notes annexed to and forming part of the consolidated balance sheet as at March 31, 2022 and the consolidated statement of profit and loss for the year ended March 31, 2022

(All amounts in Rupees (Rs.) million, unless otherwise stated)

Title	Key requirements
Ind AS 37, Provisions, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets	Onerous Contracts - Cost of fulfilling a contract The amendment explains that the cost of fulfilling a contract comprises: the incremental costs of fulfilling that contract and an allocation of other costs that relate directly to fulfilling contracts
Ind AS 103, Business combinations	References to the conceptual framework The amendment adds a new exception in Ind AS 103 for liabilities and contingent liabilities.
Ind AS 109, Financial Instruments	Fees included in the 10% test for derecognition of financial liabilities The amendment clarifies which fees an entity includes when it applies the '10%' test in assessing whether to derecognise a financial liability. An entity includes only fees paid or received between the entity (the borrower) and the lender, including fees paid or received by either the entity or the lender on the other's behalf.
Ind AS 101, First time adoption	Subsidiary as a first-time adopter Simplifies the application of Ind AS 101 by a subsidiary that becomes a first-time adopter after its parent in relation to the measurement of cumulative translation differences.

iii. Reclassification consequent to amendment to Schedule III

The Ministry of Corporate Affairs amended the Schedule III to the Companies Act, 2013 on 24 March 2021 to increase the transparency and provide additional disclosures to users of financial statements. These amendments are effective from 1 April 2021. Consequent to above, the group has changed the classification/presentation of (i) current maturities of long-term borrowings (ii) security deposits, in the current year. The current maturities of long-term borrowings (including interest accrued) has now been included in the "Current borrowings"

line item. Previously, current maturities of long-term borrowings and interest accrued were included in 'other financial liabilities' line item. Further, security deposits (which meet the definition of a financial asset as per Ind AS 32) have been included in 'other financial assets' line item. Previously, these deposits were included in 'loans' line item. The group has reclassified comparative amounts to conform with current year presentation as per the requirements of Ind AS 1. Refer note no 56 of consolidated financial statements.

1.2 PRINCIPLES OF CONSOLIDATION AND EQUITY ACCOUNTING

a) Subsidiaries

Subsidiaries are all entities over which the Group has control. The Group controls an entity when the Group is exposed to, or has rights to, variable returns from its involvement with the entity and has the ability to affect those returns through its power to direct the relevant activities of the entity. In assessing control, potential voting rights that currently are exercisable are taken into account. The Group re-assesses whether or not it controls an investee if facts and circumstances indicate that there are changes to one or more of the three elements of control.

Subsidiaries are fully consolidated from the date on which control is transferred to the Group. They are deconsolidated from the date that control ceases.

The acquisition method of accounting is used to account for business combinations by the Group.

The Group combines the financial statements of the parent and its subsidiaries line by line adding together like items of assets, liabilities, equity, income and expenses. Intercompany transactions, balances and unrealised gains on transactions between Group companies are eliminated. Unrealised losses are also eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of an impairment of the transferred asset. Accounting policies of subsidiaries have been changed where necessary to ensure consistency with the policies adopted by the Group.

Non-controlling interests in the results and equity of subsidiaries are shown separately in the consolidated statement of profit and loss, consolidated statement of changes in equity and balance sheet respectively.

Notes annexed to and forming part of the consolidated balance sheet as at March 31, 2022 and the consolidated statement of profit and loss for the year ended March 31, 2022

Joint ventures

A joint venture is a type of joint arrangement whereby the parties that have joint control of the arrangement have rights to the net assets of the joint venture. Joint control is the contractually agreed sharing of control of an arrangement, which exists only when decisions about the relevant activities require unanimous consent of the parties sharing control. The financial statements of the joint venture are prepared for the same reporting period as the Group.

Interests in joint ventures are accounted for using the equity method (refer below), after initially being recognised at cost in the consolidated balance sheet.

c) Equity method

Under the equity method of accounting, the investments are initially recognised at cost and adjusted thereafter to recognise the Group's share of the post-acquisition profits or losses of the investee in profit and loss, and the Group's share of other comprehensive income of the investee in other comprehensive income. Dividends received or receivable from joint ventures are recognised as a reduction in the carrying amount of the investment.

When the Group's share of losses in an equity-accounted investment equals or exceeds its interest in the entity, including any other unsecured long-term receivables, the Group does not recognise further losses, unless it has incurred obligations or made payments on behalf of the other entity.

The statement of profit and loss reflects the Group's share of the results of operations of the joint venture. Any change in OCI of those investees is presented as part of the Group's OCI. In addition, when there has been a change recognised directly in the equity of the joint venture, the Group recognises its share of any changes, when applicable, in the statement of changes in equity.

Unrealised gains on transactions between the Group and its joint ventures are eliminated to the extent of the Group's interest in these entities. Unrealised losses are also eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of an impairment of the asset transferred. Accounting policies of equity accounted investees have been changed where necessary to ensure consistency with the policies adopted by the Group.

The carrying amounts of equity accounted investments are tested for impairment.

d) Change in Ownership Interest

The Group treats transactions with non-controlling interests that do not result in a loss of control as transactions with equity owners of the Group. A change in ownership interest results in an adjustment between the carrying amounts of the controlling and non-controlling interests to reflect their relative interests in the subsidiary. Any difference between the amount of the adjustment to non-controlling interests and any consideration paid or received is recognised within equity.

When the Group ceases to consolidate or equity account for an investment because of a loss of control, joint control, and any retained interest in the entity is remeasured to its fair value with the change in carrying amount recognised in profit or loss. This fair value becomes the initial carrying amount for the purposes of subsequently accounting for the retained interest as a joint venture or financial asset. In addition, any amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income in respect of that entity are accounted for as if the Group had directly disposed of the related assets or liabilities. This may mean that amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income are reclassified to profit or loss.

If the ownership interest in a joint venture is reduced but joint control is retained, only a proportionate share of the amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income are reclassified to profit or loss where appropriate.

1.3 FOREIGN CURRENCY TRANSLATIONS

a) Functional and presentation currency

Items included in the financial statements of each of the Group's entities are measured using the currency of the primary economic environment in which the entity operates (the "functional currency"). The consolidated financial statements are presented in Indian rupee (INR), which is Group's functional and presentation currency.

b) Transactions and balances

Notes

Notes annexed to and forming part of the consolidated balance sheet as at March 31, 2022 and the consolidated statement of profit and loss for the year ended March 31, 2022

(All amounts in Rupees (Rs.) million, unless otherwise stated)

at the dates of the transactions. Foreign exchange gains and losses resulting from the settlement of such transactions and from the translation of monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies at year end exchange rates are generally recognised in profit or loss.

Foreign exchange differences regarded as an adjustment to borrowing costs are presented in the statement of profit and loss, within finance costs. All other foreign exchange gains and losses are presented in the statement of profit and loss on a net basis within other expenses or other income, as applicable.

Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rates at the date of initial transaction.

Non-monetary items that are measured at fair value in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rates at the date when the fair value was determined. Translation differences on assets and liabilities carried at fair value are reported as part of the fair value gain or loss.

Translation differences on assets and liabilities carried at fair value are reported as part of the fair value gain or loss. For example: translation differences on non-monetary assets and liabilities such as equity instruments held at fair value through profit or loss are recognised in profit or loss as part of the fair value gain or loss and translation differences on non-monetary assets such as equity investments classified as FVOCI are recognised in other comprehensive income.

The Group has elected to apply the exemption from the transition date i.e. April 01, 2015 in respect of accounting policy followed for long term foreign currency monetary items. Accordingly, long term foreign currency monetary items in the financial statements have been accounted in accordance with the policy adopted under previous GAAP as given below:

- Foreign exchange differences on account of depreciable assets are adjusted in the cost of depreciable assets and depreciated over the balance life of the assets.
- In other cases, foreign exchange differences are accumulated in "Foreign Currency Monetary Item Translation Difference Account" and amortised over the balance period of such long term assets/ liabilities.

c) Group companies

The results and financial position of foreign operations that have a functional currency different from the presentation currency are translated into the presentation currency as follows:

- assets and liabilities are translated at the closing rate at the date of that balance sheet;
- income and expenses are translated at exchange rates prevailing at the dates of transactions. For practical reasons, the Group uses an average rate to translate income and expense items, if the average rate approximates the exchange rates at the dates of transactions; and
- All resulting exchange differences are recognised in other comprehensive income under head Foreign currency translation reserve (FCTR).

1.4 REVENUE RECOGNITION

a) Sale of goods

The Group derives revenue principally from sale of pipes.

The Group recognises revenue when it satisfies a performance obligation in accordance with the provisions of contract with the customer. This is achieved when control of the product has been transferred to the customer, which is generally determined when title, ownership, risk of obsolescence and loss pass to the customer and the Group has the present right to payment, all of which occurs at a point in time upon shipment or delivery of the product. The Group considers freight activities as costs to fulfil the promise to transfer the related products and the customer payments for freight costs are recorded as a component of revenue.

A receivable is recognised when the goods are delivered as this is the point in time that the consideration is unconditional because only the passage of time is required before the payment is due.

In certain customer contracts, freight services are treated as a distinct separate performance obligation and the Group recognises revenue

Notes

Notes annexed to and forming part of the consolidated balance sheet as at March 31, 2022 and the consolidated statement of profit and loss for the year ended March 31, 2022

(All amounts in Rupees (Rs.) million, unless otherwise stated)

for such services when the performance obligation is completed.

The Group considers the terms of the contract in determining the transaction price. The transaction price is based upon the amount the Group expects to be entitled to in exchange for transferring of promised goods and services to the customer after deducting incentive programs, included but not limited to discounts, volume rebates, etc.

Revenue is recognized at a determined transaction price when identified performance obligations are satisfied. The bill and hold contracts are entered at the request of the customer. Revenue from bill and hold contracts is recognised at the agreed transaction price (determined price). The price for bill and hold contracts is determined at the time of entering into the transaction and the performance obligation is satisfied when goods have been appropriated towards the sale transaction (the control of asset is transferred to the customer).

Revenue excludes any taxes and duties collected on behalf of the government.

b) Sale of services

The Group also provides freight services to its customers.

Revenue from providing freight services is recognised in the accounting period in which the services are rendered.

The related freight costs incurred are included in freight expenses when the Group is acting as principal in the freight arrangement.

Freight services may be considered a separate performance obligation if control of the goods transfers to the customer before goods reach to the agreed place of shipment, but the entity has promised to ship the goods (or arrange for the goods to be shipped). In contrast, if control of a good does not transfer to the customer before goods reach to the agreed place of shipment, freight service is not a promised service to the customer. This is because freight service is a fulfillment activity as the costs are incurred as part of transferring the goods to the customer.

The Group does not have any contracts where in the period between the transfer of the promised goods or services to the customer and payment by the customer exceeds one year. As a consequence, the Group does not adjust any of the transaction prices for the time value of money.

1.5 CONTRACT ASSETS AND CONTRACT LIABILITIES

When the Group performs a service or transfers a good in advance of receiving consideration, it recognises a contract asset or receivable.

A contract asset is a Group's right to consideration in exchange for goods or services that the Group has transferred to a customer. If the Group transfers control of goods or services to a customer before the customer pays consideration, the Group records a contract asset when the nature of the Group's right to consideration for its performance is other than passage of time. A contract asset will be classified as a receivable when the Group's right to consideration is unconditional (that is, when payment is due only on the passage of time). The Group shall assess a contract asset for impairment in accordance with Ind AS 109. Impairment of a contract asset is measured, presented and disclosed on similar basis as other financial asset in nature of trade receivable within the scope of Ind AS 109. The Group discloses contract assets under "Other Assets".

The Group recognises a contract liability if the customer's payment of consideration precedes the Group's performance. A contract liability is recognised if the Group receives consideration (or if it has the unconditional right to receive consideration) in advance of performance. The Group discloses contract liabilities under "Other Liabilities".

1.6 SEGMENT REPORTING

The board of directors of the Company assess the financial performance and position of the Group, and makes strategic decisions. The chief operating decision makers are board of directors of the Company. Operating segments are reported in a manner consistent with the internal reporting provided to the chief operating decision maker (refer note 48).

1.7 GOVERNMENT GRANTS

Grants from the government are recognised at their fair value where there is a reasonable assurance that the grant will be received and the Group will comply with all attached conditions.

Notes

Notes annexed to and forming part of the consolidated balance sheet as at March 31, 2022 and the consolidated statement of profit and loss for the year ended March 31, 2022

(All amounts in Rupees (Rs.) million, unless otherwise stated)

Export incentives and subsidies are recognized when there is reasonable assurance that the Group will comply with the conditions and the incentive will be received.

Grants related to assets are government grants whose primary condition is that an entity qualifying for them should purchase, construct or otherwise acquire long-term assets. Grants related to income are government grants other than those related to assets.

Government grants relating to income are deferred and recognised in the profit or loss over the period necessary to match them with the costs that they are intended to compensate and presented either under "other operating revenue" or are deducted in reporting the related expense. The presentation approach is applied consistently to all similar grants.

Government grants relating to the purchase of property, plant and equipment are included in liabilities as "Government grants" and are credited to profit or loss on a straight-line basis over the expected lives of the related assets and presented within "Other operating revenue". In case of disposal of such property, plant and equipment, related government grants included in the liabilities are written back and charged to the statement of profit and loss.

1.8 INCOME TAX, DEFERRED TAX AND DIVIDEND DISTRIBUTION TAX

The Income tax expense or credit for the year is the tax payable on the current year's taxable income based on the applicable income tax rate for each jurisdiction adjusted by changes in deferred tax assets and liabilities attributable to temporary differences and to unused tax losses.

Current and deferred tax is recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss except to the extent it relates to items recognised directly in equity or other comprehensive income, in which case it is recognised in equity or other comprehensive income respectively.

a) Current income tax

Current tax charge is based on taxable profit for the year. The tax rates and tax laws used to compute the amount are those that are enacted or substantively enacted, at the reporting date in the countries where the Group operates and generates taxable income. Management periodically evaluates positions taken in tax returns with respect to situations in which applicable tax regulation is subject to interpretation. It establishes provisions where appropriate on the basis of amounts expected to be paid to the tax authorities.

Current tax assets and tax liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to set off current tax assets against current tax liabilities and Group intends either to settle on a net basis, or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

b) Deferred tax

Deferred tax is provided using the liability method on temporary differences arising between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts in the consolidated financial statements. Such deferred tax assets and liabilities are computed separately for each taxable entity and for each taxable jurisdiction. However, deferred tax liabilities are not recognized if they arise from the initial recognition of goodwill. Deferred tax is determined using tax rates that have been enacted or substantially enacted by the end of the reporting period and are expected to apply when the related deferred tax assets is realized or deferred tax liability is settled.

Deferred tax are recognised for all deductible temporary difference and unused tax losses only if it is probable that future taxable amounts will be available to utilise those temporary differences and losses.

Deferred income tax is not accounted for if it arises from initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction other than a business combination that at the time of the transaction affects neither accounting profit nor taxable profit (tax loss).

Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for taxable temporary differences arising on investments in subsidiaries and interests in jointly controlled entities, except where the Group is able to control the reversal of the temporary difference and it is probable that the temporary difference will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

Deferred tax assets are not recognised for temporary differences between the carrying amount and tax bases of investments in subsidiaries

Notes

Notes annexed to and forming part of the consolidated balance sheet as at March 31, 2022 and the consolidated statement of profit and loss for the year ended March 31, 2022

(All amounts in Rupees (Rs.) million, unless otherwise stated)

and associates and interest in joint arrangements where it is not probable that the differences will reverse in the foreseeable future and taxable profit will not be available against which the temporary difference can be utilised.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at each reporting date and adjusted to reflect changes in probability that sufficient taxable profits will be available to allow all or part of the asset to be recovered.

Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are off-set against each other and the resultant net amount is presented in the Balance Sheet, if and only when, (a) the Group has a legally enforceable right to set-off the current income tax assets and liabilities, and (b) the Deferred income tax assets and liabilities relate to income tax levied by the same taxation authority.

Current and deferred tax is recognised in profit or loss, except to the extent that it relates to items recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity. In this case, the tax is also recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, respectively.

c) Dividend distribution tax

Dividend distribution tax paid on the dividends is recognised consistently with the presentation of the transaction that creates the income tax consequence. Dividend distribution tax is charged to Statement of Profit and Loss if the dividend itself is charged to statement of profit and loss. If the dividend is recognised in equity, the presentation of dividend distribution tax is recognised in equity.

1.9 LEASES

a) As a lessee

The Group leases various leasehold lands, buildings, vehicles, Plant & machinery and office and other equipments. Rental contracts are typically made for fixed periods of one to ninety-nine years but may have extension options as described in note 3(b). Lease terms are negotiated on an individual basis and contain a wide range of different terms and conditions. The lease agreements do not impose any covenants, but leased assets may not be used as security for borrowing purposes.

Based on the notification released by MCA, Ind AS 116 has been made applicable w.e.f April 01, 2019. From April 01, 2019, leases are recognized as a right-of-use assets and a corresponding lease liability at the date at which the leased assets is available for the use by the Group.

Assets and liabilities arising from a lease are initially measured on a present value basis. Lease liabilities include the net present value of the following lease payments, as applicable:

- fixed payments (including in-substance fixed payments), less any lease incentives receivable.
- variable lease payment that are based on an index or a rate, initially measured using the index or rate as at the commencement date.
- amounts expected to be payable by the Group under residual value guarantees.
- the exercise price of a purchase option if the lessee is reasonably certain to exercise that option, and
- payments of penalties for terminating the lease, if the lease term reflects the lessee exercising that option.

Lease payments to be made under reasonably certain extension options are also included in the measurement of the liability. The lease payments are discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease. If that rate cannot be readily determined, the lessee's incremental borrowing rate is used, being the rate that the lessee would have to pay to borrow the funds necessary to obtain an asset of similar value to the right-of-use asset in a similar economic environment with similar terms, security and conditions.

Lease payments are allocated between principal and finance cost. The finance cost is charged to profit or loss over the lease period so as to produce a constant periodic rate of interest on the remaining balance of the liability for each period.

Right-of-use assets are measured at cost comprising the following, wherever applicable:

- the amount of the initial measurement of lease liability
- any lease payments made at or before the commencement date less any lease incentives received
- any initial direct costs, and
- restoration costs.

Notes

Notes annexed to and forming part of the consolidated balance sheet as at March 31, 2022 and the consolidated statement of profit and loss for the year ended March 31, 2022

(All amounts in Rupees (Rs.) million, unless otherwise stated)

Right-of-use assets are generally depreciated over the shorter of the asset's useful life and the lease term (including extension considering reasonable certainty), on a straight-line basis. If the Group is reasonably certain to exercise a purchase option, the right-of-use asset is depreciated over the underlying asset's useful life.

Payments associated with short-term leases of equipment and all leases of low-value assets are recognised on a straight-line basis as an expense in profit or loss. Short-term leases are leases with a lease term of 12 months or less. Low-value assets and short term lease assets comprises of dumpsite land, laptops and other office equipments.

b) As a lessor

Lease income from operating leases where the Group is a lessor is recognised in income on a straight-line basis over the lease term. Initial direct cost incurred in obtaining an operating lease are added to the carrying amount of the underlying asset and recognised as expense over the lease term on the same basis as lease income. The respective leased assets are included in the balance sheet based on their nature. The Group did not need to make any adjustments to the accounting for assets held as lessor as a result of adopting the new leasing standard.

1.10 PROPERTY, PLANT AND EQUIPMENT

Freehold land is carried at historical cost. All other items of property, plant and equipment are stated at historical cost less depreciation. Historical cost includes expenditure that is directly attributable to the acquisition of the items.

Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognised as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Group and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. The carrying amount of any component accounted for as a separate asset is derecognised when replaced. All other repairs and maintenance are charged to profit or loss during the reporting period in which they are incurred.

Cost of Capital Work-in-Progress ('CWIP') comprises amount paid towards acquisition of property, plant and equipment outstanding as of each balance sheet date and construction expenditures, other expenditures necessary for the purpose of preparing the CWIP for its intended use and borrowing cost incurred before the qualifying asset is ready for intended use. CWIP is not depreciated until such time as the relevant asset is completed and ready for its intended use.

Depreciation methods, estimated useful lives and residual value

Freehold land is not depreciated. Leasehold improvements are amortised over the shorter of estimated useful life or the related lease term. Depreciation is calculated using the straight-line method to allocate their cost, net of their residual values, over their estimated useful lives as follows:

Assets	Estimated Useful Lives (in years)
Buildings
Building and improvements	Ranging between 15 to 39 years
Residential and other buildings	60
Road, fencing, etc.	Ranging between 3 to 15 years
Office and other equipments
Office equipment	Ranging between 3 to 10 years
Computer	3 years except Networking equipment's which are depreciated over useful life of 5 years
Vehicles	Ranging between 5 to 10 years
Furniture and fixtures	Ranging between 5 to 10 years

These estimated useful lives are in accordance with those prescribed under Schedule II to the Companies Act, 2013 except in respect of plant and machinery wherein the estimated useful lives are different than those under Schedule II to the Companies Act, 2013 based on a technical evaluation done by the Management.

Plant and machinery is depreciated on straight line method over the useful life ranging between 2 years to 40 years which is different than the life prescribed under Schedule II to the Companies Act, 2013 in order to reflect the actual usage of the assets. The estimated useful lives of plant and machinery has been determined based on internal technical advice which considers the nature of the asset, the usage of the asset, expected physical wear and tear, the operating conditions of the asset, anticipated technological changes, etc.

The residual values are not more than 5% of the original cost of the asset.

An asset's carrying amount is written down immediately to its recoverable amount if the asset's carrying amount is greater than its estimated recoverable amount.

Estimated useful lives, residual values and depreciation methods are reviewed annually, taking into account commercial and technological obsolescence as well as normal wear and tear and adjusted prospectively, if appropriate.

Gains and losses on disposals are determined by comparing proceeds with carrying amount. These are included in profit or loss within other income or other expenses, as applicable.

1.11 INVESTMENT PROPERTIES

Property that is held for long-term rental yields or for capital appreciation or both, and that is not occupied by the Group, is classified as Investment property. Investment property is measured initially at its cost, including related transaction costs and where applicable borrowing costs. Subsequent expenditure is capitalised to the asset's carrying amount only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the expenditure will flow to the Group and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. All other repairs and maintenance costs are expensed when incurred. When part of an investment property is replaced, the carrying amount of the replaced part is derecognised.

Investment properties (except freehold land) are depreciated using the straight-line method over their estimated useful lives over a period of thirty years. These estimated useful lives are in accordance with those prescribed under Schedule II to the Companies Act, 2013.

1.12 INTANGIBLE ASSETS

a) Goodwill on consolidation:

Goodwill on acquisitions of subsidiaries is shown separately. Goodwill is not amortised but it is tested for impairment annually, or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate that it might be impaired, and is carried at cost less accumulated impairment losses. Gains and losses on the disposal of an entity include the carrying amount of goodwill relating to the entity sold.

Goodwill is allocated to cash-generating units for the purpose of impairment testing. The allocation is made to those cash-generating units or groups of cash-generating units that are expected to benefit from the business combination in which the goodwill arise. The units or groups of units are identified at the lowest level at which goodwill is monitored for internal management purposes, which in our case are the operating segments.

b) Other intangible assets

Other intangible assets with finite useful lives acquired by the Group are measured at cost less accumulated amortisation and accumulated impairment losses. Amortisation is charged on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful lives. The estimated useful life and amortisation method are reviewed at the end of each annual reporting period, with the effect of any changes in the estimate being accounted for on a prospective basis.

c) Amortisation methods and periods

Other intangible assets comprise of computer software which is amortised on a straight-line basis over its expected useful life over a period of three to five years which is based on a technical evaluation done by the Management.

Intangible Asset under Development comprises amount paid towards acquisition/ development of Intangible Assets outstanding as of each balance sheet date and acquisition expenditures, other expenditures necessary for the purpose of preparing the Intangible Asset for its intended use. Intangible Assets under Development is not amortised until such time as the relevant asset is completed and ready for its intended use.

1.13 NON-CURRENT ASSETS (OR DISPOSAL GROUPS) HELD FOR SALE AND DISCONTINUED OPERATIONS

Non-current assets (or disposal groups) are classified as held for sale if their carrying amount will be recovered principally through a sale transaction rather than through continuing use and a sale is considered highly probable. They are measured at the lower of their carrying amount and fair value less costs to sell, except for assets

Notes

Notes annexed to and forming part of the consolidated balance sheet as at March 31, 2022 and the consolidated statement of profit and loss for the year ended March 31, 2022

(All amounts in Rupees (Rs.) million, unless otherwise stated)

such as deferred tax assets, assets arising from employee benefits, financial assets, which are specifically exempt from this requirement.

An impairment loss is recognised for any initial or subsequent write-down of the asset (or disposal groups) to fair value less costs to sell. A gain is recognised for any subsequent increases in fair value less costs to sell of an asset (or disposal groups), but not in excess of any cumulative impairment loss previously recognised. A gain or loss not previously recognised by the date of the sale of the non-current asset (or disposal groups) is recognised at the date of de-recognition.

Non-current assets (including those that are part of disposal groups) are not depreciated or amortised while they are classified as held for sale. Interest and other expenses attributable to liabilities of disposal groups classified as held for sale continue to be recognized.

Non-current assets classified as held for sale and the assets of disposal groups classified as held for sale are presented separately from the other assets in the balance sheet. The liabilities of disposal groups classified as held for sale are presented separately from other liabilities in the balance sheet.

A discontinued operation is a component of the entity that has been disposed of or is classified as held for sale and that represents a separate major line of business or geographical area of operations, is part of a single co-ordinated plan to dispose of such a line of business or are of operations, or is a subsidiary acquired exclusively with a view to resale. The results of discontinued operations are presented separately in the statement of profit and loss.

1.14 IMPAIRMENT OF ASSETS

Goodwill and intangible assets that have an indefinite useful life are not subject to amortisation and are tested annually for impairment, or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate that they might be impaired. Other assets are tested for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. An impairment loss is recognised for the amount by which the asset's carrying amount exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's fair value less costs of disposal and value in use. For the purposes of assessing impairment, assets are grouped at the lowest levels for which there are separately identifiable cash inflows which are largely independent of the cash inflows from other assets or groups of assets (cash-generating units).

Non-financial assets other than goodwill that suffered impairment are reviewed for possible reversal of the impairment at the end of each reporting period.

1.15 INVENTORIES

Raw materials, stores and spares, work in progress, traded goods and finished goods

Raw materials, stores and spares, work in progress, traded goods and finished goods are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Cost of raw materials and traded goods comprises cost of purchases on moving weighted average basis. Cost of work-in progress and finished goods comprises direct materials, direct labour and an appropriate proportion of variable and fixed overhead expenditure, the latter being allocated on the basis of normal operating capacity. Cost of inventories also includes all other costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition. Costs are assigned to individual items of inventory moving weighted average basis. Costs of purchased inventory are determined after deducting rebates and discounts. Net realisable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business less the estimated costs of completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

1.16 INVESTMENT IN JOINT VENTURES

Investment in joint ventures is carried at cost in the separate financial statements.

1.17 FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

A financial instrument is any contract that gives rise to a financial asset of one entity and a financial liability or equity instrument of another entity.

a) Financial assets

(I) Classification

The Group classifies its financial assets in the following measurement categories:

- those to be measured subsequently at fair value (either through other comprehensive income, or through profit or loss); and
- those measured at amortised cost.

Notes

Notes annexed to and forming part of the consolidated balance sheet as at March 31, 2022 and the consolidated statement of profit and loss for the year ended March 31, 2022

(All amounts in Rupees (Rs.) million, unless otherwise stated)

The classification depends on the entity's business model for managing the financial assets and the contractual terms of the cash flows.

For assets measured at fair value, gains and losses will either be recorded in profit or loss or other comprehensive income.

For investments in debt instruments, this will depend on the business model in which the investment is held.

For investments in equity instruments, this will depend on whether the Group has made an irrevocable election at the time of initial recognition to account for the equity investment at fair value through other comprehensive income.

The Group reclassifies debt investments when and only when its business model for managing those assets changes.

(II) Measurement

At initial recognition, the Group measures a financial asset at its fair value plus, in the case of a financial asset not at fair value through profit or loss, transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition of the financial asset. Transaction costs of financial assets carried at fair value through profit or loss are expensed in profit or loss.

(i) Debt instruments

Subsequent measurement of debt instruments depends on the Group's business model for managing the asset and the cash flow characteristics of the asset. There are three measurement categories into which the Group classifies its debt instruments:

- Amortised cost: Assets that are held for collection of contractual cash flows where those cash flows represent solely payments of principal and interest are measured at amortised cost. A gain or loss on a debt investment that is subsequently measured at amortised cost and is not part of a hedging relationship is recognised in profit or loss when the asset is derecognised or impaired. Interest income from these financial assets is included in finance income using the effective interest rate method.
- Fair value through other comprehensive income (FVOCI): Assets that are held for collection of contractual cash flows and for selling the financial assets, where the assets' cash flows represent solely payments of principal and interest, are measured at fair value through other comprehensive income (FVOCI). Movements in the carrying amount are taken through OCI, except for the recognition of impairment gains or losses, interest income and foreign exchange gains and losses which are recognised in profit and loss. When the financial asset is derecognised, the cumulative gain or loss previously recognised in OCI is reclassified from equity to profit or loss and recognised in other gains/ (losses). Interest income from these financial assets is included in other income using the effective interest rate method.

- Fair value through profit or loss (FVTPL): Assets that do not meet the criteria for amortised cost or FVOCI are measured at fair value through profit or loss. A gain or loss on a debt investment that is subsequently measured at fair value through profit or loss and is not part of a hedging relationship is recognised in profit or loss and presented net in the statement of profit and loss within other income or other expenses (as applicable) in the period in which it arises. Interest income from these financial assets is included in other income.

(ii) Equity instruments

The Group subsequently measures all equity investments at fair value. Where the Group's management has elected to present fair value gains and losses on equity investments in other comprehensive income, there is no subsequent reclassification of fair value gains and losses to profit or loss. Dividends from such investments are recognised in profit or loss as other income when the Group's right to receive payments is established.

Changes in the fair value of financial assets at fair value through profit or loss are recognised in the statement of profit and loss. Impairment losses (and reversal of impairment losses) on equity investments measured at FVOCI are not reported separately from other changes in fair value.

(III) Impairment of financial assets

The Group assesses on a forward looking basis the expected credit losses associated with its

Notes

Notes annexed to and forming part of the consolidated balance sheet as at March 31, 2022 and the consolidated statement of profit and loss for the year ended March 31, 2022

(All amounts in Rupees (Rs.) million, unless otherwise stated)

assets carried at amortised cost and FVOCI debt instruments. The impairment methodology applied depends on whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk.

For trade receivables only, the Group applies the simplified approach permitted by Ind AS 109 Financial Instruments, which requires expected lifetime losses to be recognised from initial recognition of the receivables.

(IV) Derecognition of financial assets

A financial asset is derecognised only when

- The Group has transferred the rights to receive cash flows from the financial asset or

Where the entity has transferred an asset, the Group evaluates whether it has transferred substantially all risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset. In such cases, the financial asset is derecognised. Where the entity has not transferred substantially all risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset, the financial asset is not derecognised.

Where the entity has neither transferred a financial asset nor retains substantially all risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset, the financial asset is derecognised if the Group has not retained control of the financial asset. Where the Group retains control of the financial asset, the asset is continued to be recognised to the extent of continuing involvement in the financial asset.

(V) Income recognition

(i) Interest income

Interest income from a financial assets is recognized when it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Group and the amount of income can be measured reliably. Interest income is accrued on time basis by reference to principal outstanding and the effective interest rate applicable which is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash receipts through the expected life of the financial asset to the gross carrying amount of a financial asset. When calculating the effective interest rate, the Group estimates the expected cash flows by considering all the contractual terms of the financial instrument (for example, prepayment, extension, call and similar options) but does not consider the expected credit losses.

(ii) Dividend income

Dividend income is recognised in profit or loss only when the right to receive payment is established, it is probable that the economic benefits associated with the dividend will flow to the Group, and the amount of the dividend can be measured reliably.

(iii) Export benefits

In case of sale made by the Group as Support Manufacturer, export benefits arising from Duty Entitlement Pass Book (DEPB), Duty Drawback scheme and Merchandise Export Incentive Scheme (MEIS) are recognised on export of such goods in accordance with the agreed terms and conditions with customers. In case of direct exports made by the Group, export benefits arising from DEPB, Duty Drawback scheme and Merchandise Export Incentive Scheme are recognised on shipment of direct exports.

(VI) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents includes cash in hand, deposits held at call with banks, other short term highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

For the purpose of the statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents is as defined above, net of outstanding bank overdrafts. In the balance sheet, bank overdrafts are shown within borrowings in current liabilities.

(VII) Trade receivables

Trade Receivables are amounts due from customers for goods sold or services performed in the ordinary course of business. Trade receivables are recognised initially at the amount of consideration that is unconditional unless they contain significant financing components, when they are recognised at fair value. The Group holds the trade receivables with the objective to collect the contractual cash flows and therefore measures them subsequently at amortised cost using the effective interest method, less loss allowance.

b) Financial liabilities

(I) Measurement

Financial liabilities are initially recognised at fair value, reduced by transaction (in case of financial

Notes

Notes annexed to and forming part of the consolidated balance sheet as at March 31, 2022 and the consolidated statement of profit and loss for the year ended March 31, 2022

(All amounts in Rupees (Rs.) million, unless otherwise stated)

liability not at fair value through profit or loss), that are directly attributable to the issue of financial liability. After initial recognition, financial liabilities are measured at amortised cost using effective interest method. The effective interest rate is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash outflow (including all fees paid, transaction cost, and other premiums or discounts) through the expected life of the financial liability, or, where appropriate, a shorter period, to the net carrying amount on initial recognition. At the time of initial recognition, there is no financial liability irrevocably designated as measured at fair value through profit or loss. Liabilities from finance lease agreements are measured at the lower of fair value of the leased asset or present value of minimum lease payments.

(II) Derecognition

A financial liability is derecognised when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled or expires. When an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms, or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as the de-recognition of the original liability and the recognition of a new liability. The difference in the respective carrying amounts is recognised in the statement of profit or loss.

(III) Borrowings

Borrowings are initially recognised at fair value, net of transaction costs incurred. Borrowings are subsequently measured at amortised cost. Any difference between the proceeds (net of transaction costs) and the redemption amount is recognised in profit or loss over the period of the borrowings using the effective interest method.

Fees paid on the establishment of loan facilities are recognised as transaction costs of the loan to the extent that it is probable that some or all of the facility will be drawn down. In this case, the fee is deferred until the draw down occurs. To the extent there is no evidence that it is probable that some or all of the facility will be drawn down, the fee is capitalised as a prepayment for liquidity services and amortised over the period of the facility to which it relates.

Borrowings are removed from the balance sheet when the obligation specified in the contract is discharged, cancelled or expired. The difference between the carrying amount of a financial liability that has been extinguished or transferred to another party and the consideration paid, including any non-cash assets transferred or liabilities assumed, is recognised in Statement of profit or loss as other income or other expenses (as applicable).

Where the terms of a financial liability are renegotiated and the entity issues equity instruments to a creditor to extinguish all or part of the liability (debt for equity swap), a gain or loss is recognised in profit or loss, which is measured as the difference between the carrying amount of the financial liability and the fair value of the equity instruments issued.

Where there is a breach of a material provision of a long-term loan arrangement on or before the end of the reporting period with the effect that the liability becomes payable on demand on the reporting date, the entity does not classify the liability as current, if the lender agreed, after the reporting period and before the approval of the financial statements for issue, not to demand payment as a consequence of the breach.

(IV) Trade and other payables

These amounts represent liabilities for goods and services provided to the Group prior to the end of financial year which are unpaid. Trade and other payables are recognised initially at, their fair value, and subsequently measured at amortised cost using effective interest rate method.

Trade payables includes acceptances arrangements where operational suppliers of goods are paid by Banks while Group continues to recognise the liability till settlement with the Banks.

a) Financial guarantee contracts

Financial guarantee contracts are recognized as a financial liability at the time the guarantee is issued. The liability is initially measured at fair value and subsequently at the higher of the amount determined in accordance with Ind AS 37 and amount initially recognized less cumulative amortization, where appropriate. The fair value of guarantee is determined as at the present value of difference in net cash flows between the contractual payments under the debt instrument and the payment that would be required without the guarantee, or the estimated amount that would be payable to a third party for assuming the obligation. Where guarantee in relation to loan or other payables of group companies are provided for no consideration, the fair values are accounted for as contributions and recognized as part of the cost of investment.

Notes

Notes annexed to and forming part of the consolidated balance sheet as at March 31, 2022 and the consolidated statement of profit and loss for the year ended March 31, 2022

(All amounts in Rupees (Rs.) million, unless otherwise stated)

b) Derivatives and hedging activities

In order to hedge its exposure to foreign exchange and interest rate, the Group enters into forward and interest rate swap contracts and other derivative financial instruments. The Group does not hold derivative financial instruments for speculative purposes.

Derivatives are initially recognised at fair value on the date a derivative contract is entered into and are subsequently re-measured to their fair value at the end of each reporting period.

The accounting for subsequent changes in fair value depends on whether the derivative is designated as a hedging instrument, and if so, the nature of the item being hedged and the type of hedge relationship designated.

The Group designates their derivatives as hedges of foreign exchange risk associated with the cash flows of highly probable forecast transactions and variable interest rate risk associated with borrowings (cash flow hedges).

The Group documents at the inception of the hedging transaction the economic relationship between hedging instruments and hedged items including whether the hedging instrument is expected to offset changes in cash flows of hedged items. The Group documents its risk management objective and strategy for undertaking various hedge transactions at the inception of each hedge relationship.

The full fair value of a hedging derivative is classified as a non-current asset or liability when the remaining maturity of the hedged item is more than 12 months; it is classified as a current asset or liability when the remaining maturity of the hedged item is less than 12 months.

(I) Cash flow hedges that qualify for hedge accounting

The effective portion of changes in the fair value of derivatives that are designated and qualify as cash flow hedges is recognised in the other comprehensive income in cash flow hedging reserve within equity, limited to the cumulative change in fair value of the hedged item on a present value basis from the inception of the hedge. The gain or loss relating to the ineffective portion is recognised immediately in profit or loss, within other income or other expenses (as applicable).

When forward contracts are used to hedge forecast transactions, the Group generally designates the full change in fair value of the forward contract (including forward points) as the hedging instrument. In such cases, the gains and losses relating to the effective portion of the change in fair value of the entire forward contract are recognised in the cash flow hedging reserve within equity.

Amounts accumulated in equity are reclassified to profit or loss in the periods when the hedged item affects profit or loss.

When a hedging instrument expires, or is sold or terminated, or when a hedge no longer meets the criteria for hedge accounting, any cumulative deferred gain or loss in equity at that time remains in equity until the forecast transaction occurs. When the forecast transaction is no longer expected to occur, the cumulative gain or loss that was reported in equity is immediately reclassified to profit or loss within other income or other expenses (as applicable). If the hedge ratio for risk management purposes is no longer optimal but the risk management objective remains unchanged and the hedge continues to qualify for hedge accounting, the hedge relationship will be rebalanced by adjusting either the volume of the hedging instrument or the volume of the hedged item so that the hedge ratio aligns with the ratio used for risk management purposes. Any hedge ineffectiveness is calculated and accounted for in profit or loss at the time of the hedge relationship rebalancing.

(II) Derivatives that are not designated as hedges

The Group enters into certain derivative contracts to hedge risks which are not designated as hedges. Such contracts are accounted for at fair value through profit or loss and are included in other income or other expenses (as applicable).

c) Embedded derivatives

Derivatives embedded in a host contract that is an asset within the scope of Ind AS 109 are not separated. Financial assets with embedded derivatives are considered in their entirety when determining whether their cash flows are solely payment of principal and interest.

Notes

Notes annexed to and forming part of the consolidated balance sheet as at March 31, 2022 and the consolidated statement of profit and loss for the year ended March 31, 2022

(All amounts in Rupees (Rs.) million, unless otherwise stated)

Derivatives embedded in all other host contract are separated only if the economic characteristics and risks of the embedded derivative are not closely related to the economic characteristics and risks of the host and are measured at fair value through profit or loss. Embedded derivatives closely related to the host contracts are not separated.

d) Embedded foreign currency derivatives

Embedded foreign currency derivatives are not separated from the host contract if they are closely related. Such embedded derivatives are closely related to the host contract, if the host contract is not leveraged, does not contain any option feature and requires payments in one of the following currencies:

- the functional currency of any substantial party to that contract;
- the currency in which the price of the related good or service that is acquired or delivered is routinely denominated in commercial transactions around the world; and
- a currency that is commonly used in contracts to purchase or sell non-financial items in the economic environment in which the transaction takes place (i.e. relatively liquid and stable currency)

Foreign currency embedded derivatives which do not meet the above criteria are separated and the derivative is accounted for at fair value through profit and loss. The Group currently does not have any such derivatives which are not closely related.

1.18 BORROWING COSTS

General and specific borrowing costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of a qualifying asset are capitalised during the period of time that is required to complete and prepare the asset for its intended use or sale. Qualifying assets are assets that necessarily take a substantial period of time to get ready for their intended use or sale. Investment income earned on the temporary investment of specific borrowings pending their expenditure on qualifying assets is deducted from the borrowing costs eligible for capitalisation. Other borrowing costs are expensed in the period in which they are incurred.

1.19 EMPLOYEE BENEFITS

a) Short-term obligations

Liabilities for wages and salaries, including non-monetary benefits that are expected to be settled wholly within 12 months after the end of the period in which the employees render the related service are recognised in respect of employees' services up to the end of the reporting period and are measured at the amounts expected to be paid when the liabilities are settled. The liabilities are presented as current employee benefit obligations in the balance sheet.

b) Other long-term employee benefit obligations

The liabilities for earned leave are not expected to be settled wholly within 12 months after the end of the period in which the employees render the related service. They are therefore measured as the present value of expected future payments to be made in respect of services provided by employees up to the end of the reporting period using the projected unit credit method. The benefits are discounted using the market yields at the end of the reporting period that have terms approximating to the terms of the related obligation. Remeasurements as a result of experience adjustments and changes in actuarial assumptions are recognised in profit or loss.

The obligations are presented as current liabilities in the balance sheet if the entity does not have an unconditional right to defer settlement for at least twelve months after the reporting period, regardless of when the actual settlement is expected to occur.

c) Post-employment obligations

The Group operates the following post-employment schemes:

- defined benefit plans such as gratuity; and
- defined contribution plans such as provident fund and superannuation fund.

(I) Defined Benefit Plans

Gratuity obligations

The liability or asset recognised in the balance sheet in respect of defined benefit gratuity plans is the present value of the defined benefit obligation at the end of the reporting period less the fair value of plan assets. The defined benefit obligation is calculated annually by actuaries using the projected unit credit method.

Notes

Notes annexed to and forming part of the consolidated balance sheet as at March 31, 2022 and the consolidated statement of profit and loss for the year ended March 31, 2022

(All amounts in Rupees (Rs.) million, unless otherwise stated)

The present value of the defined benefit obligation denominated in INR is determined by discounting the estimated future cash outflows by reference to market yields at the end of the reporting period on government bonds that have terms approximating to the terms of the related obligation.

The net interest cost is calculated by applying the discount rate to the net balance of the defined benefit obligation and the fair value of plan assets. This cost is included in employee benefit expense in the statement of profit and loss.

Remeasurement gains and losses arising from experience adjustments and changes in actuarial assumptions are recognised in the period in which they occur, directly in other comprehensive income. They are included in retained earnings in the statement of changes in equity and in the balance sheet. Remeasurements are not reclassified to profit and loss in the subsequent periods.

Changes in the present value of the defined benefit obligation resulting from plan amendments or curtailments are recognised immediately in profit or loss as past service cost.

(II) Defined contribution plans

(i) Provident Fund, Employee State Insurance Corporation (ESIC), Pension Fund and other Social Security Funds

The Contribution towards provident fund, ESIC, Pension fund and other Social Security Funds for certain employees is made to the regulatory authorities where the Group has no further obligations. Such benefits are classified as Defined Contribution Schemes as the Group does not carry any further obligations apart from the contributions made on a monthly basis.

(ii) Superannuation Fund

Contribution towards superannuation fund for certain employees is made to SBI Life Insurance Group where the Group has no further obligations. Such benefits are classified as Defined Contribution Schemes as the Group does not carry any further obligations, apart from contribution made on monthly basis.

d) Bonus Plan

The Group recognises a liability and an expense for bonuses. The Group recognises a provision where contractually obliged or where there is a past practice that has created a constructive obligation.

e) Equity-settled share-based payments (ESOP)

Equity-settled share-based payments to employees are measured at the fair value of the options at the grant date.

The fair value of option at the grant date is expensed over the vesting period with a corresponding increase in equity as "Equity settled share based payments". In case of forfeiture of unvested option, portion of amount already expensed is reversed. In a situation where the vested option forfeited or expires unexercised, the related balance standing to the credit of the "Equity settled share based payments" are transferred to the "Retained Earnings".

When the options are exercised, the Company issues new equity shares of the Company of ₹ 5 each fully paid-up. The proceeds received and the related balance standing to credit of the Equity settled share based payments, are credited to share capital (nominal value) and Securities Premium.

1.20 PROVISIONS, CONTINGENT LIABILITIES AND CONTINGENT ASSETS

a) Provisions

Provisions for legal claims are recognised when the Group has a present legal or constructive obligation as a result of past events, it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation and the amount can be reliably estimated. Provisions are not recognised for future operating losses.

Where there are a number of similar obligations, the likelihood that an outflow will be required in settlement is determined by considering the class of obligations as a whole. A provision is recognised even if the likelihood of an outflow with respect to any one item included in the same class of obligations may be small. Provisions are measured at the present value of management's best estimate of the expenditure required to settle the present obligation at the end of the reporting period. The discount rate used to determine the present value is a pre-tax rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the liability. The increase in the provision due to the passage of time is recognised as interest expense.

The measurement of provision for restructuring includes only direct expenditures arising from the restructuring, which are both necessarily entailed

Notes

Notes annexed to and forming part of the consolidated balance sheet as at March 31, 2022 and the consolidated statement of profit and loss for the year ended March 31, 2022

(All amounts in Rupees (Rs.) million, unless otherwise stated)

by the restructuring and not associated with the ongoing activities of the Group.

b) Contingent liabilities

Contingent liabilities are disclosed when there is a possible obligation arising from past events the existence of which will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the Group or a present obligation that arises from past events where it is either not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle or a reliable estimate of the amount cannot be made.

c) Contingent assets

Contingent assets are disclosed, where an inflow of economic benefits is probable.

1.21 CONTRIBUTED EQUITY

Equity shares are classified as equity. Incremental costs directly attributable to the issue of new shares or options are shown in equity as a deduction, net of tax, from the proceeds.

1.22 DIVIDENDS

Provision is made for the amount of any dividend declared, being appropriately authorised and no longer at the discretion of the entity, on or before the end of the reporting period but not distributed at the end of the reporting period.

1.23 EARNINGS PER SHARE

a) Basic earnings per share

Basic earnings per share is calculated by dividing:

- the profit attributable to owners of the Group; and
- by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the financial year, adjusted for bonus elements in equity shares issued during the year and excluding treasury shares.

b) Diluted earnings per share

Diluted earnings per share adjust the figures used in the determination of basic earnings per share to take into account:

- the after income tax effect of interest and other financing costs associated with dilutive potential equity shares; and

- the weighted average number of additional equity shares that would have been outstanding assuming the conversion of all dilutive potential equity shares.

1.24 ROUNDING OF AMOUNTS

All amounts disclosed in the consolidated financial statements and notes have been rounded off to the nearest Rupees millions (upto two decimals), unless otherwise stated as per the requirement of Schedule III (Division II).

1.25 Business Combinations

The acquisition method of accounting is used to account for all business combinations, regardless of whether equity instruments or other assets are acquired. The consideration transferred for the acquisition of a subsidiary comprises the

- fair values of the assets transferred
- liabilities incurred to the former owners of the acquired business
- equity interests issued by the group
- fair value of any asset or liability resulting from a contingent consideration arrangement.

Identifiable assets acquired and liabilities and contingent liabilities assumed in a business combination are, with limited exceptions, measured initially at their fair values at the acquisition date. The group recognises any non-controlling interest in the acquired entity on an acquisition-by-acquisition basis either at fair value or at the non-controlling interest's proportionate share of the acquired entity's net identifiable assets.

The excess of the:

- consideration transferred
- amount of any non-controlling interest in the acquired entity
- acquisition-date fair value of any previous equity interest in the acquired entity

over the fair value of the net identifiable assets acquired is recorded as goodwill. If those amounts are less than the fair value of the net identifiable assets of the business acquired, the difference is recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated in equity as capital reserve provided there is clear evidence of the underlying reasons for classifying the business combination

Notes

Notes annexed to and forming part of the consolidated balance sheet as at March 31, 2022 and the consolidated statement of profit and loss for the year ended March 31, 2022

(All amounts in Rupees (Rs.) million, unless otherwise stated)

as a bargain purchase. In other cases, the bargain purchase gain is recognised directly in equity as capital reserve.

Where settlement of any part of cash consideration is deferred, the amounts payable in the future are discounted to their present value as at the date of exchange. The discount rate used is the entity's incremental borrowing rate, being the rate at which a similar borrowing could be obtained from an independent financier under comparable terms and conditions.

Contingent consideration is classified either as equity or a financial liability. Amounts classified as a financial liability are subsequently remeasured to fair value with changes in fair value recognised in profit or loss.

If the business combination is achieved in stages, the acquisition date carrying value of the acquirer's previously held equity interest in the acquiree is remeasured to fair value at the acquisition date. Any gains or losses arising from such remeasurement are recognised in profit or loss or other comprehensive income, as appropriate.

NOTE 2: CRITICAL ESTIMATES AND JUDGMENTS

The preparation of financial statements requires the use of accounting estimates which, by definition, will seldom equal the actual results. Management also needs to exercise judgment in applying the Group's accounting policies. This note provides an overview of the areas that involved a higher degree of judgment or complexity, and of items which are more likely to be materially adjusted due to estimates and assumptions turning out to be different than those originally assessed. Detailed information about each of these estimates and judgments is included in relevant notes together with information about the basis of calculation for each affected line item in the financial statements.

Critical estimates and judgments

i) Estimation of Provisions and Contingent Liabilities

The Group exercises judgment in measuring and recognising provisions and the exposures to contingent liabilities which is related to pending litigation or other outstanding claims. Judgement is necessary in assessing the likelihood that a pending claim will succeed, or a liability will arise, and to quantify the possible range of the financial settlement. Because of the inherent uncertainty in this evaluation process, actual liability may be different from the originally estimated as provision (Refer Note 40 and Note 45).

ii) Estimation of useful life of Property, Plant and Equipment

Property, plant and equipment represent a significant proportion of the asset base of the Group. The charge in respect of periodic depreciation is derived after determining an estimate of an asset's expected useful life and the expected residual value at the end of its life. The useful lives and residual values of Group's assets are determined by management at the time the asset is acquired and reviewed periodically, including at each financial year end. The lives are based on historical experience with similar assets as well as anticipation of future events, which may impact their life, such as changes in technology (Refer Note 1.10).

iii) Estimation of Provision for Inventory

The Group writes down inventories to net realisable value based on an estimate of the realisability of inventories. Write downs on inventories are recorded where events or changes in circumstances indicate that the balances may not be realised. The identification of write-downs requires the use of estimates of net selling prices of the down-graded inventories. Where the expectation is different from the original estimate, such difference will impact the carrying value of inventories and write-downs of inventories in the periods in which such estimate has been changed.

iv) Estimation of Defined Benefit Obligation

The present value of the defined benefit obligations depends on a number of factors that are determined on an actuarial basis using a number of assumptions. The assumptions used in determining the net cost (income) for post employment plans include the discount rate. Any changes in these assumptions will impact the carrying amount of such obligations.

The Group determines the appropriate discount rate at the end of each year. This is the interest rate that should be used to determine the present value of estimated future cash outflows expected to be required to settle the defined benefit obligations. In determining the appropriate discount rate, the Group considers the interest rates of government bonds of maturity approximating the terms of the related plan liability (Refer Note 39).

Notes annexed to and forming part of the consolidated balance sheet as at March 31, 2022 and the consolidated statement of profit and loss for the year ended March 31, 2022

(All amounts in Rupees (Rs.) million, unless otherwise stated)

v) Estimated fair value of Financial Instruments

The fair value of financial instruments that are not traded in an active market is determined using valuation techniques. The Management uses its judgment to select a variety of methods and make assumptions that are mainly based on market conditions existing at the end of each reporting period (Refer Note 42)

In considering the value in use, the board of directors of Investee Company have selected the appropriate method for the determination of value-in-use. example market approach model, discounted cash flow model etc. Accordingly, Company anticipates the market rates from independent website, assesses the work of the external valuation expert for valuation of the Investee Company in case of market approach model.

vi) Impairment of carrying of Goodwill arising from Investment in subsidiary

Determining whether the impairment of carrying value of Goodwill requires an estimate of the value in use.

(i) Fair value hierarchy

This section explains the judgments and estimates made in determining the fair values of the financial instruments that are (a) recognised and measured at fair value and (b) measured at amortised cost and for which fair values are disclosed in the financial statements. To provide an indication about the reliability of the inputs used in determining fair value, the Group has classified its financial instruments into the three levels prescribed under the accounting standard. An explanation of each level follows underneath the table.

The following table provides an analysis of financial instruments that are measured subsequent to initial recognition at fair value, grouped into Level 1 to Level 3, as described below.

Level 1: This hierarchy includes financial instruments measured using quoted prices. There is no item under this category as at March 31, 2022 and as at March 31, 2021.

Level 2: The fair value of financial instruments that are not traded in an active market is determined using valuation techniques which maximise the use of observable market data and rely as little as possible on entity-specific estimates. The Group has derivatives which are not designated as hedges, bonds, government securities and mutual funds for which all significant inputs required to fair value an instrument falls under level 2.

Level 3: If one or more of the significant inputs is not based on observable market data, the instrument is included in level 3. This is the case for unlisted equity securities.

(ii) Valuation technique used to determine fair value

Specific valuation techniques used to value financial instruments include:

- the fair value of forward contracts is determined using forward exchange rates prevailing with Authorised Dealers dealing in foreign exchange.
- the use of Net Assets Value ('NAV') for valuation of mutual fund investment. NAV represents the price at which the issuer will issue further units and will redeem such units of mutual fund to and from the investors.
- the fair value of unquoted bonds and government securities are derived based on the indicative quotes of price and yields prevailing in the market or latest available prices.

43. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT

The Group's activities expose it to market risk, liquidity risk and credit risk. In order to minimise any adverse effects on the financial performance of the Group, derivative financial instruments, such as foreign exchange forward contracts are entered to hedge certain foreign currency risk exposures. Derivatives are used exclusively for hedging purposes and not as trading or speculative instruments.

This note explains the sources of risk which the entity is exposed to and how the entity manages the risk and the impact of hedge accounting in the financial statements.

Risk	Exposure arising from	Measurement	Management
Credit risk	Trade receivables and other financial assets	"Ageing analysis "	Diversification of bank deposits, credit limits and letters of credit
Liquidity risk	Borrowings and other financial liabilities	Borrowings maturity and cash flow forecasts	Availability of committed credit lines and borrowing facilities
Market risk – foreign currency risk	Recognised financial assets and liabilities not denominated in Rupees	Sensitivity analysis	Forward foreign exchange contracts
Market risk – security prices risk	Investments in bonds and mutual funds	Sensitivity analysis	Portfolio diversification

The Group's risk management is carried out by treasury department under policies approved by the board of directors. Treasury department identifies, evaluates and hedges financial risks. The board provides written principles for overall risk management, as well as policies covering specific areas, such as foreign exchange risk, interest rate risk, credit risk, use of derivative financial instruments and non-derivative financial instruments and investment of excess liquidity. There is no change in objectives, policies and process for managing the risk and methods used to measure the risk as compared to previous year.

(I) Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk that counterparty will not meet its obligation under a financial instrument or customer contract, leading to a financial loss. The Group is exposed to credit risk from its operating activities (primarily trade receivables) and from its financing activities, including deposits with bank, foreign exchange transactions and other financial instruments.

Notes

Notes annexed to and forming part of the consolidated balance sheet as at March 31, 2022 and the consolidated statement of profit and loss for the year ended March 31, 2022

(All amounts in Rupees (Rs.) million, unless otherwise stated)

The Group considers the probability of default upon initial recognition of asset and whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk on an ongoing basis throughout each reporting period. To assess whether there is a significant increase in credit risk the Group compares the risk of a default occurring on the asset as at the reporting date with the risk of default as at the date of initial recognition.

a) Trade receivables

Trade receivables are typically unsecured and are derived from revenue earned from customers. Credit risk has been managed by the Group through credit approvals, establishing credit limits and continuously monitoring the creditworthiness of customers to which the Group grants credit terms in the normal course of business. On account of adoption of Ind AS 109, the Group uses expected credit loss model to assess the impairment loss or gain.

Past exposure suggest a low/ minimum credit risk or allowances of debtors. Exposures of trade receivable (net of allowance) broken into ageing bucket is given in note 13.

b) Other financial assets

The Group maintains exposure in cash and cash equivalents, term deposits with banks, derivative financial instruments, bonds and investments in mutual funds. The Group has diversified portfolio of investment with various number of counterparties which have good credit ratings, good reputation and hence the risk is reduced. Individual risk limits are set for each counterparty based on financial position, credit rating and past experience. Credit limits and concentration of exposures are actively monitored by the Group.

(II) Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Group will not be able to meet its financial obligations as they become due. The Group manages liquidity risk by maintaining adequate reserves, banking facilities and reserve borrowing facilities (comprising the undrawn borrowing facilities below), by continuously monitoring forecast and actual cash flows and matching the maturity profiles of financial assets and liabilities.

a) Financing arrangements

Floating rate
Expiring within one year	8,789.43	11,595.20
Expiring beyond one year	4,994.16	-
Total	13,783.59	11,595.20

b) Maturities of financial liabilities

The tables below analyse the Group's financial liabilities into relevant maturity groupings based on their contractual maturities for:

All non-derivative financial liabilities, and

Derivative financial instruments for which the contractual maturities are essential for an understanding of the timing of the cash flows.

The amounts disclosed in the table are the contractual undiscounted cash flows. Balances due within 12 months equal their carrying balances as the impact of discounting is not material.

III) Market risk - foreign currency risk

The Group undertakes transactions denominated in foreign currencies; consequently, exposures to exchange rate fluctuations arise. Exchange rate exposures are managed within approved policy parameters utilising forward foreign exchange contracts.

The Group uses foreign currency forward contracts to hedge its risks associated with foreign currency fluctuations relating to certain firm commitments, highly probable forecast transactions and foreign currency required at the settlement date of certain receivables/payables. The use of foreign currency forward contracts is governed by the Group's strategy approved by the board of directors, which provide principles on the use of such forward contracts consistent with the Group's risk management policy and procedures.

(IV) Interest rate risk

The Group had borrowed funds at both fixed and floating interest rates. The Group's interest rate risk arises from long-term borrowings with variable rates, which exposes the Group to cash flow interest rate risk. During March 31, 2022 and March 31, 2021, the Group's borrowings at variable rate were denominated in USD.

The Group's fixed rate borrowings are carried at amortised cost. They are therefore not subject to interest rate risk as defined in Ind AS 107, since neither the carrying amount nor the future cash flows will fluctuate because of a change in market interest rates.

a) Interest rate risk exposure

The exposure of the Group's borrowing to interest rate changes at the end of the reporting period are as follows:

Particulars	As at	As at
	March 31, 2022	March 31, 2021
Fixed rate borrowings	16,058.08	6,838.80
Floating rate borrowings	4,156.30	2,788.60
Total borrowings	20,214.38	9,627.40

As at the end of the reporting period, the Group had the following variable rate borrowings and interest rate swap contracts outstanding:

Particulars	As at	As at
	March 31, 2022	March 31, 2021
Floating rate borrowings	4,156.30	2,788.60
Net exposure to cash flow interest rate risk	4,156.30	2,788.60

b) Sensitivity

Profit or loss is sensitive to higher/ lower interest expense from borrowings as a result of changes in interest rates. Other components of equity change as a result of an increase/ decrease in the fair value of the cash flow hedges related to borrowings.

(V) Investment risk

a) Exposure

The Group is mainly exposed to the price risk due to its investment in mutual funds and bonds. The price risk arises due to uncertainties about the future market values of these investments.

In order to manage its price risk arising from investments in mutual funds, the Group diversifies its portfolio in accordance with the limits set by the risk management policies.

b) Sensitivity

The table below summarises the impact of increases/decreases of 1% increase in price of bonds, government securities and mutual funds.

The Group uses forward contracts to hedge its risks associated with foreign currency fluctuations relating to certain firm commitments, highly probable forecast transactions and foreign currency required at the settlement date of certain receivables/payables. The use of forward contracts is governed by the Group's strategy approved by the board of directors, which provide principles on the use of such forward contracts consistent with the Group's risk management policy.

The Group's hedging policy only allows for effective hedge relationships to be established. Hedge effectiveness is determined at the inception of the hedge relationship, and through periodic prospective effectiveness assessments to ensure that an economic relationship exists between the hedged item and hedging instrument. The Group enters into hedge relationships where the critical terms of the hedging instrument match exactly with the terms of the hedged item, and so a qualitative assessment of effectiveness is performed. If changes in circumstances affect the terms of the hedged item such that the critical terms no longer match exactly with the critical terms of the hedging instrument, the group uses the hypothetical derivative method to assess effectiveness. Ineffectiveness is recognised on a cash flow hedge and net investment hedge where the cumulative change in the designated component value of the hedging instrument exceeds on an absolute basis the change in value of the hedged item attributable to the hedged risk. In hedges of foreign currency forecast sale and purchase transactions, hedges of interest rate risk and hedges of net investment, as applicable, this may arise if:

- (i) The critical terms of the hedging instrument and the hedged item differ (i.e. nominal amounts, timing of the forecast transaction, interest resets changes from what was originally estimated), or
- (ii) Differences arise between the credit risk inherent within the hedged item and the hedging instrument. There were no ineffectiveness recognised in the statement of profit and loss during March 31, 2021 and March 31, 2020.

Note 3:

The following note which is referenced for Key Audit Matter (KAM) of one of the associate i.e. East Pipes Integrated Company (EPIC) has been reproduced as below:

Property, plant and equipment:

Useful lives of property, plant and equipment

The Company's management determines the estimated useful lives of property, plant and equipment for computing depreciation. This estimate is determined after considering the technical condition of the plant and machinery and its future anticipated usage and physical wear and tear. Residual value and useful lives are reviewed annually and future depreciation charges are adjusted where the useful lives differ from previous estimates. At 31 March 2022, if the useful lives varied by 10% against the current useful lives with all other variables held constant, the impact on loss for the year would have been Saudi Riyals 3.4 million (₹ 20.21).

Notes

Notes annexed to and forming part of the consolidated balance sheet as at March 31, 2022 and the consolidated statement of profit and loss for the year ended March 31, 2022

(All amounts in Rupees (Rs.) million, unless otherwise stated)

During the year ended 31 March 2022, the Company's in-house technical team, in assistance with management's external third-party expert, concluded on the results of a detailed exercise to re-assess the useful lives of plant and machinery, considering multiple factors including historical and future anticipated usage of similar assets, technological changes and other recent changes in the market conditions. As a result of such exercise, the Company's management revised the useful life range of its plant and machinery from 2 - 20 years to 2 - 36 years with effect from 1 April 2021. The revision in estimated useful life range is considered to be a change in accounting estimate and, accordingly, the effect of this change has been adopted prospectively. As a result of this change, the depreciation charge, cost of revenue, loss for the year and total comprehensive loss for the year ended 31 March 2022 decreased by Saudi Riyals 15.6 million compared to what it would have been using the previous useful life range.

Depreciation is calculated on straight-line basis over the following estimated useful lives of the assets:

	Number of years
• Buildings and leasehold improvements	10-20
• Plant and machinery	2-36
• Furniture, fixtures and office equipment	2-5
• Vehicles	3-5

Note-The Company in this note refers to EPIC.
